Marin Gains Support For Fair Fund Plan

Not What Requested, But Considered Good

Assurance has been obtained from State Finance Director John F. Carr that he will support Marin County in a plan for accumulating yearly state contributions in order that construction of county fair plant on the Civic Center site may be handled in one stage for efficiency and economy. This, it was learned today, was the result of a Sacramento conference between Marin and state representatives yesterday in which the Marinites did not get what they first requested but ended up with what they consider a satisfactory plan.

After a report to the board of supervisors probably next Monday, it is expected that the county's desires will be written up in revised form to cover a five-year program, and be submitted to the state before a June 1 deadline.

CASTRO THERE

The meeting yesterday afternoon, in Carr's office, had been arranged by Marin's Sen. John F. McCarthy who played a major role in steering discussion headed on the state side by Carr and for Marin by Supervisor Walter R. Castro of San Rafael, who was backed by a considerable group. Assisting Carr was Robert Harkness of his office.

Three proposals were put forward in turn. Reception went about as inwardly anticipated by the Marinites who had decided they had better make initial play for the jackpot but who weren't astonished that they didn't hit.

The first idea was that the state meet its total five-year commitment for a total of just over half a million dollars at once. Carr was prompt in saying that this would be impossible because it would mean taking money already committed to 71 other counties, who split two and quarter million dollars a year as against requests aggregating up to 30 million dollars.

BUDGET SUGGESTION

Next the Marin group backed an idea put forward by Senator McCarthy, who suggested that the governor's budget be amended in the senate to appropriate the entire sum for Marin in this year's budget, making it up in part from the general fund instead of drawing wholly on pari-mutuel money but eventually repaying the fund from the race track take.

Carr similarly took a dim view of this hopeful thought.

Finally came the plan which

Bills Offered To Curb Gate Span Transfer

Solon Introduces Measures Backed By Bridge District

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—Golden Gate Bridge officials are launching a three-pronged legislative answer to the proposal to put the Gate bridge and all Bay bridges under Golden Gate Transportation Commission operation.

Assemblyman Frank P. Belotti (R, Eureka) introduced one bill yesterday, a second today and will introduce a third tomorrow "at the request of the bridge district" which would:

1.Divide surplus profits of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District among the six counties of the district — Marin, Sonoma, Mendocino, Napa, Del Norte and San Francisco—on the basis of assessed valuation.

NO TRANSFER

2. Prohibit transfer of any bridge or facility from a district to the state without a two-thirds vote of the people of the district, and prohibit the holding of such an election so long as there is outstanding indebtedness against the district.

3. Require cost of maintenance and insurance of all toll bridges to be paid from toll revenues unless specific legislation was involved at the time of the bond issue which financed the bridge.

OTHER APPROVAL

Belotti said that in addition to "handling them for the bridge district," the three bills also have the approval of supervisors in Mendocino and Del Norte Counties, both of which are in Belotti's district.

The first bill, which he introduced yesterday, would restore the bridge legislation substantially to what it was when the bridge district was created. About 10 years ago, when the reserve and surplus funds of the district began to build up, the bridge district pushed through legislation prohibiting return of surplus funds to the counties.

RESERVE FUNDS

At present, reserve funds are approximately $20,000,000. But reserves in the bond redemption fund, in the interest fund, a one year's total in the reserve interest fund and possibly other reserves would be exempted from distribution under the proposal.

The bill Belotti introduced today, which would prohibit transfer of a bridge or facility without vote of the district's residents, is in direct opposition to the proposed transportation commission bill (SB 853) proposed by Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy. The commission would take over Bay bridges, without a vote of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District, the only district involved. It would negotiate to take over other facilities such as airports and seaports in the Bay Area.

The second portion of the measure, which would prohibit

Storm Hits East Coast, Three Die

NEW YORK (UPI) — A vicious rain and snowstorm driven by gale force gusts spread death and destruction along the Atlantic Coast today.

A spring nor'easter with the icy lash of winter moved down from Nova Scotia to North Carolina, powered by winds of 35 to 50 miles an hour with gusts up to 75 miles an hour. It played havoc with shipping and flooded coastal communities with high tides. Air, train, bus, auto and ferry travel was disrupted.

"This is worse than Hurricane Donna," said a Greenwich, Conn., policeman after taking the residents of 25 low-lying homes to safety.

At least three persons were known dead and a number of others were missing in the storm that carried hail, sleet, snow and from six to eight inches of torrential rain.

Three teen-agers were found dead in a drifting boat off Long Island's storm buffeted south shore. At Dobbs Ferry, N.Y., a barge overturned in the choppy, white-capped Hudson River and three or four crewmen were missing.

North Korea Gets Invite To Debate

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — The General Assembly's main political committee tightened the tangle on procedure in its Korean debate and adjourned indefinitely without taking action today.

The 99-nation committee decided yesterday, over Soviet objections, to extend a conditional invitation to Communist North Korea to participate in the debate provided it acknowledged the "competence and authority" of the United Nations to deal with the Korean question.

Ambassador Charles W. Yost, deputy chief of the U.S. delegation, moved today to start the actual debate on the Korean question. Next Monday, whether or not North Korea had replied to the message sent by Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold last night, informing the Pyongyang authorities of the committee's decision.

Yost's move brought objections from Russia and Afro-Asian countries that it would set an arbitrary deadline.

Jets Collide In Air; Both Fliers Safe

HAFB Man Lands His Jet; Other Pilot Parachutes

Maj. Byron R. Kalin of Hamilton Air Force Base this morning landed his air force jet plane safely after a mid-air collision which sent another jet crashing to the ground near Sacramento.

The pilot of the other air force plane, Capt. Harold L. Harris of McClellan Air Force Base, parachuted to safety near McClellan where Kalin landed.

Both men were reported uninjured.

Captain Harris had taken off from McClellan only moments before to aid Kalin, who reported to the base control tower that cockpit instruments showed his landing gear was not down or not locked in place.

PILOTS ALONE

Both men were piloting two-place T-33 jet trainers, but were alone aboard each plane.

Air force officers at McClellan said it is "standard operating procedure" to send another plane up so its pilot may visually check the landing gear.

Harris made a few passes below Kalin's plane, but on the final pass, the tale sections of the two planes touched in a "very, very minor midair collision," air force officers at the base reported.

Harris' plane went out of control. Harris bailed out to land in a cleared area near Elkhorn Ferry, south of Woodland. His plane landed on a river levee north of Elkhorn Ferry, off the Garden Highway, the California Highway Patrol reported.

MINOR DAMAGE

Kalin landed his plane without incident at McClellan. It had minor damage to its metal "skin," officers said.

Kalin was placed in the base hospital for observation, but was reported apparently uninjured. Harris was still on his way back to the base late this morning.

Kalin had taken off from Hamilton at 7 a.m. on his way to McClellan. The collision occurred at 8:10 a.m.

Harris is stationed at McClellan as special assistant to the chief of the quality control division of the Sacramento air materiel command.

Kalin has been at Hamilton since September, 1960. He is office in charge of scheduling T-33 flights in the 78th operations squadron.

RED TAG RUSH IS ON

Mignon Gonzales, checker at Payless Drug Store in San Rafael, helps unload shopping cart for one of the many Red Tag shoppers who crowded San Rafael's main shopping district today as the first of three-day sales got under way. "There seems to be four times as many shoppers today as compared to a usual Thursday," said Francis T. Fogarty, manager of J. C. Penney's store in San Rafael. Irving Chapman of Chapman's Shoe Store said business was booming. Chapman commended "the efforts of all 68 merchants in the main shopping area who are making this a success." Space Man Describes Eerie Weightlessness

Ate, Drank, Worked Floating In Mid-Air

MOSCOW (AP)—Maj. Yuri A. Gagarin said today he worked on his notes, and even ate and drank while objects were floating around in the realm of weightlessness as he orbited the earth, the Soviet News agency Tass reported.

The Soviet astronaut, Tass said, described the eerie situation in the space ship when weightlessness took over. The entire flight, he asserted, was work all the way and particularly in that phase.

Even so, he said, he felt excellent during that period of his 108-minute flight.

As he waited in the Soviet interior for a hero's welcome in Moscow tomorrow, the 27-year-old astronaut told for the first time about his experiences as his five-ton space ship hurtled around the earth. Premier Khrushchev is expected to cut short his vacation at the Black Sea resort of Sochi to head the welcoming committee when Gagarin arrives in Moscow about noon.

When he became weightless, Gagarin said, it became easier to do everything.

"This is quite natural," he commented. "One's legs, arms weigh nothing, objects float in the cabin. Neither did I myself sit in the chair as I did before that, but hung in midair. While in the state of weightlessness, I ate and drank and everything occurred just as it does here on earth.

"I even worked in that condition, wrote, jotting down my observations. My handwriting did not change although the hand does not weigh anything. Only I had to hold the notebook, otherwise it would float away. I maintained communications over different channels and tapped the telegraph key."

Gagarin said he learned first hand that weightlessness does not deprive a man of an ability to work, Tass reported.

"The transition from weightlessness to gravitation," he said, "to the appearance of the force of gravity, is smooth. One's legs and arms feel as before, as during weightlessness, but again acquire weight. And I am no longer hovered over the chair but eased myself into it."

As to what he saw from space, Tass said Gagarin reported:

"I did not see the moon. The sun in outer space is tens of times brighter than here on earth. The stars are visible very well. They are bright and

KENNEDY WAGE BILL RUNS INTO TROUBLE

Senate Conservatives Move To Block Extension Of Minimum Pay Coverage

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy's minimum wage bill was called up for Senate action today, and immediately ran into opposition from conservative Democrats and Republicans.

The bill essentially was the same as the one which the House defeated by one vote before the Easter recess. It would boost the minimum wage to $1.25 an hour and extend coverage to 4.1 million more workers.

After Senate majority leader Mike Mansfield moved to call up the measure, Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) offered a sheaf of amendments to water down the program. He told the Senate that legislation expanding coverage and boosting wages would harm the unemployed, states' rights, the constitution and unskilled, Negro and youthful workers.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) leader of the Southern bloc, offered a substitute which would block extension of the federal wage minimum to approximately 4.1 million additional workers.

The Kennedy-backed proposals, sponsored by Sen. Pat McNamara, (D-Mich.) would provide gradual increases to $1.25 for 23.9 million workers already covered by the law and bring it the 4.1 million new workers, Russell wants to eliminate.

Kennedy forces suffered a sharp set-back when the bill was passed by the House recently in a drastically limited form.

U.N. Troops Told To Hold Against Riots

ELISABETHVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—United Nations troops here were told today to shoot if necessary should the Katangese stage new demonstrations to force the release of 32 white mercenaries captured in a Katanga- U. N. battle early this week.

Rumors grew that the demonstrations may come soon—possibly tonight. But U.N. officials believed any riots were more likely to take place over the weekend.

The Katanga government of Moise Tshombe continued to build pressure on the United Nations by announcing that "all anti-U.N. sanctions are now back in force."

The United Nations confirmed that the Albertville and Manono airports have been closed to U.N. traffic. But a spokesman said the world body plans to send in test supply planes, "possibly tomorrow."

Commons Hears Report On Macmillan's Visit

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan told the House of Commons today his talks with President John F. Kennedy gave a "good augury for the future."

He refused to go much beyond a joint communique issued with Kennedy at end of the talks in Washington. He said one of the prime objects of his visit was to learn the attitude of the new administration.

"I found a welcome readiness to discuss our problems in a very frank and imaginative way, which gives a good augury for the future," he said.

Macmillan, just returned from a trip to the British West Indies, the United States and Canada, reported to Commons in a short prepared statement.

He said his hurriedly scheduled meeting with Kennedy at Key West, Fla., dealt with "the specific question of our policy in Laos." The Washington talks, he said, "covered four days and many subjects were discussed."

"My chief purpose was to explain the point of view of her majesty's government on a number of subjects and to ascertain the attitude of the new administration," he said.

Macmillan reported he and Kennedy covered the broad fields of economic, financial, trade, defense and political problems and policies, including the nuclear test ban conference at Geneva, West Indian economic issues and Angelo-American shipping industry.

U.S. Space Program Held Sound

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Space chief James E. Webb testified today that U.S. space plans are not designed to "match" the Russians but rather "to meet the needs of the United States." (See also space stories, page 2.)

Webb also told the house space committee that he "is greatly encouraged" by a speed-up in this country's program under President John F. Kennedy. He and other top space officials were questioned by committee members who were openly chagrined over Russia's feat of sending the first man into space.

SOLIDLY BASED

Webb, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, termed the current U.S. program sound and solidly based.

However, Webb told the house group:

"If you speak of catching up, I am unable to say what the Russians will do next in further development of their big booster (rocket). This program is not designed to match precisely what the Russians may do. It is designed to meet the needs of the United States. If we deliberately set out to compete with Russia on a point by point basis, this involves a different kind of decision."

WANT TO MOVE

Chairman Overton Brooks (D-N.Y.) said the American people want the United States to move from second place to first place in the exploration of space. He asked Webb if increased space spending proposed by Kennedy will assure development of a big booster rocket "at the earliest possible moment."

Webb replied, "No, not at the earliest possible moment."

Continuation Of Race Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Undersecretary of State Chester Bowles said today severe competition between the United States and the Soviet Union is likely to continue for years to come.

Bowles, in a speech prepared for delivery before the conference on immigration policy of the National Council of Churches, also urged greater U.S. efforts to win the support of the new nations of the world.

"We cannot survive as a great and influential nation," he said, "unless we can help forge a working partnership of the non-Communist peoples of the world."

Joe Smiths Confused By Red Orbit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Joe Smith, average American, is both worried and confused about the Soviet announcement that they orbited a man around the earth.

This was the reaction reported in a nationwide poll by 11 newspapers to find out what the man in the street thinks of the Soviet space achievement.

In each city reporters called Joe Smiths, picked at random from the telephone directory.

The poll was conducted in Miami, Detroit, Akron, Charlotte, Denver, Dallas, Minneapolis, Los Angeles, Oklahoma City and Washington, D. C.

Two Joe Smiths said they thought the United States should step up its space program. Three doubted if the Soviets had really sent a man into space.

Two couldn't see what difference it made. Two expressed confidence that President John F. Kennedy would keep the Soviets from retaining any advantage over us and three hailed it as a great scientific achievement.

Joe Smith, 72, retired tool and die maker in Detroit, said, "They can put all the Russians into space as far as I'm concerned. We can still take care of ourselves, don't worry."

Joe J. Smith, 23, of Charlotte, N.C., said, "I just wish we had done it first. Maybe we're not spending enough money to perfect it right."

Miamian Joe W. Smith, 68, a retired World War I veteran, called it "a bunch of Russian lies." He said "I think it's propaganda to break us down, but they won't break down President Kennedy. Flying in space is against God's wishes."

"If it is true that Russia brought the man back and he's well, then it's a great achievement," said Joe C. Smith, 55, rubber plant worker in Akron, Ohio. "But it's hard to believe what the Russians say."

"I doubt that they did it," said Joe Smith, 61, draftsman for the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation in Denver.

"I think it's a pretty great feat myself," said Joe Smith, 47, Dallas electrician. "The flight shows a lot of skill on the part of the Russians and I believe it is the first step toward interplanetary transportation if we are going to have it."

Joe Smith, 85, an attorney in Pasadena, said "I think it's a lot of damned foolishness. I don't see that any good can come of it."

U.S. Mum On Soviet Space Shots Data

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedy administration is keeping a tight lip on information about Soviet space shots and Pentagon officials said today the aim is to avoid giving the Soviets an idea of the effectiveness of U. S. tracking facilities and intelligence.

Officials, who told this to a reporter, said another purpose was to deny the Soviets what was termed advertising on their space achievements.

NO DISCLOSURE

A Defense Department spokesman said that among other things, there would be no public disclosure when U. S. tracking stations pick up a Soviet rocket launching until after the Soviets announce it themselves.

The policy was developed in meetings among officials of the White House, the State and Defense departments, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the Central Intelligence Agency, officials said. They indicated it might possibly be changed at some future time.

There was considerable confusion yesterday when newsmen sought information from NASA on the Soviet manned space craft.

OBJECT TRACKED

Space agency officials said they had been tracking an object in the approximate path of the vehicle, but that it presumably was the burned out casing of the rocket that carried the craft into orbit. The first contact they reported came some hours after the Soviets said their cosmonaut had returned to earth in his capsule.

At the White House, Pierre Salinger, the press secretary said he had a report of a contact at a time just after the space craft had passed over the Asian land mass. Salinger said it was his understanding "It was the space ship that was tracked."

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Somalis Battle

MOGADISCIO, Somalia (UPI)—Ethiopian troops using machine guns and bombs have killed more than 100 Somalis in Ethiopia near the French Somali and independent Somalia borders, according to delayed reports reaching here today.

Other shooting incidents involving Ethiopian troops and Somalis were reported from other areas in a renewal of violence that first broke out along the ill-defined frontiers three months ago.

A group of 92 Somali refugees from the Ethiopian town of Dagahbur reached Hargeisa, in former British Somalia, and reported the massacre.

Delinquency Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate yesterday passed a bill authorizing $20 million in federal grants to combat juvenile delinquency.

The measure, passed by voice vote, now goes to the House. Last year the Senate passed a virtually identical bill but the House took no action on it.

It authorizes grants of $2.5 million a year for four years for pilot projects to improve methods for the prevention, control and treatment of juvenile delinquency. A like amount is authorized for training personnel.

The party was in Caribbean motif with a native band from Trinidad playing for a dozen guests.

Guard Recruiting

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has authorized states to resume normal recruiting for the National Guard.

Restrictions on recruiting, established in February when Guard strength had risen to 410,000, were lifted yesterday.

The National Guard's program is based on a 12-month average strength of 400,000. At the end of last month, National Guard strength stood at 404,000.

Serving Reds

NEW YORK (AP)—Cuban children are being conscripted for service in Communist countries, says Adolf A. Berle Jr., chairman of President John F. Kennedy's task force on Latin America.

In a speech at the Pan American Day meeting of the New York Bar Assn., Berle compared the present Communist program for Latin America with "the attempted seizure of Greece in 1947."

Churchill Trapped

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sir Winston Churchill was trapped on Aristotle Onassis' palatial yacht today by a howling rainstorm which forced the cancellation of his plans to fly back to London.

Churchill's secretary said the 86-year-old former British Prime Minister would fly home tomorrow instead of today as planned, weather permitting.

Kennedy Hopeful Of U.S. Exploits

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy says the Soviet Union will remain ahead of the United States for some time in the space race—that "the news will be worse before it is better."

But he said he is hopeful that the United States will be first in other scientific achievements of much greater benefit to mankind than the spectacular Soviet feat of firing a man around the globe and bringing him safely back to earth.

And while Kennedy credits the Soviets with "a most impressive scientific accomplishment," he does not regard it as a sign of "weakening of the Free World" in the struggle against communism.

But in setting forth these views at a news conference yesterday, the president did sound a note of warning.

He said: "I do regard the total mobilization of men and things for the service of the Communist bloc over the last years as a source of great danger to us. And I would say we are going to have to live with that danger through most of the rest of this century."

This ninth Kennedy news conference as president drew 426 newsmen—eight more than the previous record set at his first on Jan. 25. His face was a study in solemn seriousness as he dealt at length with the space situation, saying "we are behind."

In reply to a question about the significance of the Soviet achievement, Kennedy said the United States has expected all along that the Soviets would win the spaceman race.

This was clearly indicated, the president added, because the Soviet Union has developed mightier booster rockets than the United States has. But he said the United States hopes "to make progress in this area this year."

A reporter told the president that a member of Congress had said he is tired of seeing the United States second to the Soviet Union in the space field.

"Well," Kennedy replied, "the Soviet Union gained an important advantage in securing these large rocket boosters, which were able to put up greater weights, and that advantage is going to be with them for some time.

Martyrs' Day Rites Stall Eichmann Trial

JERUSALEM (AP) — Adolf Eichmann, on trial in Jerusalem for complicity in the death of 6 million Jews, remained in his barred cell today while Israel honored the memory of the Nazis' Jewish victims with nationwide rites.

The day was set aside as "Martyrs' and Heroes' Memorial Day."

The observance brought a day's recess in the proceedings against Eichmann. When the trial resumes tomorrow, the opposing attorneys are to complete their arguments over the legality of the trial and Israel's right to bring Eichmann before an Israeli court.

Israel charges that Eichmann during World War II was the operational director of a Nazi plan known as "The Final Solution of the Jewish Problem" — total extermination of the 11 million Jews in Europe.

The legal argument developed soon after the trial opened Tuesday, with Eichmann's chief counsel, Dr. Robert Servatius of West Germany, contending that Israel has no right to try Eichmann, that the 1950 law under which he is charged cannot apply because it was promulgated after the alleged offenses and that Eichmann was only a tool of his Nazi masters.

Israeli Attorney General Gideon Hausner has spent more than three trial sessions in argument against Servatius' contentions. He told the court he would need another hour tomorrow to sum up.

West German Chief Happy With Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer was reported well pleased today by his foreign policy talks with President Kennedy. He apparently was reassured as to U. S. firmness under the new Kennedy administration in dealings with the Soviet Union.

The two men wind up their conference with two meetings today. Adenauer was scheduled to call on Kennedy for a 90-minute session this morning, followed by a final 30-minute meeting at the White House in late afternoon. Berlin was scheduled as a principal topic for this session.

On Sunday, the German leader, 85, will fly to Austin, Tex. He will be a guest over Sunday night at Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's ranch. He is scheduled to address the Texas Legislature at Austin Monday before departing on his return flight to Germany.

Adenauer obtained new assurances on U. S. policy with respect to West Berlin in the course of a meeting with Secretary Dean Rusk at the State Department.

Kennedy Seeks Enlarged Federal Power Commission

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy asked Congress today to enlarge the Federal Power Commission as a step to reducing its backlog of cases and clearing projects which would put more persons to work.

The President's request to increase the commission from five to seven members was in a special message on the federal regulatory agencies. He appealed, too, for the exemption of some small individual natural gas producers from rate regulations.

At the end of February, the President reported, the FPC had 193 applications proposing construction of 5,761 miles of natural gas pipeline at a cost of $850 million. This, he said, involved an immense potential for creating new jobs.

"It is not to be assumed that all these applications would be granted," Kennedy said, "but it can safely be assumed that more dollars for construction, giving substantial employment throughout the country and making firm-commitments out of orders for materials that are now merely contingent."

TRAVELER REPORTS

Misplaced Marin County Found In West Pakistan

A misplaced Marin County has been found in West Pakistan by a philosophical dervish from Mill Valley.

Samuel L. Lewis, member of a mystical Moslem fraternity and self-styled goodwill ambassador to various foreign parts, thus identifies the region of Abbottabad, Hazara, in a letter dated April 5:

"Abbottabad is like a misplaced Marin. I have visited Begum Selim Khan here, widow of the first consul-general from Pakistan to San Francisco. Her garden is much like those around Ross, and she has made it deliberately so.

"She has a multitude of iris and daffodils. The hills are a cross between Marin and San Bernardino Counties with the western Himalayas in the background."

Being a dervish paid off for Lewis, he reports: "This country is full of dervishes. They are coming to my aid.

"They are leaders in politics, education and community development despite all the misinformation we swallow."

Of pictures showing Lewis with the wali, or guardian saint, of the tomb of the mystic Shamsi-Tabriz, Lewis writes: "I was welcomed and am the first foreigner to have given them a talk on their own philosophy and teachings. Penalty: They all embraced me."

Lewis says U. S. Army engineers are doing a good job of sanitation and pest control in a place where "the fly, not starvation, space-conquest or communism has been the bane." He believes "there is a movement toward a real Asian type of democracy" and found Begum Khan instilling political consciousness in the women.

Lewis complained of Europeans 'experts' on the Orient who cluster especially in California.

"It is a totally false, untenable policy to employ Europeans for our so-called information about Asia," he writes. "The Asians would like to speak for themselves, or else have Americans deal directly . . .

"By mingling with humanity and learning from them we support the best American propaganda."

At Peace Meeting

Count Against N.Y. Solon Is Dismissed

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal district court today dismissed, at the government's request, the third and last count of an indictment charging Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr., D-N.Y., with income tax fraud.

Two other counts had been dismissed during the Harlem Negro's trial on the three counts last April. A jury had deadlocked on the third count.

The government said it lacked sufficient evidence for a re-trial on the third count—that Powell wilfully filed a false income tax return in behalf of his then wife, Hazel Scott, a pianist, for 1951.

It involved income Miss Scott earned on a foreign tour.

The other two counts dismissed in April by Federal District Judge Frederick van Pelt Bryan charged that Powell evaded $3,063 in taxes on a 1951 return and on the Powells' joint 1952 return.

Step Taken Toward Aged Care Program

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The legislature has taken the first step toward setting up a $79,500,000 a year program of medical care for low-income California old folks.

The Senate Social Welfare Committee unanimously approved the administration bill yesterday and sent it to the Senate Finance Committee for a screening of the costs.

The committee gave its approval, too, to another bill sponsored by Gov. Edmund G. Brown to approporiate $150,000 in matching funds to establish community centers for the aged.

The medical aid program would provide care for chronically ill persons over 65 who are ineligible for old age assistance. It would benefit an estimated 60,000 in California.

To get it started, the governor has asked for $7,705,000 in his 1961-62 budget to supplement money already available. The federal government would put up $15,208,000 for the first six months, and the counties $3,252,000.

Officials figured full year costs at $39,798,000 federal, $30,069,500 state and $9,728,500 counties.

Originally the bill fixed the counties' share as one-half of the non-federal payments. At the urging of the California County Supervisors Assn., the committee agreed to scale it down to one-third.

OLD CLOTHS FOR NEW NOT FAIR EXCHANGE

Is a suit of clothes on the back worth more than some old ones left behind? Or did the new suit look better in the sunlight?

Albert C. McNamara, manager of St. Vincent De Paul store at 816 B Street, San Rafael, didn't think so.

He phoned the police that some man had come into the store and tried on a grey suit of clothes. The man then ran out the front door leaving his old clothes behind.

After McNamara phoned police, he chased the customer down the street.

The man was spotted mooching money from two sailors at Fourth and Cijos Streets.

Police booked John Vartanian, 49, of Mojave and San Francisco on charges of disturbing the peace, petty theft and vagrancy.

County Government Bill Will Get Hearing Tonight

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill to give millions of Californians a bigger voice in running their county governments will start on its way through the Legislature today.

The proposal by Assemblyman Clark L. Bradley (R-San Jose) will be heard tonight by the Assembly Committee on Municipal and County Government.

Bradley's bill would require county supervisors to realign the boundaries of their districts every 10 years, after each federal census, in all but 10 counties.

Those 10 counties include San Francisco and San Mateo which elect their county legislators at large and eight counties with mandatory redistricting already in their charters.

Man Accused Of Shooting Freed On Bail

San Francisco metal dealer William H. Asher, 34, accused of firing five shots at his wife in Sleepy Hollow, got out of Marin County Jail on $2,625 posted by his mother yesterday afternoon.

He appeared in Marin Municipal Court yesterday with attorney Harold J. Truett and got a continuance of the case until Wednesday of next week. Asher is charged with attempting to murder his wife, Doris Helen, 40, with a 30.06 rifle Monday night.

Mrs. Asher told the sheriff's inspectors her estranged husband broke into her home at 100 Hidden Lane and fired at her while she lay reading in bed.

Through his attorney, Asher yesterday asked Judge Leonard A. Thomas that he be released on his own cognizance, or at least have bail reduced.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Charles L. Convis protested vigorously, pointing out that there is a possibility that the defendant may be suffering from schizophrenia. Convis declared the district attorney's office even thought of demanding higher bail, not lower.

The judge left the bail at the original $2,625. A few minutes later, Asher's mother posted the bail.

The lodgepole pine is found in all parts of the West except Arizona and New Mexico.

SCHOOL BOARDS SET MEETING ON MERGER

Novato, San Jose Trustees To Attempt To Iron Out Differences On April 22

Boards of the Novato Unified School District and San Jose district last night agreed to meet together April 22 in an attempt to iron out differences of opinion on unification vs. annexation.

The meeting agreement followed a two-hour session of the Marin County Committee on School District Organization at the Meadow Park School at which both proposals were discussed, also with short consideration of a boundary change.

"We've stuck out foot into it at various times . . ." Mrs. Clinton Ansley of the San Jose board said. It was Mrs. Ansley who at last week's meeting of the county committee put forth the tentative proposal for unification with a seven man board which would require election in trustee districts.

"I never stuck my foot into it so naively before" she continued. "I was under the impression that the two boards at the time were in favor of unification."

She said that board members from San Jose had given the proposal consideration before she moved for it and generally had felt that seven trustees from districts would give better representation to begin a new district than a five-man board elected at large.

Novato trustees at their regular Tuesday meeting generally said they wanted also to study annexation. A written statement presented to the county committee last night from the Novato board officially asked study of all three—unification, annexation and boundary change.

"The Novato Unified School District is already a functional unit, effectively meeting the needs of its people with proven, operational and administratively sound unified (kindergarten through high school) school system. To dissolve this working unit (as under unification of the two districts) may be a disservice to the children and parents of both districts," the statement read in part.

Annexation of the San Jose District would mean the Novato governing board would remain the same; San Jose would just be added to the present Novato district.

Unification would mean an entirely new district and a newly elected board would be formed.

Boundary change would mean only part of the San Jose District would join the Novato district, with the same Novato governing board.

A motion last night that annexation consideration be given equal treatment with the tentative unification proposal was withdrawn by Earl Marshall, a member of the county committee but also on the Novato school board.

Instead, both boards and the committee agreed that both propositions would be thoroughly studied, but the tentative unification proposal would remain.

"These meetings can go on for another two months until we reach a basis on which we can all agree," Marshall said. "I personally prefer annexation."

"Let's just stay where we are and go to work," Alan Swabacker of the San Jose board put in, bringing applause from a sparse audience.

The tentative proposal for unification can be changed at any of the study sessions, committee members noted. The committee may bring only one tentative proposal to a public meeting, to follow these study sessions. Their final recommendation is made following the public meeting, which then would go to a vote of residents.

Trustees of both districts set their joint discussion session, for April 22, tentatively in the morning, at Novato High School. The county committee set its next study session for May 10 at Pacheco School, instead of the previously scheduled April 19.

Points brought out in last night's meeting:

1. Unification would mean a gain of about a quarter of a million dollars over five years for the new district, a state "bonus" to encourage unification. There would be no great difference in bonding or tax rates between unification and annexation.

2. In either annexation or unification, administration contracts would be honored and the new or larger district. teachers would carry tenure to

3. Under annexation, the county committee could recommend two more board members for the Novato district, which under law would mean election in trustee areas.

PROMOTED—Charles E. Neal of 27 Kinross Drive, San Rafael, has been appointed assistant engineer maintenace of way and structures by the Southern Pacific Co. He has been division engineer for Northwestern Pacific in Marin.

Three Variance Pleas Denied In Sausalito

The Sausalito Planning Commission voted unanimously last night to deny three variances asked by the Douglas Lange Corp. of Berkeley which would permit them to construct a 49-room hotel on the 800 block of Bridgeway. Planning commissioners said the applicants did not show hardship.

Commissioners, voting against the proposal of the Spanish style hotel to be called Vina del Mar and to contain a bar and restaurant, said the proposal was "premature under present zoning."

Denied was a variance from the required 1,250 square foot minimum per unit. The builders proposed 450 square feet per unit. The commission also denied two variances from offstreet parking requirements—one from the required one and one-half spaces per unit (builders proposed 48 spaces) and another to give the builders relief from any offstreet parking required for a restaurant and a bar.

Brown Asked To Spare Life Of Killer

SAN QUENTIN (AP) — Alexander Robillard's attorney, Carl Shapiro plans to plead with Gov. Edmund G. Brown today to spare his client's life.

Robillard, 20, of Redding, is scheduled to die in San Quentin's gas chamber April 26 for the 1959 killing of Hillsborough policeman, Gene Doran. Doran was shot six times after he stopped Robillard for question.

He said: "I don't want to die any more than you do. But I'm prepared to go. The state would be much more justified in killing me than those other guys up there on Death Row because I had a better chance in life.

"A few days ago I wrote the governor a short note. I just told him I was very sorry and I asked him to commute my sentence. I never expected any mercy, so if I get it I'll be grateful."

Gasoline Prices Take New Dip In Some Areas

Gasoline prices took another dip, to a low of 22.9 cents per gallon in some parts of Marin.

In most of Southern Marin up to and including San Rafael, "regular" sells for 23.9 cents, but Mill Valley was still holding out at 25.9 cents.

"It looks like a pretty competitive year," commented Bob Harper whose Shell station at Third and Irwin Streets, San Rafael, dropped to 23.9 with premium at 26.9 as of 4 p.m. yesterday. Usually a leader in such drops, Harper said that this time several others were ahead.

Even these prices were as usual cut by a few smaller stations including Wilshire and Regal, but whereas these formerly kept two cents under, they are now making it only a cent —22.9 for regular, 25.9 for high test.

Sausalito was in on the latest move but North and West Marin were not. Quotations were 25.9 and 28.9 in Novato, Bolinas, Stinson Beach and Point Reyes Station.

San Rafael dealers said this move to an exceptionally low price level makes them competitive with San Francisco prices.

COAL COLORED, BUT SOOT'S STILL BLACK

LONDON (AP)—The British housewife soon will be able to buy colored coal to match her living room curtains.

Coal comes into most British living rooms to be burned in those cheerful fireplaces, and black becomes so monotonous.

National Coal Board technicians have perfected a process to dye artistically shaped lumps of coal gold, silver, red, purple and green.

Window and container glass account for nearly 75 per cent of the 8 million tons of glass produced annually in the United States.

Bolinas, Stinson Seek U.S. In Lieu Payments

Trustees of the Bolinas Beach and Stinson Beach school districts, meeting jointly last night, adopted a resolution to ask the federal government for in lieu payments for possible tax loss on land should the Point Reyes National Seashore become a reality.

Arthur E. Carpenter, clerk of the Bolinas board said, the districts may lose approximately $2,000 in next year's tax rolls of the land goes into federal jurisdiction.

Discussing the tax rate increase election to be held Tuesday to set the tax rate at $1.20 per $100 assessed valuation, board members said they wished to make it clear that the increase has nothing to do with the proposed acquisition of new school sites.

Six elementary school sites plus a high school were proposed by the county planning staff March 8 in connection with the master plan being prepared by the county.

Richard A. Miller, principal of Bolinas School, reported that several persons had spoken to him with concern, asking if the tax increase was for school site acquisition.

The budget for 1961-62 was discussed but no action taken.

Boasting about your home, Higgins? Well, that's understandable. Most men who have worked hard through the years to buy good homes for their families are proud of them.

Nice as your home is, its location in a progressive community, with all the public facilities needed for modern living, adds greatly to its attractiveness.

Someday—perhaps years from now—you may sell your home. When you do, the good schools, well-equipped fire department, modern hospitals, ample supply of pure water and other community assets can make a difference of several thousand dollars cash in your pocket.

Of course, you share the cost of these community assets. But the cost is spread over a long period of time to keep taxes at a reasonable rate. This is done by sale of municipal bonds on a competitive bid basis.

The Bank of America and its associated investment dealers bid on virtually all municipal bonds issued in the State. That's because we have confidence in the future of California and communities like yours.

Being right there on the scene, you know the business, industry and people in your community as well as anybody does. You've watched it grow and improve as the years went by. You've helped by voting for needed bond issues.

But have you ever thought of buying the municipal bonds issued in your area? They're available in denomination of $1,000. Municipal bonds pay you a good return and the income you get is tax free. The manager of your local branch of the Bank of America will be glad to give you full information — or you may write to

3 Students Released From Jail

Three students from Santa Rosa Junior College, caught with beer in their possession in San Rafael, were released from jail yesterday, two on $21 bail each and the third without charge.

Paul Edward Carneggie, 18, of Pepperwood (Humboldt County) was charged with beer possession and resisting arrest. Sheriff's deputies said he tried to bolt from the booking desk after his arrest Tuesday night.

James Florian Franke Jr., 18, of Arcata was charged with beer possession and drunkenness. The third youth, Mardell Remus Oman, 18, of Fortuna, was dismissed without charge.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas gave the youths a stern lecture. He set $21 bail each for Carneggie and Franke and advised them they could forfeit the bail if they behave themselves.

'Outer Space Traveler' Charged With Theft

Reinhold O. Schmidt, Nebraska grain buyer who amazed and amused a San Rafael audience a year ago with his account of trips in a Saturnian space trip, was arrested in Bakersfield yesterday on charges he mined $5,000 from an Oakland woman for a couple of phony holes in the ground.

Inspector Lester King of Oakland police said Schmidt told the woman $3,000 was for a gold mine in Alaska to which he had been taken by his flying visitors from Venus. The other $2,000, King said, was purportedly for a mine bearing "pre-energizing crystal" for health purposes. He was charged with two counts of grand theft.

The Alaskan gold mine figured slightly in the talk Schmidt gave at the San Rafael Improvement Club on March 10, 1960, as the first speaker sponsored by Understanding Unit 31.

The visitors from Saturn took him there in their space ship, he said, on the same trip on which they showed him Russian under-ice submarine bases in the Arctic. On a subsequent trip, he saw the sub bases had been blasted by the U.S. Navy, he said.

On his San Rafael visit, Schmidt made no financial touches beyond selling some paper-bound books describing his adventures with his interplanetary buddies.

Subsequently, it was disclosed today by Mrs. Mary L. McAlpine of Fairfax, president of Understanding Unit 31, he fell out of favor with Understanding — which is "for the better understanding of people of this earth and not of this earth."

Inquiries disclosed that some of his "witnesses" disclaimed the testimonials Schmidt credited to them, she said. Schmidt is now "out" with the outer space people.

Would-Be Thief Frightened Away

A teen-age girl, dressed in a man's white shirt and slacks, was almost caught in the act of breaking into a home in Bayside Acres outside of San Rafael Tuesday noon.

Mrs. Evelyn C. Poiesz, of 90 Bayview Avenue told sheriff's deputies she was asleep in the rear bedroom when she heard the dog bark. She went to the front room and saw an arm reaching through the draperty which hung over the front window.

"Who is it?" yelled Mrs. Poiesz.

The arm quickly vanished.

Mrs. Poiesz ran out in time to see the person, believed to be a girl, disappear down the hill.

TRANQUIL REFLECTION — This scene in one of France's many riverbank towns reflects the tranquil beauty that still exists there today. It is from "Provincial France," color motion picture to be shown and narrated by Ed Lark at the Fairfax Theater Monday night to benefit the Junior Museum of Marin.

'World Film' To Show Life Of Frenchmen

"Provincial France," the last showing of this season's "The World Around Us" film series sponsored by the Junior Museum of Marin, will be shown at 8 p.m. Monday at the Fairfax Theater

Personally narrated by Ed Lark, a young film lecturer and world traveller, the color film covers in detail the picturesque and colorful French provinces and touches briefly on Paris and the Riviera.

Particular attention is paid by Lark to such points of tourist interest as the French Alps, the unusual cathedrals, palaces and chateaux, and the world-renowned French festivals and sporting events.

Lark, a graduate of University of California in engineering, whose interest in people, places, and photography led him into a full-time career as a film lecturer, has received nationwide praise for his work.

Tickets to "Provincial France" may be purchased at the Junior Museum of Marin, 76 Albert Park Lane, San Rafael, or at the Fairfax Theater on the night of the showing. Proceeds from the film will benefit the Junior Museum.

Aide Breaks With Castro

HAVANA (UPI) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro's top executive assistant and private secretary, Juan Orta, has broken with the Cuban leader and taken asylum in a Latin American embassy, reliable sources said today.

Orta was personally responsible for the imprisonment of many persons suspected of "dubious" loyalty to Castro. He was the head of the prime minister's office on the 18th floor of the agrarian reform building.

Informants said the reason for Orta's break was his opposition to placing Cuba in the Soviet bloc. Other sources said that he had always supported Castro's foreign policies fully up to now.

President Rules Out Intervention In Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy has ruled out any direct intervention in Cuba by U.S. forces.

Kennedy outlined the U.S. stand at his news conference yesterday in a statement which was as interesting for what he did not say as for what he did.

Kennedy said "There will not under any conditions, be an intervention in Cuba by the U.S. armed forces."

The American government, he added, will do everything it can to make sure no Americans get involved "in any action inside Cuba."

"The basic issue in Cuba is not one between the United States and Cuba," the President said. "It is between the Cubans themselves. I intend to see that we adhere to that principle."

Kennedy added that it was his understanding that the administration's attitudes was understood and shared by anti-Castro exiles from Cuba now in the United States.

The State Department has been mum on a variety of reports that Cubans were being trained in southern U.S. states and in Guatemala, with U.S. aid, for fighting in Cuba against the pro-Communist regime of Fidel Castro.

Kennedy also said the United States is against Cubans who wish to overthrow Castro only to reestablish a dictatorship like that of Castro's predecessor, Fulgencio Batista.

Asked about any effort to recover the approximately $1 billion dollars worth of American property seized in Cuba, Kennedy said Washington would only act through "formal and normal negotiations" with a free and independent Havana government after it comes to power.

The President side-stepped a direct answer as to whether he thinks Castro is a Communist. But he pictured the bearded prime minister as acting like a Red if he is not actually carrying a party card.

Laos Fetes New Year With Water Fights

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI)—Laotian soldiers took time out from war today to celebrate the Laotian new year by dousing pretty girls with water.

Some royal army troops put aside their rifles and took up water-pistols to join civilians in the happy-go-lucky celebrants which will last through Sunday.

No one appeared concerned about the struggle between the pro-Western government troops and the Communist-led rebel forces which might decide the fate of this tiny southeast Asian kingdom.

(Communist North Viet Nam's national assembly yesterday opened a one-week meeting in Hanoi. Western observers said it might pave the way for increased intervention in both Laos and South Viet Nam. Viet Minh troops have been reported operating with the pro-Communist rebels in Laos. Communist Viet Cong guerrillas recently stepped up activities in South Viet Nam.)

No one seemed to know—or care—that Soviet Russia had put the first man into space.

The streets of Vientiane were jammed with joyous citizens and soldiers, happily dousing each other with water. All work has been forbidden by the government and most of the officials had gone to Luang Probang to join King Savang Vathana for the celebrations.

A guard at the army hospital exchanged his rifle for a water-filled squirt-gun. Soldiers set up a fire extinguisher gantlet along the road to the airport. An army truck loaded with 50-gallon drums cruised through the streets while soldiers hurled buckets of water at the crowds milling on the sidewalks.

The friendly drenching were accompanied by the Laotian holiday greeting: "Live wet, eat and drink cool."

The celebrations began yesterday which was "children's" day—a postwar Laotian Christmas-type holiday in which youngsters receive gifts. Today marked the beginning of the three-day traditional "water festival" marking the end of the old year, a "neutral" day and the beginning of the new year. Sunday was tacked on because it usually is a holiday anyway.

JFK To Fly To Carrier

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy will go aboard the aircraft carrier Independence for naval maneuvers April 22-23 off the east coast of Florida, the White House announced today.

The president plans to fly from Washington to the big carrier's berth at Mayport, Fla., the morning of April 22. He will spend the night aboard the Independence and return to Mayport the next day.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said the President may travel from the carrier back to Mayport by helicopter.

U.S. Looking Forward To Cease-Fire

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is looking forward to an agreement this week from the Soviet Union to a cease-fire in Laos.

President John F. Kennedy set the expected time for the Soviet reply at his news conference yesterday. He expressed hope the reply would enable both East-West leaders to halt their supply of arms to the opposing forces in Laos.

Kennedy did not say what would happen if there were no response from Moscow. But he left a clear implication that American supplies would be continued to the royal government.

The State Department already has warned that any further delay in Soviet agreement to a cease-fire would be cause for very serious concern in Washington.

The United States has insisted that the shooting be stopped before it sends any delegation to a 14-nation conference to settle the Laotian crisis.

Kennedy avoided any threats or bluster.

U.S. Admiral Ordered To Tone Down Speech

WASHINGTON (AP) — Remarks that questioned the usefulness of negotiations with the Soviet Union have been cut from a U.S. admiral's speech.

Rear Adm. Samuel B. Frankel, deputy director of naval intelligence, said the chances in his address had been ordered by the Defense Department. There was evidence the White House had a hand in it, too.

Frankel was to deliver the speech today before the Houston, Tex., Navy League.

Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense for public affairs, confirmed he had read an advance copy of Frankel's speech and found parts of it "unacceptable."

He read it, he said, at the request of Rear Adm. Daniel Smith Jr., Navy chief of information and a representative of the Navy's security and review branch.

Sylvester said he had been asked to review the address in light of recent directives that military officials refrain from discussing publicly foreign policy matters.

What he found objectionable, Sylvester said, were portions of the speech suggesting that "anyone who thought he could negotiate with the Russians was deluded, was obviously mistaken, was being taken in."

BLESSED WITH BROTHERS

Not too many little girls can claim 13 big brothers —but that's the life of Barbara Anne Harrison of Junction City, Tenn. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Harrison, had 13 children — all boys — before Barbara Anne was born. Here the little girl is surrounded by 10 of her brothers. (AP Wirephoto)

Daughter Tells How Cooley Stomped Wife

BAKERSFIELD (AP) — Melody Cooley, 14, told a coroner's jury today of a night of terror in her ranch home when she watched her father, Spade Cooley, stomp her mother's unconscious form and then burn her with a cigarette.

The soft-voiced, trembling school girl could hardly be heard in the inquest room where a jury of nine men was convened to determine the cause of death of Ella Mae Cooley, 37, last April 3.

While his red-haired daughter testified, Cooley, 50, former western band leader, sat in a wheelchair at the counsel table.

He kept his eyes closed during most of her testimony but at some of the most terrifying parts he grimaced.

Cooley appeared at the inquest although he had been suffering with a recurrent heart ailment.

He is charged with murder.

Melody said she was called to her home from a neighbor's about 6 o'clock on the fatal night and upon arriving was met by her father.

"He opened the shower door and told my mother, 'Melody's here, get up,'" the girl said.

"She wouldn't get out of the shower," Melody continued, "so he dragged her out by the hair. She didn't have any clothes on.

"He dragged her out on the floor and banged her head against the floor twice.

"She wouldn't get up. He gave me three minutes to get her off the floor—he said he was going to kill her."

Space Test

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)— Two Air Force jet pilots walked out of a eight-by-12-foot simulated space cabin today after spending a month living in conditions a man in space would encounter.

Capt. Ramon A. Horinek, 28, of Atwood, Kan., and First Lt. Gene Carlson, 27, of Fargo, N. D., became the second pair of Air Force pilots to stay in the steel chamber a month.

Their wives met them and they were shown pictures of the world's first real spaceman, Yuri Gagarin of the Soviet Union.

Solons Vote Yountville Home Probe

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly today unanimously authorized its Rules Committee to investigate the proposed conversion of the California Veterans Home at Yountville into a rehabilitation facility.

After the 70-0 vote, Chairman Augustus Hawkins (D-Los Angeles) said the committee will begin the probe this weekend.

Assemblyman Robert M. Leggett (D-Vallejo) who proposed the investigation, charged there were plans to destroy the Napa Valley institution.

He cited a State Finance Department report recommending the home be turned over to the U.S. Veterans Administration.

The investigating committee, he said should look into this and also hold hearings on the conversion of the home from a quasi-military operation into a rehabilitative center.

The Great Seal of the State of California was adopted by the Constitutional Convention on Sept. 29, 1849 and, after many slight variations, was was standardized in 1937.

Russ Hurl Charge At Geneva Talks

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet Union accused the United States today of seeking to perfect methods of violating the proposed nuclear test ban treaty.

Soviet Delegate Seymon K. Tsarapkin raised the charge at today's 289th session of the dead-locked three-power nuclear test ban conference.

He told Arthur H. Dean of the United States, and Britain's Sir Michael Wright, the Soviet Union will never agree to "muffled" underground research explosions proposed by the West in a joint research program for better detection of underground blasts.

Tsarapkin had expressed "agreement in principle" on the Western proposal last week.

Today, Tsarapkin told the Western delegates the Soviet government agreed to the proposed research program only because of American insistence and to "save the conference."

"Now we find the United States does not want this program to improve detection methods, but to improve ways of avoiding detection, and perfecting methods of violating a treaty," he said.

"To this the Soviet Union can not agree."

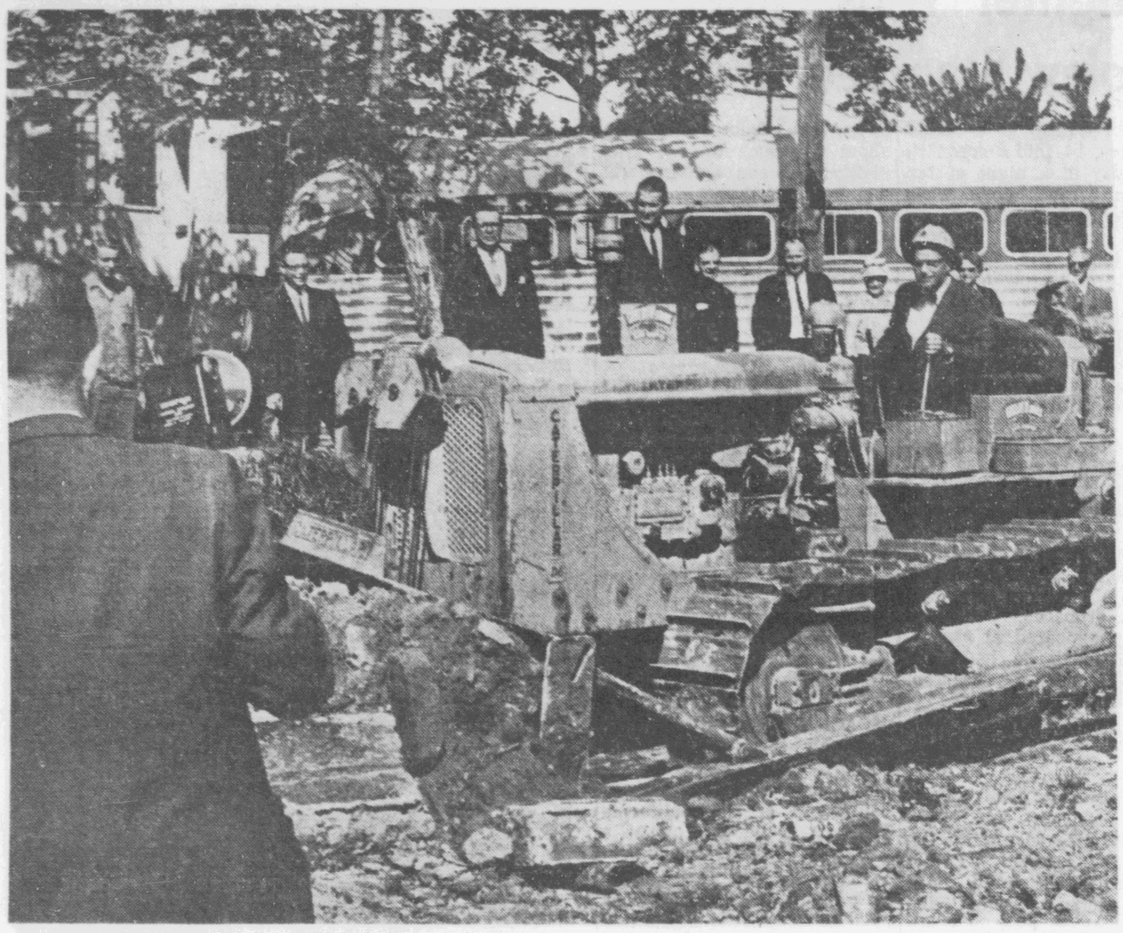
MACY'S SAN RAFAEL, FOURTH AND COURT



FIRST SCOOP—San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis officially set in motion the construction of the new toll building and equipment center for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in groundbreaking ceremonies at Shaver Street near Fourth Street, San Rafael, this morning. The building will cost approximately $2,600,000 including equipment and is expected to be completed early next year. (Independent-Journal photo)

Ground Broken For Telephone Building

Construction started today on a new two and a half million dollar telephone exchange building in San Rafael.

The new structure will rise on property adjoining E Street School grounds. It will face Shaver Street, opposite the East end of Latham, between Fourth and Second Streets.

The building will house long distance dialing equipment enabling more areas of Marin County to dial distant cities throughout the U.S.A. and Canada. It will also provide increased direct dialing lines from Marin to many frequently-dialed cities, said Douglas R. Horton of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis and Chairman William D. Fusselman of the county board of supervisors were among two dozen Marin civic leaders who participated in ground breaking ceremonies this morning.

Total cost of new building and property will come to 2.4 million dollars, according to Joseph E. Madrigali, P.T. & T. manager for San Rafael.

Cost of equipment both in the new building and elsewhere in Marin to complete the project will run the combined costs of the project to three million dollars or more, Horton explained.

The actual groundbreaking ceremonies at the site were preceded by a breakfast for participants, held at Woodlands restaurant at Kentfield.

The building will be completed early next year, and the new equipment is expected to be in operation by the end of the year.

Restricted Bill On Operations Goes In Hopper

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The California Legislature got a bill yesterday to legalize abortions under strictly regulated conditions.

Introduced by Assemblyman John T. Knox (D.-Richmond), the bill would permit therapeutic abortions performed by doctors in licensed hospitals when medically advisable or when the pregnancy resulted from rape or incest.

Knox said the bill would simply legalize existing practices by most reputable physicians and hospitals.

He said a Stanford University survey showed that 75 per cent of California's reputable hospitals freely admitted violating the abortion law.

Under terms of the bill, abortions could be performed only upon approval of a therapeutic abortion committee set up by a licensed hospital. The committee would include five physicians, two of whom are to be obstetricians, one an internist and on a psychiatrist.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.5 million shares compared with 4.87 million Wednesday.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point prevailed among most key stocks.

Some of the speculative favorites or higher-priced issues advanced several points.

Another case of window breaking was reported to San Rafael police yesterday.

Angola Massacre

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Waves of Negroes with scarlet-painted faces attacked the Ucua district of northern Angola Tuesday, killing at least 13 of the 20 European inhabitants, the Portuguese Lusitania news agency reported today.

Marin Man's Fiancee Hurt In Car Crash

Martha Langdon of Sacramento, on her way to Marin to meet with her fiance to obtain a marriage license, was involved in an auto crash yesterday which sent her to the hospital with a broken arm.

Miss Langdon had planned to marry Independent-Journal reporter Ralph Chatoian Sunday in Sacramento, but her doctor said she would have to remain in the hospital in traction for about three or four weeks. He described the fracture to her right arm as "very severe."

The pair have canceled all wedding plans and have not set a new date yet.

The accident occured when a Sacramento youth apparently drove his car through a stop-sign on one of Sacramento's main streets and collided with the vehicle driven by Miss Langdon. He was cited by Sacramento police for failure to stop at a stop-sign.

Mrs. W. M. Langdon, mother of the Sacramento girl and passenger in the auto, was treated in the Sacramento hospital for bruised ribs and sent home.

She Kicks Out Glass Door, Then Scraps With Deputies

What started out with a woman kicking out a door glass early this morning at Sabella's Restaurant at 633 Redwood Highway, near Mill Valley, ended up with her attacking two Marin County deputy sheriffs.

It started at 1:45 a.m. today when Angelo Sabella phoned the sheriff's office stating that a woman had just kicked out a pane of glass in the door.

Deputies Boyd Burnham and Dennis Shine responded to the call. Sabella told the deputies that he thought the woman should pay for the glass because she had done it on purpose.

Mrs. Patricia M. Jackson, 35, of 61 Linden Lane, Mill Valley, was questioned by the deputies about breaking the glass.

Suddenly she jumped up and started beating Deputy Burnham on the head with her fists, the sheriff's office reported. Deputy Shine pulled her off Burnham and she hit him on the side of the head, splitting his ear lobe.

Mrs. Jackson was booked into the county jail on charges of drunk, disturbing the peace, assault and battery, with bail set at $367.50.

Deputy Shine received four stitches to close the wound on his right ear lobe, at Marin General Hospital.

FAIR

from the start had seemed to have the best chance—that the state hold its annual allocation of around $100,000 for Marin, even though the money not be spent. Supervisor William Gnoss, supporting Castro in the meeting, has repeatedly warned that the state has a habit of snatching back any money unspent.

But the Marin group stressed that it doesn't pay to construct a little of such an elaborate undertaking each year over a five-year period, and Carr agreed. He wound up by giving strong assurance that the accumulation plan will be allowed.

It is believed that the actual wait need be only a matter of two or at most three years before construction can be started, for some sort of local funding may be arranged. In any case, it will take a while, but Marin wants to do it all in one job however that may be arranged.

Administrator Alan Bruce is expected to write up results of the meeting and its compromise outcome for presentation to the board with other communications after 2 p.m. Monday.

Others who made the trip included assistant auditor-controller Michael Mitchell, public works director Marvin W. Brigham, planning director Mary summers, civic center architect Aaron Green and Marcelle McCoy, who manages the fair at its present location in the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross.

Gagarin said the sunlit side of the earth was quite plain and he could see easily the shores of continents, islands, great rivers, folds of the terrain, large bodies of water, Tass said.

Flying over the Soviet Union, he reported he could see the great squares of the collective farms and could even tell cultivated from meadow land.

The hero of the Soviet Union has been promised a tremendous reception by Khrushchev.

"We shall celebrate with you with all our people, this great feat in the conquest of outer space," the premier told Gagarin by telephone.

BILLS

an election so long as there is standing indebtedness, would prohibit an election so long as there is outstanding indebtedness would block such an election in the Golden Gate Bridge district at least until 1971, when the bonds will be paid off. Possibly it would be longer because of an additional $5,000,000 which the bridge borrowed from the state to help pay the cost of widening the Waldo Grade.

The bill Belotti said he would introduce tomorrow does not affect the Golden Gate Bridge directly. All other bridges in the Bay Area are in the state highway system; the Golden Gate Bridge is not. Thus the other bridges are maintained and insured from gas tax funds as are other portions of the state highways. The San Rafael-Richmond Bridge, which was put under state maintenance only a few years ago, and the only bridge in direct competition with the Golden Gate Bridge, would be adversely affected by the proposed law.

Matt A. Graham of San Rafael, president of the bridge district, said he personally supports all three of Belotti's bills. He said he did not know if the bridge's legislative committee had given their approval. Legislative chairman Charles W. Reinking of Santa Rosa, was not available for comment.

Lagunitas P-TA Plans Night For Dads Tomorrow

"Dad's Night" another "first" for the Lagunitas Parent-Teacher Assn., will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Woodacre Improvement Club.

The San Geronimo Valley Lion's Club has taken charge of the evening's program, although it will also include non-Lion parents.

The mellow melodrama has been written expressly for the occasion by an author who prefers (wisely?) to remain anonymous. Director is Jack Barnes, who says the dads who comprise the cast have gone the "method actors" one better—they have no method.

An important part of the program will be the installation of new P-TA officers.

New president is Mrs. Vernon Gilstrap; vice-president, Mrs. Walter J. Coppock; recording secretary, Mrs. Norman Peace; corresponding secretary, Mrs. James Poppe; financial secretary, Mrs. W. T. Padgett; treasurer, Mrs. John Strahm; auditor, Mrs. Jack Barnes; historian, Mrs. Glen Twitchell; parliamentarian, Mrs. Murray Greenfield.

Following this, John Keilty and Glen Twitchell will present a review of the P-TA's history.

Lions Club President Jack Nunn and Milton Johnson, contest chairman, will present an award to David LeCount of Lagunitas, recent valley winner in the Lions Club student speakers contest.

First grade mothers will be hostesses at the refreshments and social period following the meeting.

Mill Valley, State Officials To Iron Out Channel Problem

Mill Valley city officials will meet Monday in Berkeley with the State Small Craft Harbors Commission to present further details regarding the city's plan to dredge a 40-foot wide "pilot channel" in the Saucelito Canal for a small craft harbor.

The channel must be dredged prior to the city's qualifying for a $300,000 loan.

This was reported last night at a special meeting on the harbor held by the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce. An audience of 25 was told the city plans to put up $25,000 toward the dredging with $25,000 more to be furnished in an arrangement between property owner George Leo Zaro of Greenbrae and the Associated Dredging Co. of Sausalito. The latter company is to do the dredging.

City Manager A. E. Almcrants said the commission has informed Mill Valley that it will accept the city's proposal Monday but will review details later and take the matter up again at its meeting in May at Ventura.

City Engineer Stanley M. Bala is yet to finish working out details for the harbor regarding maintenance and marking of the channel. The data will be presented at the Berkeley meeting, which opens at 10 a.m. in the city hall council chambers.

William D. Fusselman, chairman of the county board of supervisors urged last night that "we get going on the channel right now—even at a 40-foot width, and pick up the pieces later."

Opposing the project was B. R. Wilkie, representing San Rafael Yacht Sales, who said the project is not feasible since "we will be faced with tax subsidies."

Fusselman told Wilkie that "no city or county can obligate future funds without a vote of the people. The present proposal is legal as the loan is to be repaid from yacht harbor revenues. If something did go wrong, Sacramento might have to carry the loan a little longer."

Mississippi Lawyer Asks For Understanding Of The South

James G. Barnett, a Mississippi lawyer with an accent to match, told College of Marin students yesterday that segregation in his home state is not a government problem.

"It is a social, voluntary problem of shared relationships," he explained.

Barnett, 36, city attorney of Clinton, Miss., spoke to the students at the noon assembly in Olney Hall on "Toward a Better Understanding of the South." He is also a member of the Clinton school board and advisor to his cousin, Mississippi's Governor Ross Barnett.

The lean attorney, who said his firm represents "only individuals, not corporations," said the state he loves is "on its way back" from the depths to which it sunk during the reconstruction period following the Civil War.

"It's true we have been dragging our feet," he said. "But the shoes we have been dragging had holes in them." Northern industry, he noted, is now moving to take advantage of the state's natural resources.

Segregation, he admitted, is in force in "social areas," including schools, restaurants, theaters, hotels, motels, swimming pools, waiting rooms, rest rooms and street cars, to name a few.

"But there is no segregation in business," he said. "We all shop side by side."

Conceding that the South is a broad subject to cover in a brief talk, Barnett reviewed Mississippi's history from 1817 when it became a state, through the early years when cotton was king, the shock of the Civil War and the tragedy of the reconstruction.

"It did not end without deep and painful wounds which were a long time healing, the scars of which can still be seen," he said.

"But I hope you notice that we speak of these things without bitterness," he said.

"I am not here to recruit southerns. We only want you to understand our local governments needs," he said. "It is not true that we consider states' rights another name for segregation."

Mississippi now has a 100 million dollar school building program under way, he said, 70 per cent of which is going into Negro schools. "We are proud of the interest our Negroes are taking in education."

As examples of his own relationship with Negroes, Barnett said it was common practice for him to "talk about law and current events" with Negro attorneys in the corridors of the Clinton courthouse. "And I practice in the same courtroom with them," he stated.

He also recalled an old family friend—a A Negro schoolteacher named Lizzie—who embraces him and calls him "her boy" each time they meet.

His state is worthy of the "love and allegiance" he gives her, he said, citing the fact that Mississippi has given the nation countless patriots, top flight football teams and two Miss Americas.

"And we believe in God," he declared, noting that Mississippi boasts a church for every 287 people "with more building."

Opening his speech with the promise that he would "try and use as much of the English language as possible," Barnett closed with traditional hospitality by offering a blanket invitation to the entire assembly: "You all come to Mississippi and see for yourselves."

"You don't neet a passport to get in," he promised.

Tulane Adopts Policy Of No Racial Barriers

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Tulane University yesterday voted to "admit qualified students regardless of race or color if it were legally permissible."

The decision was made by the university's educational find which makes policy for the 127-year-old institution.

Fund president Joseph M. Jones said the move was "taken in the knowledge that Tulane must move ahead and assume its rightful place of leadership among America's outstanding universities."

Founded as a medical school in 1834, the school received lucrative real estate holdings —and its name—from Paul Tulane in 1882. A term of the endowment was that the income be used for education among young white persons."

The state legislature two years later directed the administrators to develop the university under the terms of the Paul Tulane donations. Tulane has since come under absolute private control.

In 1886, substantial financing was contributed by Mrs. Josephine Newcomb for an exclusive school now called Newcomb College, an adjunct of Tulane, "for the higher education of white girls and women."

Tulane for years has accepted non-Caucasian students. Gift conditions also singled out "Christian" as a registration qualification, but Tulane readily accepted non-Christians.

Tulane's broad statement is the first of its kind in Louisiana by any previously all-white college. Other predominantly white colleges in the state have some Negro students, however.

Louisiana State University admits qualified Negroes at the graduate level in Baton Rouge and its branch here. Loyola, a Catholic university here, had admitted a few Negro students for several years, mostly to its law school.

Electronic Experts Hurt In Road Crash

Two electronics experts were hurt yesterday when their federal government station wagon hit a hole and overturned on a private road up Mount Tamalpais.

Loel Forrest Leabo of San Francisco, technician for the Federal Aviation Agency, had been on an inspection trip with James Michael McNerney of 2102 Fourth Street, San Rafael. They entered dirt-surfaced Crown Road on Marin Municipal Water District property.

Leago said there was a hole four feet deep and three feet across in the road center and that he failed to see it until nearly at its edge, as it was unmarked. The car's right rear wheel caught in the hole, throwing the vehicle against the left bank after which it capsized.

San Rafael General Hospital treated Leabo for a head cut and McNerney for a bruised right thigh.

State Mental Hygiene Aide To Give Talk

ELI M. BOWER
Subject: problem children

Dr. Eli M. Bower, deputy director of the California Department of Mental Hygiene, will give a free public talk on "Problem Children — the Challenge to Parents and Community" at 8 p.m. next Thursday in the auditorium of San Rafael Military Academy, Fifth and Cottage Avenues, San Rafael.

The meeting is sponsored as a public service by Sunny Hills, which provides residential care for disturbed children. E. T. Hermann, chairman of the board, said it was motivated by desire to improve parental and community understanding of and help for children.

Dr. Bower has just completed a three-year research study on emotionally disturbed children in public schools. Results will soon be published. He is author of several books and articles on primary prevention of emotional disorders.

His background includes years of work with children, first as teacher and counselor, then as consulting psychologist, consultant in mental hygiene and research coordinator for emotionally disturbed children.

Last year he was technical consultant to the White House Conference on Children and Youth. He was instrumental in writing Senate Bill 616, now in the legislature, calling for local school districts to provide special classes for emotionally disturbed youngsters.

Motor License Fund: $705,000

Marin County and its incorporated cities were $705,124 richer today with the apportionment of motor vehicle license fees.

State Controller Alan Cranston said approximately half of the money distributed statewide was given the counties and half to the cities. It is an advance distribution of 75 per cent of the estimated total of motor vehicle license fees which the state will collect during the six-month period ending May 31.

Marin County received $384,988.

Belvedere received $7,827; Corte Madera, $21,726; Fairfax, $21,183; Larkspur, $20,808; Mill Valley, $37,938; Novato, $65,160; Ross, $9,296; San Anselmo, $42,213; San Rafael, $74,558, and Sausalito, $19,427.

Burner Co. Property Bid Rejected

A top bid of $362,500 yesterday for real estate holdings of H. C. Little Burner Co., at 76 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, was rejected by the owners within one-half hour from the time it was made.

Th property, comprising five acres of land, nine buildings covering approximately 65,000 square feet and spur track facilities, was put up for bid by auctioneers Max Rouse and Sons of Beverly Hills at 1 p.m., during the course of auctioning off the stock and equipment.

First bid of $200,000 for the property was jumped in successive raises of $25,000 each to $300,000, where the bidding slowed down to $12,500 increases and came to a halt at $362,500. The entire time of the bidding occupied no more than 10 or 12 minutes.

William J. Watt of Adams and Watt Realtors, agents for the property, said the offer was immediately turned down. He declined to state the name of the bidder and said the property would continue to be listed on the market.

The property heretofore has been listed at $550,000. A real estate appraisal for the land and buildings at their best usage had been set at $604,000.

Teachers Re-Hired

Acting chairman David D. Ring today announced that all 34 of the teachers considered for re-employment at Tuesday night's executive session of Reed Union School District trustees have been re-employed.

Eleven of the teachers have tenure, he said.

Principal Appointed For Timoteo School

Mrs. Wilma Ingwersen of Terra Linda was appointed last night by unanimous vote of the Dixie School District trustees to be principal of the new Don Timoteo School expected to open next fall on Trellis Drive in Terra Linda. Her starting salary will be $7,838 annually.

Bids for construction of the school will be opened April 26.

Mrs. Ingwersen is a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles who received her master's degree and administration credential at San Francisco State College.

She came to the district in January of 1955, initially teaching a combination of grades in the Community Building in Terra Linda. For the past three years she has served as teaching vice principal of the Bernard Hoffman School.

The board also authorized Supt. Dennie B. Willis to contract with 11 teachers, who are:

Antoinette Blair of San Francisco, for third grade at Santa Margarita School; Mrs. Martha Neil Smith of Orick, Humboldt County, for Vallecito or Don Timoteo School; Betty Jo Charlton of Oakland, for Vallecito School; Mrs. Josephine Hoffmire of Novato, kindergarten at Lucas Valley School; Mary Lash of St. Paul, Minn., fifth grade in Silveira or Don Timoteo School; Sarah Laverty of La Canada, Los Angeles County, probably second grade at Lucas Valley School; Marilyn Ryan of Grass Valley, Nevada County, probably sixth grade at Hoffman School; Gay Ann Renger of Santa Clara County, kindergarten of Mary E. Silveira School; Mrs. Elizabeth Meszaros of North Sacramento, first grade Hoffman School; Vickie Della Santa of Fairfield, Solano County, second grade Hoffman or Don Timoteo School; Mrs. Nina Bloom of Terra Linda, first grade Don Timoteo School.

Resignations were accepted from the following teachers: Mrs. Billie Lou Blytmann, Mrs. Betty Johnson, Mrs. Constance Kelly, Irene Da San Martino, and Leslie Oswald.

Willis was directed to explore possibilities and costs of participation in the University of California internship program relating to administration.

Payment of $300 to landscape architect Henry Cole was authorized for site development of the Don Timoteo School.

The board reviewed with Edward Anderson of the Marinwood Boys Club a proposal for the club to change the playground of the Silveira School for Little League use and authorized the superintendent to prepare an agreement for these changes.

Willis reported that registration of new kindergarten pupils last fall did not come up to estimates with only 310 registrations by April 1. If this remains unchanged by June, he will recommend staff reduction by one, he said.

Announcement was made of a Vallecito School dedication program at 2 p.m. April 23 and of a talk at 8 p.m. tonight by James Dent, district superintendent of Mount Diablo Unified School District, under auspices of the Dixie Teachers Assn. at the Bernard Hoffman multi-use room.

Summer school registration is now 789, it was reported by director Raymond Riley, who said it will not be possible to house all Terra Linda pupils in the Hoffman School so two or more self-contained primary classes may have to be established at Santa Margarita.

The banana originated somewhere in southeast Asia.

One Bid Given For Post Office

Purity Stores of Burlingame was the lone bidder to submit a price for the construction of a post office in Terra Linda, Warren Williams, San Rafael postmaster, announced today.

The bid included the facilities, space and service for money orders, certified, registry, parcel post and the sale of postal supplies. The exact location of the non-delivery post office branch has not been announced.

Williams said the amount of the bid cannot be announced until it has been judged by the U.S. Post Office regional office in San Francisco.

Mill Valley Woman, 83, Still An Active Person

By JANE ARNOLD

Mrs. Anna B. Martino of Mill Valley is 83 years old and teaches an all-day class in tailoring at College of Marin on Mondays and a half-day class on Thursdays.

When Mrs. Martino was asked for an interview about her active career at age 83, she felt that a story now was premature and should be postponed another two years!

Mrs. Martino's independent spirit and vitality manifested itself in 1904 when she came west by train from the Black Hills to join her sister in California. She wanted to bring her mare, but didn't wish to leave her care to others, so she finally persuaded the railroad officials to allow her to sleep in a hammock in the boxcar with the horse during the journey.

The same spirit and vitality are just as apparent today. When Mrs. Martino broke her hip a year ago in February (three pins were put in it), she stayed in the hospital only 13 days. She recalls her hospital stay as a great thrill because she was "drowned with attention" by her students.

Last summer Mrs. Martino asked her students three at a time to come to her house to finish the clothes which they had begun before she broke her hip. In the fall she started teaching again although she was still on crutches. Now, just a little over a year since her hip was broken, she drives her car to and from the college and does her own cooking and washes her own dishes at home from a wheelchair.

By her own admission she is a first class cabinet maker and made all the cabinets in her house.

Mrs. Martino is among those who plan to attend the Marin conference on "Aging With a Future" Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary at Strawberry. She is particularly interested in the program, because an old friend, Mrs. Vera Schultz, will discuss the highlights of the recent White House Conference on Aging.

Mrs. Martino was an alteration specialist at Ransohoff's for 16 years and left their employ in 1951. At that time she remarked to Mrs. Schultz that she wished she could transfer the knowledge of tailoring that she had picked up to Marin County housewives and make herself more independent.

Mrs. Schultz suggested that Mrs. Martino might be able to start a class in tailoring at College of Marin and soon after introduced her to President Ward H. Austin and Dr. Samuel N. Le Count, adult education director.

So, at age 74, Mrs. Martino began a new career of teaching.

Le Count says: "Mrs. Martino has a tremendous teaching personality. Her students are totally involved with the class when they're in it."

By having each student use a dress form (which she personally adjusts to the student's measurements) Mrs. Martino can instruct up to 36 students on Mondays and Thursdays. Some women make suits, coats and tailored dresses from the beginning. Others do remodeling jobs.

Although her students are grateful for Mrs. Martino's help and personal interest, Mrs. Martino says, "The shoe is on the other foot. I'd be bored to death without working."

Seminary Alumnus Named To College

Rev. Richard E. Hanna, an alumnus of San Francisco Theological Seminary of San Anselmo, has been appointed president of the College of Emporia in Kansas after serving as director of personnel since last July.

Born in Emporia, Hanna had a varied career including service with the Air Force, and business experience before receiving a bachelor of divinity degree from the seminary in 1958.

Foundation Spent $8,517 In 1960 On Polio In Marin

The Marin County Chapter of the National Foundation spent a total of $8,517.53 last year on polio cases stricken prior to 1960, according to a report of the chapter treasurer accompanying a general officers' report just issued.

Other disbursements totaled $1,241.35, but the chapter found itself last Dec. 31 with a cash balance of $13,642.31 as compared with a cash balance a year before of only $522.39.

This was subject of comment in the main report signed by Mrs. Melvin Hammond as chairman, Mrs. Walter Johnson as vice chairman and Mrs. Doris Lowe as secretary.

"During the past year," said the report, "our case load of polio patients has lessened to a point where we can at last see the light and feel for the first time in our chapter's existence we may be out of debt. We wish to assure everyone, though, that we are not out of the polio business.

"We are spending more on patient aid then all other health agencies combined."

Students Boo Welch, Adults Applaud Him

SANTA BARBARA (UPI) — Robert Welch, founder of the John Birch Society, ran into heckling from university students last night when he said Chief Justice Earl Warren should be ousted.

Welch, 61, a retired Belmont, Mass., candymaker, spoke before a capacity crowd of 1000 at San Marcos High School. About 200 of the listeners were students from the University of California at Santa Barbara.

The students expressed their displeasure with boos, hisses, and snickers when Welch praised such figures as the late senators Joseph R. McCarthy and Robert A. Taft.

While students booed, another and larger segment made of older people, applauded vigorously each time Welch mentioned these names.

Welch engaged in a heated exchange with Charles Porter, 21-year-old political science major, on the question of "front organizations."

Porter asked Welch whether the Birch Society used fronts to achieve its ends.

Welch said, "of course we advocate front organizations. There is nothing immoral about fronts. What may be immoral is the purpose of the fronts."

Welch said the Birch Society has used fronts in some cases but added "some Communist fronts have different purposes from what they are set up for."

Fireworks Light Up Fort Sumter, Just Like War Of Century Ago

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — Fireworks last night made Fort Sumter resemble the beleaguered Union fortress in Charleston Harbor at the start of the Civil War a century ago.

The 20-minute display of $5,500 worth of pyrotechnics represented the 34-hour battle that was the first of the war.

Thousands of tourists and Civil War buffs joined South Carolinians in reliving the battle. They watched from The Battery that is the tip of the Charleston Peninsula, from the balconies of the carefully preserved old Charleston homes, from Sullivan's Island and other land vantage points surrounding the pentagonal brick fortress near the mouth of the harbor.

Members of the South Carolina Legislature stood on the long balcony of the Ft. Sumter Hotel overlooking the scene.

A stormy controversy over racial customs had quieted when the re-enactment began.

At White Point Gardens on The Battery, a cast of 150 assembled. Clad as soldiers, they acted out the negotiations between the Confederate forces of Gen. P. G. T. Beauregard and the Union forces of Maj. Robert Anderson, commander of the 68 soldiers and 8 bandsmen on Ft. Sumter.

As the outdoor drama closed, the negotiations unsuccessful, the sound of explosions drifted across the harbor from Ft. Johnson, a Confederate stronghold on the south side of the harbor.

These were the first shots of the Civil War and electrically discharged flares, lighting up the sky above Ft. Sumter, represented "misses" by that first barrage. "Hits" were scored by geysers of flame shooting upward from the Fort.

'New' Loes Firing Like A Champ Again

Who would have bet a plugged nickel last winter that Billy Loes would still be on the San Francisco Giants' roster this spring? And who would have figured him a starting pitcher?

Yet there he was yesterday, warming up to start his first game since 1958 and against the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates.

And there he was at the end of the eighth striking out pitcher Vern Law with two men on base to protect a 2-1 lead that wound up the final score as the Giants evened the series at a game apiece. The winning run came in the eighth when Law hit Orlando Cepeda with the bases jammed.

Today the Pirates nominated lefty Harvey Haddix to oppose right-hander Jack Sanford in the series finale.

Manager Alvin Dark, who gambled with Broadway Billy off a fine spring record, took the big 31-year-old out after the eighth because his throwing arm was tightening after the lengthy work in the chilly Candlestick Park winds.

"He has been pitching so well this spring, I just wouldn't take a chance," Dark explained.

Pittsburgh third baseman Don Hoak, who played with Loes at Brooklyn in 1954 and 1955, declared, "He was throwing out there like he used to throw."

Billy didn't completely agree, saying, "I think I used to throw a little better. And that wind out there helped me today because the curves were doing things the batters didn't expect."

Yet Loes depended largely on his fast ball in stopping the Pirates because, "I wasn't sure of getting the other pitches over the plate. You know, I did not think I'd be a starter this year."

Right-handed Billy proved a disappointment in 1960 after a trade brought him to the Giants from Baltimore. He posted a 3-2 record as a reliever but with a 4.89 earned-run-average.

This spring the guy many consider a pop-off eccentric worked hard and Dark declared, "Everything he's done, he's accomplished himself He's been a major league pitcher since 1952. I had a lot of respect for him when I played against him."

Rookie catcher Tom Haller, whose seventh inning homer tied the game at 1-1, commented, "Loes was throwing sneaky fast balls and he was around that plate all the time."

Loes gave up nine singles with the only Pirate run coming in the sixth as Roberto Clemente singled, advanced to third on Hoak's single and scored on an infield out.

The homer by Haller, former University of Illinois football quarterback, was his first major league hit. He almost didn't get it. Clemente in right field was charged with an error when he dropped the catcher's foul fly just before the homer.

In the Giants' eighth, Harvey Kuenn and Willie Mays singled and the bases were jammed when Willie McCovey drew an intentional walk. Then Law hit Cepeda on the shoulder.

The Pirate pitcher thought Orlando could have ducked the pitch that came about a foot inside.

"I didn't have a chance to get out of the way," answered Orlando.

Fighter Injured In L.A. Auto Accident

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Last-minute injuries forced substitutions in tonight's two 10-round co-feature bouts at Olympic Auditorium.

Injuries suffered in an auto accident forced the withdrawal of Ray Greco, Los Angeles, from his scheduled bout with L. C. Morgan who will now meet Joey Parks, Omaha, Neb. Parks, who will fly here for the fight, holds a 1959 draw with Joey Brown, lightweight champion.

Gabriel Hernandez, Tijuana, who was scheduled to fight Johnny Shaw, has been sidelined with a hand injury. He will be replaced by Peulga Serrano, also of Tijuana.

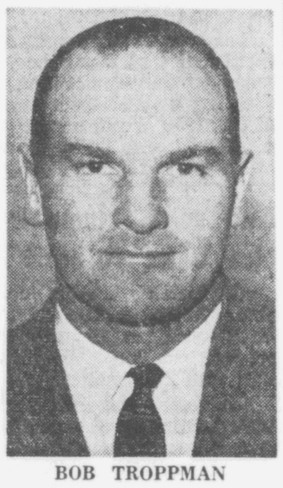
Bob Troppmann Nixes College Job; Wilt, 49ers To Draw Big In Marin

Rumors that Redwood High's Bob Troppmann would apply for the vacant head football coaching post at College of Marin were flatly denied today by Tropp himself.

"I have no intention of leaving Redwood," said the successful prep mentor, "and I definitely have not applied for the Marin Job." The humors popped up last Friday when Harry Pieper stepped out of the Marin college gridiron post to devote full time to the increasingly pressing duties of director of athletics and chairman of the health and physical education department at Kentfield.



BOB TROPPMAN

Troppman cited as "personal reasons" his decision to stay put. One of the main reasons probably is salary, for he would have to take a cut in pay to move from Redwood to Marin.

The Redwood coach has guided the Giants to two consecutive Marin League championships. Next year, with his son Jim moving into a varsity role, Troppmann hopes to make it three in a row.

THE CHANCE to see Wilt "The Stilt" Chamberlain, other basketball heroes and, of course, the stalwarts of the San Francisco 49ers all at one time has stirred plenty of enthusiasm in Marin.

Wilt and his touring all-stars are booked for an exhibition against the 49ers' basketball club tomorrow night at Redwood High School's 1,800-seat gymnasium and the advance ticket sales are going fast.

Taveggia-Brusati Sports Shop in San Rafael, the ticket agency, reports a steady stream of customers gobbling up the ducats. T-B's Jack Streckfus says, "They shouldn't have any trouble packing the place."

Included on Chamberlain's team are ex-USF great Hal Perry, Jet Stream Smith and Charlie Hardy, former college cage stars more recently with the Oakland Raiders, and the Gardere brothers, Joe Harold and Lulu.

The 49er team will feature R. C. Owens, John Thomas, Clyde Conner, Bob St. Clair, Ed Henke, Y. A. Tittle, John Brodie and Matt Hazeltine.

The exhibition game will use professional rules, which means the 24-second rule and four 12-minute quarters will be in force.

The big attraction, of course, is The Stilt.

HERE ARE some interesting facts and figures on him:

If he hadn't chosen basketball, Chamberlain undoubtedly could have become one of the finest decathlon competitors the track world has ever known. He has official marks of 48.7 in the 440, 21.6 in the 220, 50 feet in the shotput and 6 ft., 9 in. in the high jump . . .

Chamberlain, who once scored 90 points in a high school game, is the only player in National Basketball Assn. history to tally over 50 points on more than six occasions . . .

The 7 foot, 2 inch Chamberlain undoubtedly was sought after by more college basketball scouts than any prep player in history. He wound up at Kansas University, where he led the Jayhawks to the NCAA finals, only to lose to North Carolina after three overtimes . . .

CHAMBERLAIN is the only player in NBA history to be drafted before graduating from high school. The Philadelphia Warriors exercised their territorial draft rights on Chamberlin before the super-star received his diploma from that city's Overbrook High. The Warriors feared they'd lose their rights to him if they waited, so Chamberlain thus became the first prep in history to be drafted in the first round by an NBA team . . .

According to Dan Barksdale, promoter of the series, Chamberlain is such a marvelous athlete he could be a star in the NBA if he were only a 6-footer instead of 7-2. Chamberlain also is an outstanding singer and dancer, according to Barksdale, who reports that Chamberlain already has made two recordings . . .

AN EXAMPLE of Wilt's great physical strength is revealed by Bill Nieder, world record holder and Olympic champion in the shotput. Nieder, rated among the strongest men in the world, reports that Chamberlain is the only man he's ever met whom he couldn't beat in an Indian wrestling match. Nieder and Chamberlain were track teammates at Kansas . . .

The unenviable assignment of guarding Chamberlain in the 49er series goes to St. Clair, who was a regular on the USF freshman team while on the Hilltopper campus. St. Clair is 6-9 tall and 275 pounds, while Chaberlain is 7-2 and weighs 250.

San Rafael Edges Novato 4-3 In Non-League Clash

Dennis Hall's two-hit pitching and Tom Williams' booming bat paced Coach Jack Sims' San Rafael Bulldogs to a nip and tuck 4-3 victory over the hard-luck Novato Hornets in a practice game at San Rafael's Albert Field yesterday.

It was Novato's second straight one-run setback, having lost to Petaluma 5-4 in eight innings the previous day.

Hall struck out six and walked five and his two-hitter showed signs the Bulldog mound staff is getting stronger each day. On Tuesday San Rafael's Ken Becker pitched a one-hitter in a 9-0 win over George Washington High.

Williams personally collected half of San Rafael's six hits with a triple and two singles.

Ron Grayson was the losing pitcher, and a tough one it was. He struck out nine and walked only three, but was betrayed by both physical and mental errors, Coach Marlin Olsen said.

Moon Shines For Dodgers In 3-2 Win

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Wally Moon, the solid man in the Los Angeles Dodgers' outfield now that Duke Snider has been reduced to a part-time player, is off and winging to what may be his best season in the major leagues.

The 31-year-old veteran of seven big league campaigns ripped his second homer in as many games this season last night to lead the Dodgers to a 3-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Earlier this spring Moon, who came to the Dodgers from the Cardinals after the 1958 season, said he had a "feeling" this was going to be his best year. With the Dodgers loaded down with young outfielders he did not play as often as he would have liked to in the exhibition games, but when he did, he got his share of hits.

In Tuesday's opener, he hit a homer in the second inning to give the Dodgers an early lead, and yesterday, with the Phils in front 1-0 in the seventh, the left-handed swinging Moon sliced a homer over the left field screen with Tommy Davis aboard.

PODRES WINS

Johnny Podres, who got the victory although he needed relief help from Larry Sherry in the ninth, batted in what proved to be the winning run when his infield single scored Norm Larker from third, also in that seventh inning rally.

Big Frank Sullivan, making his first start for the Phillies since being traded by the Boston Red Sox, pitched brilliantly for the first six innings, retiring 14 batters in a row at one point, before the Dodgers finally cracked through in the seventh.

Moon's best season in the majors was in 1957 with the Cardinals when he hit 24 homers, batted in 73 runs and hit .295. In his first season with the Dodgers in 1959 he hit 19 homers, had 74 RBI's and a .302 batting average.

Mike's Fatal Pitch Tied Record; New Rule Subdues Players' Temper

HANLEY

Mike McCormick will get a chance to redeem himself tomorrow for undoing with one pitch all of the good work his teammates did for eight innings against the Pirates in the 1961 Candlestick Park opener.

But Mike should not feel despondent about Bill Virdon's two-out three-run homer that made the 8-7 Pirate win, the first of 1961 for the world champs.

They did the same thing repeatedly to all of their 1960 opposition. 23 times to be specific. Even the Yankees in the World Series were not immune to such heroics.

Nevertheless, it is disconcerting, even to such an ERA king as Mike is, to draw a first defeat of a new season on a first pitch. That probably set a record or, at the very least, tied one.

As the scheduled starter tomorrow against the Phillies, whose opposition is not quite as sturdy as the Pirate brand, Mike is in no danger of losing another game on one pitch. In fact, the odds are in Mike's favor of balancing his record since he has beaten the Phils regularly the past two seasons—and so have most other pitchers in the league.

AGAINST THE Phils, Mike seldom throws the wrong pitch. Even when he dropped a 1-0 decision to them after beating them five straight in 1959, it was not his fault the Giants did not win the game. Robin Roberts, whose toughest opposition in the N.L. is furnished by his own team, was responsible for that 1-0 Giant defeat.

That McCormick's pitch to Virdon was a wrong one none of the opening day crowd of 41,423 will dispute. But as for precisely what kind of pitch it was—a high fast ball or a high curve that hung—will always be disputed as such pitches always are.

IT IS not prudent to inquire of a pitcher who has just lost a game in such fashion what kind of pitch he threw. However, there were some brave dressing room reporters, faithful to their duty, who put the question to Mike.

He mumbled something about it not being anywhere near the plate and let it go at that. Virdon felt it was a high hanging curve.

Mike's rather subdued reaction to the question that must have felt like a twisting knife could be attributed to Alvin Dark's new clubhouse rule—no reporters allowed during a 10 minute cooling off period after each game.

THE NEW rookie manager of the Giants does not intend to have any recurrence of the Johnny Antonelli wind incident, the one which caused Johnny all kinds of trouble and ultimately led to his being traded into the American League.

THRILL IN THE LIFE OF A ROOKIE

O's Boost Pennant Hopes With Trade

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles, hoping to make 1961 the year they capture the American League pennant, have traded one of their young pitchers for what is hoped to be an offensive punch. The Birds last night sent pitcher Jerry Walker, 22, to the Kansas City Athletics for utility outfielder Dick Williams, 31.

Others included in the straight four-player deal were the Orioles' Chuck Essegian, 29, an outfielder and Kansas City's Dick Hall, 30, a pitcher.

"It is a luxury to be able to be concerned strictly with the future," said Lee MacPhail, Oriole president-general manager. "If we are going to be a pennant contender this year, we must be concerned with the immediate present.

IMPROVE OFFENSE

"What we are trying to do is improve our offense. It is hard to get hitters. You cannot get them without giving up something of value. We feel very badly about giving up Jerry Walker, a fine young man who could be a fine pitcher for a number of years."

MacPhail said, "I think the trade has helped our club for 1961. With the pennant as our goal, the primary goal is this year."

This will be the third time that Williams, who hit .288, slugged 12 homers and drove in 65 runs for the A's last year, has been in Baltimore.

Hall, who was 8-13 last year for Kansas City, is expected to see relief duty for Baltimore. Essegian, a pinch-hitting hero of the 1959 World Series for the Los Angeles Dodgers, was purchased by the Birds Feb. 1.

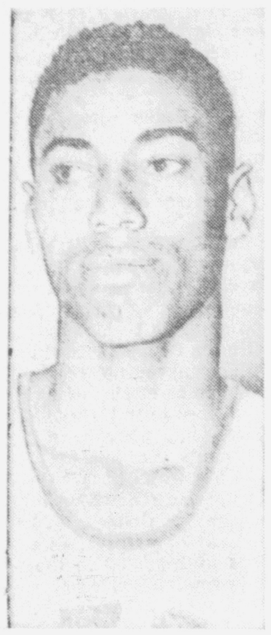
Ingo, Liston Bout Depends On Tax Issue

GOTEBORG, Sweden (AP)—If he wins his tax tussle with the government, former heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson expects to fight top-ranked Sonny Liston in the United States in September.

"The question is whether the U.S. tax authorities will recognize me as Swiss or not," the Swedish heavyweight said yesterday. "If they do, I can go on fighting in the states. Otherwise, I will have to fight in Europe, where the taxes are lower."

Johansson, who has spent much of his time in Geneva, Switzerland, since his first fight with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, faces a tax claim of about $1 million which the U.S. government contends he owes from his fight with Patterson.



THE STILT — Wilt "The Stilt" Chamberlain will lead a team of all-star basketballers against the San Francisco 49ers' hoopsters tomorrow night in an exhibition game at Redwood High School gymnasium. Tickets for the feature are going fast. See "Along Marin's Sports Trail" on page 13 for details.

Electronic Brain Flunks On Naming Big League Lineups

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—In this flabby electronic age it is exhilarating today to report that, in baseball at least, man still is out-thinking the machine.

The crisis evolved early this week when Univac, the famed electronic brain which occasionally turns its geared gray matter on sports, picked the starting lineups for all 18 major league teams' opening game. As a man who long has wished for a typewriter that could spell, I waited breathlessly.

Univac fell flat on its much-paneled face.

SKULLDUGGERY AFOOT

There is a suspicion here that skullduggery may have been afoot. Imagine if Univac had been right. Nine losers would have been fired and the dugouts would have been a mess of live wires instead of dead ones.

The machine age consequences could have gone much further. Bob Carpenter, who is related to the Du Pont dynamite clan, probably has thought often of using some family products on his lowly Phillies. And then there's the Wrigley chewing gum folks, who might have been tempted to put up fingernails in cellophane packages for their frustrated Cub fans.

But the mental meanderings of the managers saved the day.

Much was made, in an article in Parade Magazine, on how Univac with "scientific planning" had selected the lineups. Picking the batting orders, the iron Einstein "studied speed, ability and hitting records."

As it turned out, it missed 46 of the 162 starters; had 22 others playing the wrong position and had 95 of the 162 players batting out of order.

MISSING INFORMATION

Univac in naming the starting pitchers considered each man's 1960 record and his life-time mark against the opposing team. Somebody apparently forgot to supply the information as to how the hurlers were to feel on opening day.

Because the managers threw a curve ball at the brain in 11 of the 18 cases by starting somebody else.

Joe Gordon of the Kansas City A's really outsmarted the machine by making a total of 19 changes from what was predicted. He used five unexpected starters, changed the whole Univac order from stem to stern, moved four expected starters into different positions and started a different pitcher than predicted. If the machine wants to know watts up, the A's won over Boston by a score of 5 to 2. And when the A's beat anybody it's more of a marvel than a talking dynamo.

Among those making the fewest changes from what was expected by the brain, Ralph Houk came up with only six. So he dropped the first Yankee opener in seven years to the Minnesota Twins. Cookie Lavagetto, the Minnesota mental marvel, switched in eight categories and took the contest, 6 to 0.

Solly Hemus of the Cards made nine switches and bested Chuck Dressen of Milwaukee, who changed only seven times. Daryl Spencer, bating out of Univac order but strictly in Hemus' rotation, pulled it off with a 10th inning homer.

Meanwhile Walt Alston of the Dodgers, made 11 changes in the Univac plan and won from the Phillies, with whom Gene Mauch only switched the brain's computations nine times. Which again brings us back to dynamite.

However, in all fairness to the machine, it probably must be admitted that half of the managers wish they had used the Univac lineup. They, of course, are the ones who lost.

Big College Field Day Set Next Week At Kentfield

College of Marin will host more than 300 students from six junior colleges during a co-educational field day to be held 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. next Thursday at the Kentfield campus.

Sponsored by the Golden Valley Conference Intercollegiate Athletic Assn., the annual field day which is now in its eighth year includes non-varsity competition in tennis, volleyball, archery, swimming, table tennis, badminton, golf, bowling, and hole-in-one golf.

Because Marin does not have on-campus facilities for all of the events, swimming competition will be at Bob's Edgewater Inn, Corte Madera; golf at Peacock Gap, near McNear's Beach, and bowling at the Greenbrae Lanes, Greenbrae.

Participating schools include Napa, Sierra, Shasta, American River, and Yuba colleges.

Each of the six colleges will send some 50 men and women students to compete in the sports and games.

'ENJOY YOURSELF'

According to Harry Pieper, College of Marin director of athletics and this year's field day chairman, "The day is planned to give the students an opportunity to meet others and enjoy themselves."

With the exception of archery, volleyball and table tennis, all events are scheduled for morning. Bowling, however, will be included in both the morning and afternoon programs.

From noon to 1 p.m., the students will present a six-day talent show.

Each college is responsible for providing score keepers, judges, and faculty supervision for one or more events.

As host, College of Marin will furnish game supplies and overall co-ordination of the program.

Brunswick Quint Near Lead In ABC

DETROIT (AP)—With the best start of any team to date, Brunswick of Miami, Fla., bids for first place in the classic division of the American Bowling Congress tonight.

The Miamians rolled 3,036 last night and will have to shoot 2,943 or better tonight to go ahead of Stroh's Beer of Detroit, leading with 5,978.

The previous high series of 3,034 was shot by the St. Louis Budweisers March 16. Brunswick put together games of 957, 1,042 and 1,037.

Len Springmeyer, 1947 ABC doubles champion with teammate Eddie Doerr, Jr., led the team with 631. Doerr fired 611, George Nenezian 623, Lou Mandragona 617 and Stan Gurwitz 554.

Schmidt Beer of St. Paul took second place last night on a 3,000 score for a total of 5,948.

Hockey Loop Ponders Move To S.F., L.A.

SEATTLE (UPI)—Directors of the Western Hockey League met here today to grapple with the issue of expanding the league to San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Bill Nicholas, general manager of the Los Angeles Coliseum and Sports Arena, was on hand and willing to talk terms with franchise bidders.

Al Leader, president of the league, said he had written assurance that the management of the San Francisco Cow Palace was ready to listen to propositions.

Mel Smith, majority stockholder of the Spokane Comets, is on record as seeking to move operations to San Francisco. Jack Perrin, Winnipeg owner, also has his eye on the Bay Area for some time. There is talk he and Smith may join forces for the San Francisco bid.

Jim Piggott, owner of the Victoria Cougars, has been assured first consideration for a franchise in Los Angeles. However, Jack Dempsey, not the fighter, who last operated a team in Los Angeles in 1951, is also interested.

Eight votes will be cast on all issues with six votes needed to decide any action.

MANTLE AILING; HAY FEVER SHOT BLAMED

NEW YORK (AP)—This was one spring when everything was right with Mickey Mantle—no strains, no pains, no ailments at all when he and the New York Yankees opened the American League season. So he took a shot in the arm to help him stay that way, and the trouble started.

"He has a knot the size of a baseball on his left arm," said Manager Ralph Houk, "but I think he'll be able to play today. It's from a hay fever shot he took yesterday morning. Damnedest thing you ever saw."

Mantle, who was 0-for-4 and struck out twice when Pedro Ramos pitched a three-hitter that gave the Minnesota Twins a 6-0 opening day victory Tuesday, had a tough time in the batting cage during yesterday's off day workout.

"There's no pain," said Mick, "but I felt dizzy and nauseated."

Braves' Outfielder Lee Maye Shelved By Bad Shoulder

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Lee Maye, who shelved his music to concentrate on winning a starting position in the outfield of the Milwaukee Braves baseball team, was in deep distress today.

Maye, on the basis of his fine work during the exhibition series this spring, earned the starting spot in left field for Milwaukee's opening game. He got in fine shape by playing winter baseball in Puerto Rico instead of writing music as he had done previously in the off season.

The 26-year-old outfielder performed well in the opening game that the Braves lost to the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1 in 10 innings but he came up with strained right shoulder muscle. The injury may keep him out of action a day—or possibly a week or more.

"I finally got a shot and this had to happen," Maye said yesterday: "I only hope I can get back in there tomorrow. But my arm is pretty stiff right now."

Cal League Names 3 New Umps To Staff

SAN MATEO (AP)—President Eddie Mulligan of the California Baseball League today announced the loop's umpiring staff with three newcomers.

Bob Engel of Bakersfield and Dick McKinney of Jefferson City, Mo., start their fifth seasons in the league. Merlyn Anthony of Marysville will start his second.

Newcomers are Clarence Beers, 40, of Port Orange, Fla., a pitcher in organized baseball for 17 years; Tom Clark, 25, of Yuba City, and Ray Volz, 39, of San Lorenzo.

Bears Defeat Dons

BERKELEY (UPI) — The University of California baseball team defeated University of San Francisco, 8-4, in a practice game yesterday, as sophomore pitchers Mike Jauregui and Mike Kritscher limited the Dons to only two earned runs.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS,
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Gloomy Angling Picture Turns Bright With Many Good Reports

STEVENS

Fish are where you find them. That sure is a hackneyed phrase, isn't it? But trite or otherwise it sure applies to the fishing events of certain sectors of the local waters over the past three days. From what appeared to be a rather gloomy outlook, the vista cleared up and as of Tuesday there was a rosy hue to the piscatorial atmosphere.

On Monday, Carl Bennett of the Rodeo Marina called me to report some fast action on the part of a goodly number of his patrons. My namesake, J. Stevens, came in with a 23-pound bass plus five mediums to make two limits for his rowboat. Fish were taken from near the Hercules Wharf. Then T. S. Low and Etta Louie limited from near the Union Oil Wharf. The party boat, Sunfish, with Skipper Pat Patton at the helm, netted an average of two fish per angler on Saturday and on Sunday unloaded a 90-pound sturgeon caught by Lynn Vinson. Tom Fruiteger led the van with a lunker bass weighing over 40 pounds from near the Radar Screen. Bennett also reported lots of flounders and—strange as it may seem—several halibut were caught. (First time I ever heard of that happening.)

WHILE THE weekend results were reported as only fair out of Crockett, the skiffs that played the north end above the Pump House on the Marin side of the bay had a field day. I can always trust Joe Nerviani of Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia, so was highly pleased when I was told that fishing has been all to the good at his place.

ON MONDAY, for example, Joe reported on nine boats; all but one came in with limits—26 nice stripers in all. On Tuesday 15 boats went out in the morning and at noon three of them were back in. Two had limits for each angler and the third boat was only one short of two limits. On Sunday, one little lady, Phyllis Lindholm, hung and landed two bass, one weighing 15 pounds and the other 19 pounds. The Lauchenuers, Eleanor and Mickey, as usual, had their limits—six fish that were almost identical in weight—12 pounds each. Arthur Silva landed a 36-pound, 55-inch sturgeon.

SOME FAST and very satisfactory action was had by the Salazars, Jo-Anne, and Raymond with 13-year-old nephew Ronnie Torres. Jo-Anne called to rave over the good luck they had at Blind Point in the Antioch sector. The fish weighed in at seven to 13 pounds.

HERE'S A notice from Ed Markham, corresponding secretary of the Associated Sportsmen, District Council No. 3. Ed calls attention to the meeting (tonight) at the Walnut Creek Sportsmen's Clubhouse, Walnut Creek. "It's election night. All clubs should have their ballots in by the start of the meeting. The rifle and pistol range committee should make a report of their findings," Ed writes and adds the following very interesting note: "Host club is Deep Angels Skin Divers. They have said they will serve abalone as refreshments. Sounds good to me!"

Seems like the pestiferous jellyfish have moved in to cause lamentations and curses among the salmon trollers. They have our sympathy. And with that fond expression, I sign off for today. More information tomorrow.

Kentfield Pony League Expands

More than 70 boys will try out for berths on Kentfield-Greenbrae's four Pony League teams Saturday at 8:30 a.m. on College of Marin's baseball field in Kentfield.

It marks the biggest turnout in the four-year history of the comparatively new boys league and, because of the large registration, it was decided by league officials to expand to four teams.

Work Party To Groom Pony League Diamond

A work party of Mill Valley Pony League players and their fathers will be organized Saturday to groom the Edna Maguire School field for the coming season, it was announced today.

All players and their fathers are urged to bring shovels to the diamond starting at 10 a.m.

End Of Era Saddens Celt Celebration

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Celtics, champions of the National Basketball Assn. for the third straight season, held a breakup party last night. It was a rather gay affair with champagne and congratulations and lots of speeches about "the greatest team ever."

But lurking under the cover of the laughter and good wishes was just an undertone, just a hint of sadness: A sense the gaiety may have been forced a bit.

Because the breakup party may have signalled the end of an era.

Two factors: Increasing age and a team that doesn't yet exist, almost assure that the same personnel won't all be together next season.

Each team in the league will be able to protect seven of its players, with the other going into a pool from which the Chicago team that will enter the league next season will choose its players.

Some of the Celtics have to go. Just who they will be, no one knows. Owner Walter Brown insists the decision has not yet been made.

"But one thing is sure," he said. "Regardless who it is, it will be the wrong one."

Those attending the party, along with Coach Red Auerbach, included Bill Sharman, Bob Cousy and Bill Russell.

Drake Pool Open Saturday, Sunday

Drake High School's swimming pool will be open Saturday and Sunday and every other weekend throughout the remainder of the school year, it was announced today.

Hours are 1 to 5 p.m. and price of admission is 50 cents for adults, 25 cents for high school students and 15 cents for elementary school students. Swimmers must furnish their own towels and suits.

Dragsters Race At Cotati Sunday

Top Bay Area dragsters are expected out in full force at Cotati Raceway Sunday and, due to several disappointing rainouts and events scheduled elsewhere, this will be the first event in more than six weeks.

Sunday's events will feature well-known dragsters from throughout the Bay Area . . . all in heated competition after a too-long lapse. Among them will be the Schrank Brothers' world-record-holding Class C dragster, as well as a full schedule of stock and super stock entries.

Activities begin at 8:30 a.m. Tickets will be available at the gate and children under 12 are admitted free.

Snead Seeks Eighth Title At Greensboro

GREENSBORO, N. C. (UPI)—Sam Snead, one of the leading golfers of all time, sought his eighth Greater Greensboro Open championship when the 24th annual GGO got underway today at Sedgefield Country Club.

Conspicuously absent when the 72-hole $22,500 GGO began was new Masters champion Gary Player. The South African said he was too tired from the tension of the Masters to compete this week.

Player had competed here for the last four years and in 1960 finished with fifth-place money of $1,000. Former Masters titleholder Art Wall also notified touranment officials he could not participate because of a back injury.

TOP ENTRIES

Top entries besides Snead this year included former British Open champion Peter Thomson; Mike Souchak of Durham; Jim Feree of Winston-Salem, winner of the recent Jamaica Open; Julius Boros of Mid Pines, and Charlie Smith of Gastonia, Carolinas "golfer of the year" in 1960.

The field also included Charlie Sifford, five-time Negro national golf champion and the first member of his race ever to compete in an official Professional Golfers' Assn. tournament in the south.

A spokesman for the swank Sedgefield club said: "We do not anticipate any trouble or incidents—just a little grumbling from some of the strict segregationists."

Then the league schedule starts with all five games slated at Kentfield. Drake meets Redwood, the defending champion, Oct. 14, Marin Catholic Oct. 21, Novato Oct. 28, San Rafael Nov. 3 and Tamalpais Nov. 11.

All nine Drake games will start at 8 p.m.

Tacoma Suffers 3d Straight Loss

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. (UPI)—The Tacoma Giants of the Pacific Coast League suffered their third straight loss to the Springfield Giants of the Eastern League yesterday—this time by a score of 18-6.

Felix Maldonado led the Springfield 19-hit attack with four singles in six trips. Tacoma didn't help matters any, as the PCL team contributed six errors.

The two teams met again today.

There are so-called "bargain" tires, "cheapie" tires, "discount" tires and other tires you've never even heard of.

Most of them do a lot of shouting about price. But there's a big difference in what goes into them, as compared to a Goodyear tire.

1. Goodyear gives you a stronger tire body. It's the tire body that takes the beating. And it all depends on cords and plies. So we tested our 3-T Nylon All-Weather—priced at $12.88*—against nine other nylon cord tires in the $10-$12 price class or better. Goodyear's tire rated 23.2% stronger than the average rating of all the others.

2. Goodyear gives you a tougher tread. You need toughness where the tire meets the road. So, Goodyear gives you all-new tread rubber in every tire. And it pays off good: Goodyear's tread was greater than the average of the rest.

3. Goodyear gives you greater over-all strength! Comparing the results of body tests and tread tests, Goodyear comes out way ahead. Actually, Goodyear not only proved out best on both counts but topped them all in over-all quality rating, too!

Before you part with $10, $11 or $12 for any tire, get the inside story. Remember that for about the same price, you can get a lot more tire—a Turnpike-Proved Goodyear tire. It's called the 3-T Nylon All-Weather. And it costs you as little as $12.88*

*6.70 x 15 black tube-type, plus tax and the old tire off your car.

NO MONEY DOWN with your old tire. Pay as little as $1.25 a week.

Civil Defense Tests Planned

Preparations for Marin County participation in approaching state and nationwide civil defense exercises April 28-29 will be made at a meeting at 9 a.m. Monday in the office of County Administrator Alan Bruce.

Bruce, who is also county civil defense director, has invited William Harrington as Marin radiological defense adviser, Mansfield Lewis, who heads the county communications department, and Ward H. Austin, president of the College of Marin who has recently received civil defense briefing at two meetings in Alameda.

Bruce said today he expected the exercises to center mainly on communications and radiological detection, although fuller details on the projected "Operation Alert 1961" exercise are due soon. Public participation will be limited to a half-hour "Conelrad" radio test April 28 from 1 to 1:30 p.m.

Signals will be put out on two channels, 640 and 1240 kilocycles, and Marin hearers are asked to report whether battery-operated sets can pick up transmission from Santa Rosa. All television and FM broadcast stations will be off the air for the half-hour period. Pres. John F. Kennedy is expected to address the nation from a secret location.

More than 700 sites and buildings have been designated as Historical Landmarks in California.

Reason For Poor TV Programs Told Motion Picture Council

"We have let our children take over the monster", declared Al Tomilson, regional director of TV Guide, in his address at the annual spring luncheon of Marin Motion Picture Council on Tuesday at Bob's of Marin. Explaining that he had no interest or connection with TV except as a viewer, Tomilson said: "I object to the extreme mediocrity and boring outpouring" of the programs.

In response to the complaint about violence, the speaker said, "Violence is not restricted to TV" and referred to magazines, movies, and newspapers. He said that after Hollywood decided to give up fighting TV and took it over it ceased to be an art form. "Most shows come out of Hollywood" he explained and pointed out that the Hollywood producers' idea of success is measured in terms of numbers, the number of viewers and the quantity of merchandise sold by the advertisers. "The money is rolling in" Tomilson declared.

The sponsor wants "something different and safe" and adds "Don't make anybody angry". The result, said Tomilson, is that a flood of "situation comedies" are in the making. "TV has lost its elite audience," he quoted from Time Magazine.

The speaker said that he considers "Play of the Week" one of the finest things on TV but it has only a rating of 5 whereas re-runs of "Amos and Andy" have a rating of 10.

The only ways to get better programs Tomilson stated were not to watch programs which are inferior and to write the producers telling the programs preferred.

Mrs. Paul A. Hammer, president, conducted the meeting. She introduced her officers: Mesdames Elizabeth Eastman, vice president; Albert Cunningham, recording secretary; William Carr, corresponding secretary; Hazel Lamb, treasurer; Joseph Diadoti, financial secretary; Cristina Farlatti, historian. Cecil Ormond, a past president, parliamentarian; Laurel Campbell, contact chairman; Miss Florence Hughes, publicity chairman; Mesdames Earl Nelson, telephone chairman; Ormond, motion picture chairman; Laurel Keppel, television chairman and John Lewis, A. J. Morgan and Walter Tait, advisors.

Also introduced was Ed Gates, manager of Tamalpais Theater in San Anselmo where the council members had a preview of "The Imposter" before the luncheon. He and Blumenfeld Theaters were thanked by Mrs. Hammer for their cooperation and courtesy. Also introduced were Mrs. George Viera of Orinda, president of the Northern California Motion Picture and TV Coordinating Council, presidents of bay area motion picture councils and Florence Donnelly, society editor of the Independent Journal.

Awards were presented to winners in the Marin council's essay contest. First prize went to Joan Hamstra of San Rafael High School; Cathleen Thiebold and Nancy Ryan of Marin Catholic High School, second and third respectively; Pamela Stout and Todd Moorhead of Sir Francis Drake High School, fourth and fifth awards, respectively. Honorable mention was given Suzanne Cassetti of San Rafael High and to Sally Robertson of Sir Francis Drake High School.

Square Dance Jamboree Set For Saturday

Saturday novice square dancers of Marin County will dance to the calls of Bill Owen of the Buzzin' Boots Square Dance Club.

Yachting Magazine To Cover Fashions With A View Show

"Sea," the distinctive sailing and yachting magazine, cruises into the Ondine on Thursday to cover the delightful "Fashions With a View" for a forthcoming issue.

Boats, bells, buoys—and the familiar red, white and blue flag of the United States Power Squadrons will form the nautical backdrop as Fashions With a View says "Sea You Around This Summer."

For land lubbers, "rag haulers" (affectionate name that yachtsmen call skippers of sailing craft) and "stink pots" (affectionate name that sailors call yachtsmen), it will be a gay day. For everyone who plans to be aboard, around, beside or beneath any boat this summer, the unique Sausalito shop of Nancy and Al Loeffler will prove that women who are Seaing must be worth seeing!

Piped aboard as the special "guests with a viewpoint" will be the commanders of the Marin and San Francisco Power Squadrons and their wives, who will appropriately arrive at the Ondine pier by boat.

Establishing a high standard of skill in the handling and navigation of small boats is the main objective of the United States Power Squadrons whose flag flies high on Thursday. (Flying from boats on America's waterways it indicates the skipper has taken and passed the unique Piloting Course offered as a public service by the USPS and has been invited to join the Power Squadron.)

Establishing a high standard of fashionability aboard such craft is the objective of the attractive Thursday models as they get ready for boating, beaching, bathing, cruising or cocktailing around the bay (for staying at home when the occasion demands!)

Sea You Around This Summer? Thursday at 12:30 (1 bell) to be exact. Reservations may be made by calling the Ondine in Sausalito.

A Clear Statement On Freedom Of The Press

The press of our nation is rightly concerned about the great privilege of freedom of speech and press which we enjoy in this country. Too often the press is accused of demanding something special for itself. Actually, it is demanding a right for all people.

It is pleasing, then, to hear a public official take a clear, unequivocal stand on this matter.

Thomas C. Nelson, city attorney of Mill Valley, did just that this week. At issue was not the freedom of newspapers, so we had no direct interest. At issue was the right to print magazines or other publications, sell them and then take full responsibility for what has been written and sold.

Specifically, Nelson was answering a request by a Mill Valley city councilman as to whether "junk" books and magazines sold in a city-owned building needed stronger regulation.

"It is difficult to see," declared the city attorney, "in what way a city might improve upon the state law and impose more stringent requirements without getting into the realm of unconstitutionality."

Then he went on to quote the U.S. Supreme Court:

"The fundamental freedoms of speech and press have contributed greatly to the development and well-being of our free society and are indispensable to its continued growth.

"Ceaseless vigilance is the watchword to prevent their erosion by Congress or the states. The door barring federal and state intrusion into this area can not be left ajar; it must be kept tightly closed and opened only the slightest crack necessary to prevent encroachment on more important interests."

Our thanks to City Attorney Nelson for his clear-cut defense of the freedom of the press and for quoting the pertinent supreme court decision. We agree.

The "ceaseless vigilance" goes on. Attempts are being made right now in Sacramento to both limit press freedom and to expand the people's right to know. We—and, we hope, you will be paying close attention.

Escape To The Garden

With taxes what they are and the dark clouds of Berlin, the Congo and Laos lingering on the horizon, it is small wonder that many Marinites seek their escape in the harmony of their gardens.

Here they can perceive the unpredictable, but orderly, processes of Nature's promise of verdant fertility for which Marin is famous.

Here they can struggle with the problems posed by rust, mildew, coddling moth, snails and slugs. In this small cosmos, they can forget the pressing problems of the day and worry happily about the sow bugs on the pansy roots and rust on the roses.

Perhaps this is why our gardeners are probably the most contented worriers of them all.

LIGHT A CANDLE, NOT CURSE DARKNESS

In the "Merchant of Venice" Portia uttered a sublime thought in these few words:

"How far that little candle throws its beams. So shines a good deed in a naughty world."

Much quoted as these lines of Shakespeare are, they have a special and hopeful application in our troubled times, when too many persons feel that what they think, say or do is futile.

However insignificant it may seem to you, every "little candle" that you light for love, truth, justice and decency has a priceless value. It adds a tiny bit of light and removes a portion of the darkness. It is at least one small constructive step in the right direction.

You many never know until you stand before God how many persons have been heartened or even had their lives changed because a "good deed" of yours shone courageously and hopefully in "a naughty world" as proof that the smallest fight is greater than all the darkness.

"So let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven."
(Matthew 5:16)

Help me, O Light of the world, to light a candle rather than curse darkness.

How Not To Make Hit With Wife—Make Some Remarks

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that housewives get tired of hearing:

"What in the world do wives do with all their spare time?"

"Hey, Mom, where is my blue sweater? I know I left it right here on this chair only two days ago."

"Gee, Mom, I'm already late, and if you don't drive me to school, I'll be marked tardy and—"

"This is Mrs. Chumley of the P-TA. I wonder if you could help us address and mail a few letters? It will only take four or five hours."

"What do you need a new dress for? Didn't you buy one last year?"

"I'll bet as soon as I head out that door for work you'll hop right back in bed for a two-hour nap. All wives do that."

"Why should I help you do the dishes? That's woman's work."

"Hello. Hello. Marge? I missed the 5:56 train home. Bumped into Joe Burch and we stopped off for a couple. I'll catch the 6:48 or maybe the 7:14, or the 8:12 at the very latest."

"I know I promised to take you out tonight, Marge, but I had another one of those tough days at the office. Can't we make it another night?"

"Yes, I think my daughter can baby sit for you tonight, Marge. But I guess I'd better warn you—her rate has gone up to $1.25 an hour."

"Sure it's a nice looking hat, Mom. But don't you think it's a bit, uh, youthful, for you?"

"I know I should have given you more warning, honey, but these guys are just a couple of lonely old bachelors at the office, and they'll eat anything. So don't bother to fix anything special."

"Marriage is for women and children."

"WHY, MOM! Guess what? You've got three more gray hairs. Isn't that funny?"

"I'll tell you what makes modern wives so nervous. Life is too easy for them. They don't have enough to do to keep them busy."

"YEAH, I KNOW I promised you yesterday I'd do it today, Marge. But I'm tired. I'll do it tomorrow for sure."

Voters Should Go To Polls

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

As a campaign worker for the Tamalpais Union High School District bond issue, one of my jobs is to remind voters that they can do their part by getting to the polls on April 18.

It has been demonstrated in past elections that it is not the "no" voters who defeat school issues, but rather the "yes" voters who fail to vote!

We believe that the majority of people in this district, which includes Tamalpais, Drake and Redwood, do want good schools. We think if they will remember to vote April 18, the good schools will be assured.

Since your letter columns are so widely read, I'd like to take this opportunity to stress the importance of voting in the high school bond election.

Learning The Reason Why

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

This is my personal observation. After 30 years of business and now teaching for the past six years, I have found this situation to exist:

Many teachers will be changing schools and are now making applications for positions in another school. While this is hard on the students, many administrators for reasons of their own, desire it this way. Some administrators do not change teachers if they know their subject matter.

Some administrators like an autocratic classroom; some like a friendly classroom; some like a classroom that is quiet; some like a classroom with a lot of discussion of a problem (this is bound to be noisy because of enthusiasm). Hand raising is sometimes ignored.

This last classroom with a lot of discussion seems to be the best (the students learn the reason why). Will the administrator that walks past your classroom agree with you? Will the administrator that walks past a classroom and the students are doing problems in the text on Page 85, and doing it mechanically, say to himself, "This is a good teacher, he has his class well in hand"?

If you have an administrator of such a type and you are a teacher that is anxious to ask questions to stimulate interest, then you will be looking around for a position in another school.

Imitation is not teaching, whether it be arithmetic or shorthand. Why the fraction is reversed in the division of fractions must be explained thoroughly; that you need to secure one part first before you can secure the whole part. In shorthand, the reason the symbol is constructed the way it is must be learned.

You as a teacher must analyze your new administrator in the same way he is analyzing you. Remember, you are the one that is on the firing line.

Apartmentitis Invades Marin

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Apartmentitis invades Marin!

Having just moved from an apartment in Sausalito to a home nestled against the Alto Hills only to find that a developer is trying to cover these lovely hills with what we moved from, is making me just a little hot under the collar.

It would be a shame if the modern Marin children were to forget what a house looks like and at the rate the apartments are going up all over the county this could be a reality.

I presume a developer makes more money building apartments than houses, but maybe for a few years he could find a sideline and let Marin salvage her natural beauty!

Is Marin A Depressed Area?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Admirable as it may be to consider the federal government guardian of our aged and infirm, our poor, our unemployed, our schools, health, etc., please let us not drift into total dependence on big government which because of its vastness must necessarily be impersonal, terribly expensive, dictatorial to be efficient, and most important, discouraging to individual and local enterprise.

Our supervisors' bid for federal housing for our aged makes me ashamed of our local unwillingness to assume local responsibility.

Mr. (William) Fusselman says this measure would not increase local taxes, but just wait until every area takes ready advantage of Uncle Sam for every need. There will hardly be any personal choice involved with the spending of anybody's pay check.

Marin is not a disaster or depressed area, is it? Are we too late?

Newest Arrival At Jr. Museum Is Baby Seal Too Young To Be Seen

Newest arrival at the Junior Museum of Marin—a wide-eyed baby harbor seal—probably will be named Easter.

He was found on a Sausalito beach and took up residence at the museum not long after Easter Sunday.

The little fellow is doing just fine, but museum officials have cautioned that if you see a baby seal on the beach, leave it alone. It's quite common for a mother seal to leave a baby for as long as a week and still come back for it.

Other animal babies should be left where you find them too, because they are usually not abandoned.

THE MUSEUM is caring for the seal with the expert advice of Dr. Earl Herald of the Steinhardt Aquarium in San Francisco, and the manager of the Wharf Aquarium in Santa Cruz. He has successfully reared a half dozen abandoned baby seals.

There's one problem, however. The baby seal is on a solid diet of fish, and is now up to three and one-half pounds a day. "We need a supply of fish, and at reasonable cost," says Mrs. Diane Williams, acting museum director.

The seal is not on display yet, on advice of the Humane Society. He's kept in a large cage, since he is still too young to remain in the water all the time. When he grows big enough, the museum hopes to build a tank for him.

THE MUSEUM, incidentally, is still accepting applications for the position of director. The job pays $5,000-$6,000 to start, and candidates should have both practical experience and training in the natural sciences.

Annual attendance of adults and children at the museum is hitting the 50,000 mark, we hear.

SOMEONE PARKED a truck in lumber yard property on Francisco Boulevard last week. On both sides of the truck were signs urging a vote for one of the candidates for San Rafael City Council.

Several hours later the truck was still there. And so were two piles of lumber, neatly stacked on either side of the truck, effectively blocking the signs from the sight of any passing motorists.

A SALESGIRL at Kaufman's Department Store in San Anselmo had a hectic morning recently. It was raining, and somehow she caught her finger in her umbrella as she was rushing to work. She dashed into the store to get a bandage, and as she looked down, saw the setting of her diamond ring was missing.

Her co-workers rushed out on the street to look for it, with no results. She decided to return home and look around, and sure enough, on a step of her house, there was the setting.

She was back at her post at the notions counter, a bit breathless, in time for the opening of the store.

Stevenson Emerging As Power In Kennedy's New Frontier

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. —Viewed from both Washington and the U. N., Ambassador Adlai Stevenson is emerging as a powerful figure in the Kennedy administration.

This does not mean that the President is not making the final decisions on policy. This does not mean that Secretary of State Dean Rusk is being detoured as Kennedy's principal adviser on foreign affairs.

It does mean that, on the basis of his experience, initiative, and political prestige at home and abroad, Stevenson is exerting unusually wide influence in the State Department and the White House.

WHATEVER COOLNESS there may have been in the past, Stevenson and Kennedy are now establishing a good working relationship. As a consequence the President's U. N. ambassador is today at the center of policy formulation.

Every delegate here is under instructions from his government. Stevenson is, too. But to a notable extent his recommendations shape his instructions. And beyond that his views on the widest range of foreign policy carry great weight in the top councils of the administration.

WHEN BRITISH Prime Minister Harold Macmillan was in Washington last week to meet with President Kennedy, Stevenson took part as well as Secretary Rusk.

Kennedy needs Stevenson in his administration. The President is aware of his close election, wants to keep the support of Adlai's followers. In addition, Stevenson, through his wide travels, has gotten to know personally more world leaders than anyone in the administration, including the President.

Everything hasn't always gone well. Kennedy was annoyed no little when Ambassador Stevenson publicly "guessed" that the President would be "glad" to see Premier Khrushchev if he decided to come to the U. N.—this when the President did not want to give Khrushchev any encouragement to come.

I am also told that Mr. Stevenson delivered two speeches, not before the U. N., which had not been cleared by the State Department.

But these things were in the early period of the administration's take-over — and have not recurred. Rusk and Stevenson have worked together smoothly thus far.

IN HIS JOB at the U. N., Stevenson is at many points doing things differently than did Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge. He is initiating breakfast, luncheon, and dinner sessions with the heads of all the 99 delegations, sometimes including wives. For the first time Stevenson, as U. S. representative, let it be known that he would be available to meet with the caucus of the Afro-Asian nations on a common matter. They invited him at once.

It is premature to guess what Stevenson's record will look like when it takes fuller shape. But at this point he is proving a powerful advocate of U. S. policy within the U. N. and an influential spokesman for his own views within the Kennedy administration.

20 YEARS AGO

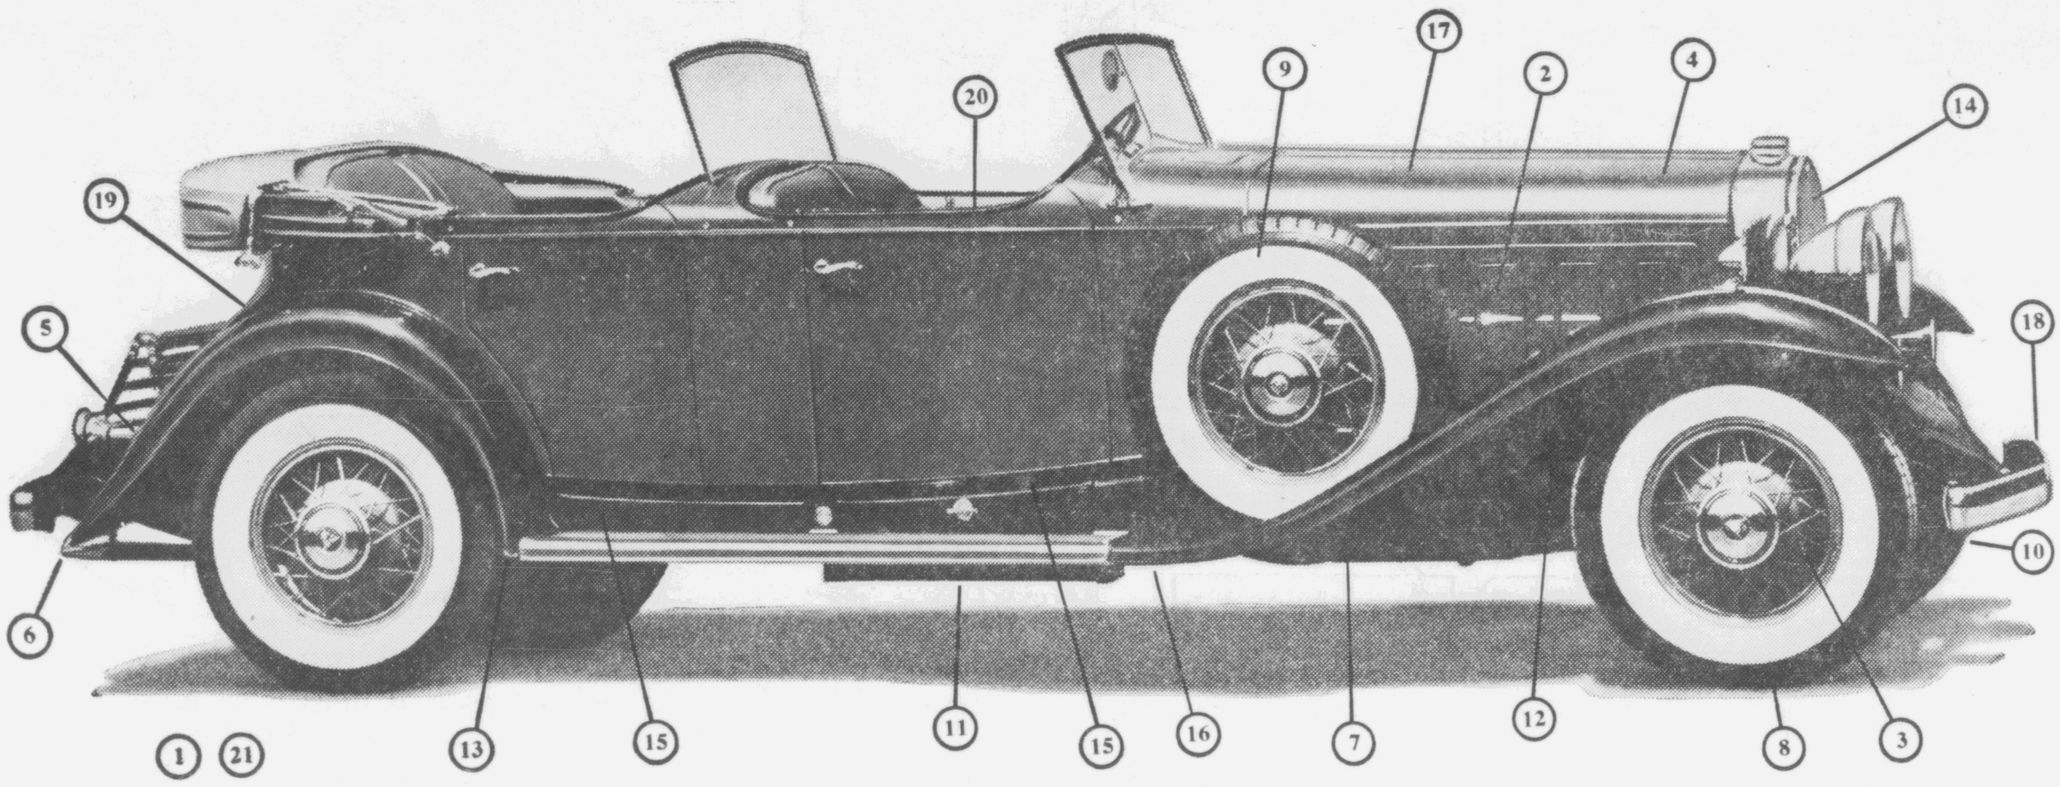
The Country Parson

"The most successful reformers are those who make it look like such fun to be good that others want to imitate them."



Shell's automotive experts have developed many ways to make their own cars run better and last longer. The numbers on this classic 1930 V-16 indicate some of the areas deserving attention, as described below.

Shell recommends 21 ways to make your car last longer

Shell scientists dedicate their working lives to the care and feeding of automobiles.

They can offer dozens of tips on prolonging the life of your second biggest investment. Here are some useful samples:

AMERICANS spend more than 2 billion dollars a year on automotive replacement parts. This expense is enough to give every man, woman, and child in the U. S. a $12 birthday present.

With a little care you can avoid much of this expense and keep your car youthful. Here are a few tips from Shell's experts.

1. Break in a new car properly. A long break-in period at low speed is no longer necessary. But manufacturers recommend:

A. Don't accelerate at full throttle or change gears abruptly. Sudden shocks to gears in the rear axle and transmission can cause lasting damage.

B. Vary your speeds—and especially avoid sustained high speed.

C. Try not to stop too suddenly—it can harm brake surfaces.

2. Warm up slowly. Racing an engine to warm it up ages it fast. A short warm-up at moderate speed is good for your car even in summer, and even more necessary during colder months when the oil tends to move sluggishly at first. Never race your cold engine to warm up, though. It may damage critical working parts before lubrication can be fully established.

There's no need for long idling; but drive slowly for the first few minutes.

3. Use your engine to save your brake linings. Anticipate your slowdowns. Use the brake as little as possible.

When you see you'll have to slow down, take your foot off the accelerator early and let the engine's compression do some of the job.

Always keep the master brake cylinder full of heavy-duty brake fluid. Shell's Super Heavy Duty brake fluid is designed to help your car's brakes deliver top performance.

4. Have your engine's spark timing set to proper specifications. The spark timing determines whether your plugs fire at exactly the right instant. With incorrect timing you lose power and cut mileage. Also your car may knock. Chronic knocking can eventually damage your engine.

5. Use a gasoline that controls knock. If your engine persists in knocking, you may need a gasoline with more anti-knock components, for a higher octane rating.

Today's Super Shell contains all of the anti-knock ingredients required to help your car deliver knock-free performance.

6. Learn to read tail pipe smoke signals. Blue smoke means too much oil is getting into the combustion chambers.

Excessive blue smoke is a warning that piston rings may be worn—and need replacing. Your mechanic calls this a "ring job."

Black smoke is an indication of too much gasoline in the air-fuel mixture. Your carburetor may need an adjustment.

White smoke is mostly water vapor. Don't worry about it. Your engine makes a gallon of water for every gallon of gasoline burned. On cold days some of this shows up as vapor.

7. Have your oil checked whenever you fill up with gasoline. An oil check is a simple safety check for your engine. It is also free, and takes less than a minute.

By the way, oil does not wear out. But it can be lost through leaks or burning. And it does get dirty. Worse yet, oil can become contaminated by combustion by-products—including acid.

To be really safe, use new Shell X-100® Premium Motor Oil. It only costs about $3.60 more per year than regular oils—no more than most premiums.

New Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil fights engine acid a brand-new way—with an amazing chemical shield that clings tightly to all metal surfaces.

For most cars Shell recommends an oil change once a month in winter, every 60 days in summer—never more than 2,000 miles between changes.

8. Avoid high speeds and save your tires. Every extra mile your tires last is money in your pocket. High speeds increase wear drastically—by as much as 80% over normal wear—so it pays to go easy.

9. Rotate tires every 5,000 miles. Your tires will last longer because they will all wear evenly, and at the same rate. Note: See your Shell dealer for a set of valve caps; they will prevent air from getting out and dirt from getting in around the tire valve.

10. Check wheel alignment and balance. The shock of hitting curbs or dropping into deep holes can cause misalignment.

This literally drags the wheel at an angle to the line of travel. Nothing wears tires out more quickly.

An out-of-line wheel can increase tire wear as much as 50 per cent. An unbalanced wheel pounds the tire against the pavement, wearing the tread unevenly.

Have an expert check wheel alignment and balance at least twice a year. Proper tire inflation at all times is also essential.

11. Save your battery with 11¢ worth of baking soda. Dirt and corrosion can actually cause current leaks—and can shorten your battery's life by many months. If corrosion is visible, wash the battery off with a solution of baking soda and water. Use a wire brush if necessary. Then rinse thoroughly with warm water. Ask your Shell dealer to check your battery terminals.

Caution: Never allow the soda-water solution to get into your battery; it could neutralize the acid which makes your battery work.

12. Change your oil filter element every other oil change. Abrasive specks as small as 1/1000th of an inch in diameter can shorten the life of your engine. The oil filter element in your car has the exacting task of keeping tiny, dangerous specks of metal and other abrasives out of the engine, while allowing oil to flow freely.

The filter catches and holds these foreign particles until it can hold no more. But when the oil filter is clogged up, it cannot work effectively.

Replacing the filter element every other oil change helps your engine to last longer.

13. Get a lubrication job regularly. Dirt and moisture can work into chassis joints and bushings, causing friction and wear. Grease can also eventually pound out, leaving the parts unprotected.

See your Shell dealer for a Shellubrication. He has the charts, equipment, Shell lubricants for your car, and the skill for a really thorough job.

14. Have your car's cooling system checked twice a year. In time, the inhibitors in your anti-freeze lose some of their ability to prevent rust, corrosion and sediment from forming in your cooling system.

Let your Shell dealer check the cooling system—including hoses and hose connections—no less than twice a year. When he drains and refills he will add a special Cooling System Protector.

15. Keep door and body panel drain holes clear to foil rust. You never see them, but there are little drain holes at the bottom of body panels and doors. They can get clogged so that the panels actually hold water. Rust forms more easily and can eat holes right through the metal.

You have probably noticed this ugly sight in other cars. Make sure drain holes are always kept clear.

16. Keep road salt washed off. Nothing can damage a car's appearance more than the chemicals used to clear icy, snowy roads. They can eat not only the finish, but the body structure itself. Make sure you get it all off—not only from the paint but from the bright metal parts, as well.

17. Use these tips to help your car stay new looking longer. A good coat of polish provides a film that protects your car's finish. But before you polish your car, always wash it—and always in the shade.

Some new car finishes need only a good washing to keep them bright, but others require waxing. It's a good idea to check your owner's manual. Older cars are almost certain to benefit from a good waxing.

18. Protect chrome against rust invasion. Chrome, itself, can't rust. But it actually has millions of tiny holes which can let the moisture right through to the metal beneath. Dirt invites this invasion, so clean the chrome thoroughly and frequently, and wax it for further protection.

19. "Bandage" minor scratches in your car's finish. Small scratches in the finish expose bare metal which can rust. Until you can have the scratches refinished, keep rust from forming with a coat of touch-up paint or even a strip of cellulose tape on the scratches. Use clear nail polish on scratches in the chrome.

20. Pamper carpets and upholstery. Ground-in dirt wears out carpets before their time. Give them a weekly whisking or vacuuming; shampoo once in a while.

21. Let your Shell dealer help your car last longer. Your car may have cost you thousands of dollars. After your home, this is probably your biggest single investment.

Treat it carefully. Feed it well. Let your Shell dealer help you on both counts. You will save money—and increase your driving pleasure, too.

Private Investing Firm May Open New Bay Area Office In San Rafael

The Pacific Plan, a bay area firm specializing in hard money deeds of trust for private investors, with offices in San Francisco, the East Bay, down the Peninsula and as far south as Monterey, has just opened its 10th branch at Pleasant Hill in the East Bay.

Number 11, we understand, is slated for San Rafael. A company spokesman announced that it may locate here as early as June or July. The firm is looking over available sites for an investment manager, loan manager, appraiser and possibly one or two secretaries. Main offices are located in Menlo Park.

Records submitted to the U. S. Internal Revenue Service indicate that investors through Pacific Plan received an aggregate total in interest payments of more than $738,000 during 1960.

SOMETHING NEW in swimming pool purifiers is being offered by Puretronics Corp., Northern California distributors for an electronic device known as Aquatrol. Marin headquarters are at 3765 Redwood Highway north of San Rafael where Dolphin of Marin is located.

Aquatrol was developed by Edwin B. Block, inventor of the walkie-talkie. Its purpose is to eliminate all need for the usual swimming pool chemicals such as chlorine and acid. In operation, silver and copper ions are released into solution by an electronic cell. A measuring unit that automatically tells when ionization is needed acts as a governor.

The silver ions destroy bacteria and the copper ions eliminate algae—all according to the laws of nature.

Also eliminated, says sales manager Peter Henderlite, are irritants to the eyes and skin. The water is rendered so pure, he claims, you can drink it, and he suits action to the word by downing a glass with gusto.

The device is affixed to the pool filtering system and Puretronics Corp. affirms that it will pay for itself in two years. The whole thing fits into a container about the size of a suitcase, requires only minor electrical and plumbing work for installation.

OUTER SPACE or inner space—one or the other is needed for the increasing bulk of county records, but County Recorder Noel Giacomini concurs with the Marin County Grand Jury that for the time being, at any rate, his department should remain in the courthouse and not be transferred to the Civic Center when it becomes available.

All records are now being microfilmed and stored for protection and preservation, but the photostat system is more practical for everyday thumbing by title companies and informaton seekers, he told the Marin County Real Estate Board last Tuesday. Microfilmed records will last indefinitely when properly stored but get ragged around the edges with heavy use.

Older records receive the most wear and tear, because title companies have kept up their own complete records for reference during recent years.

The space problem may be solved later by making use of some of the County Assessor's quarters.

Just for the records, Giacomini said his department is self-supporting; fees taken in (fees are set by the state) amount to about $85,000 a year. The annual budget varies but generally results in a substantial rebate to the general fund.

OUT OF THE DOLDRUMS? Report from the Marin County Real Estate Board indicates that Recorder Giacomini may be in for a healthy rise in business.

Multiple listing sales for March, 1961, jumped up 53 per cent in numbers over the same period a year ago—better than 61 per cent in dollar volume.

Novato, Club Cited For Attempt To Beautify Streets

The city of Novato has received a certificate of merit in radio station KCBS community beautification competition and the Novato Garden Club has been cited for its efforts to beautify the main street, Grant Avenue.

The awards are presented to the cities making the "most significant visible landscaping improvement" during Plant A Tree Week, sponsored by the station in March.

Twenty-one liquidambar trees in redwood planter boxes have now been placed on Grant Avenue. The Novato Garden Club donated 20 trees and the Indian Valley Nursery donated one, the first to go out, for in front of City hall. Each box also has yellow and orange gazanias planted in it.

The club last weekend raised more than $400 at a garden bazaar for more trees and for general "city beautification."

REP. MILLER REPORTS

Big Tests Lie Ahead In Legislative Mill

By REP. CLEMENT W. MILLER

Congress reconvened this week after the brief recess and stock-taking that traditionally occurs at Easter.

And the big push on the big bills in President John F. Kennedy's legislative program is about to begin.

So far, Congress has enacted four of the 16 measures for which the president has asked priority consideration. Five other bills on that list have been passed by one house or the other.

But, with the exception of the historic Rules Committee fight early in the session, none of these could be called a resounding victory for Kennedy. Except for the House version of the minimum wage bill, the bills passed so far have been of secondary importance or are temporary measures for dealing with the immediate problems of the recession.

The big tests lie ahead.

On the only "big" issue dealt with so far — the minimum wage bill—the president suffered in the House two weeks ago what must be considered a major defeat. The Republican-Southern coalition defeated him by the melodramatic margin of one vote.

But the Senate began debate yesterday on this House version and administration leaders are optimistic about getting a much improved Senate version and then achieving an acceptable final result in House-Senate conference.

Next week the Kennedy federal aid to education bill is to move to the Senate floor, with the housing bill next and such other big ones as medical insurance for the aged, foreign aid, postal rates and the highway program waiting in the wings.

The young chiefs of the new administration and the administration's floor leaders here on Capitol Hill have learned much these last 11 weeks about the well-disciplined and seasoned coalition arrayed against them. The administration combat team should be tougher to beat now that it's blooded by losing the House minimum-wage battle.

The floor of the Touse, rather than the Senate, will continue to be the key battleground for the next four years.

And, I believe, the administration will continue to be in grave trouble in the House until many more members of Congress are convinced that it is very important for them to be on the floor during the long debates and numerous votes on watering-down amendments to the major bills.

For example, the key vote on minimum wage was on such an amendment and was by "teller" vote. This means that congressmen march up the center aisle and file past tellers to be counted for or against a measure. Numbers are counted but the votes are not recorded individually, as on a roll call.

On the key minimum-wage vote the tellers counted 186 for the watering-down amendment on coverage and 185 for the President. This total means that some 60 congressmen did not vote—for one reason or another. But there is no roll-call record so that the voters back home can know how their repepresentative voted, or even if he voted at all.

Hats Off To Our Housewives For Their Tireless Efficiency

Women, you're wonderful! You are efficient and you are tireless. You organize a hundred separate jobs into a workable sequence daily. Then you barrel through 'em.

How do you do it?

There's a reason for my admiration. I've been a housewife for two whole days. My lady has been at camp, with her club group.

"You won't mind keeping house for two days, will you dear?" she asked me. She put her arms around me then kissed me. "I'll leave Friday afternoon and get back early Monday morning. You don't object do you,"

I'm putty in my lady's hands. Come to think of it I'd be putty in most any lady's hands, treated that way

Now it is Sunday evening. The kids are studying. I stand in the kitchen, and what do I see, Chaos. Dirty dishes everywhere. The top of the stove shines with grease from the spattering of the morning bacon. The tile on the drainboard has new dark spots. The wastebasket in the corner is overflowing. Do you suppose I can clean this mess up before midnight?

The bedrooms are fine. I made the kids do that job. They squawked, of course. Who ever heard of spending Sunday afternoon making beds and vacuuming floors? I got strict, and gave orders. Now the young'ns look at me as if I had a loathsome disease or two heads.

The cooking is what floored me. Last night I tried to broil steaks, stew vegetables, bake potatoes, toss a green salad, heat a frozen pie, and whip some cream simultaneously. My wife does all this. Why can't I?

We ate sporadically, from 6 until 9 p.m. You should have heard the wisecracks.

Tomorrow I'll be a man again. Tomorrow I'll be back at the office. Hallelujah!

Mother Scheduled For Court In Neglect Case

A San Anselmo mother, accused of neglecting her 2-year-old son, was released from county jail on her own recognizance yesterday afternoon and ordered to appear in court on April 26.

Attorney Robert Pendergrass of San Rafael was appointed by the court to represent Mrs. Grace Pieppenger, 28, of 2 Foothill Road. San Anselmo police arrested her Tuesday when they found the 2-year-old boy, weighing only 18 pounds, alone at home. He bore a bruise on his head and sores on the body.

Mrs. Pieppenger, divorced from her husband, has another son, 6, and is expecting a third child.

Marin Man To Study School Acoustics

By DOROTHY SIMPERS

A San Rafael man will undertake a nationwide acoustical research project which he says will probably influence the design of schools for the next 50 years.

He is Dariel Fitzroy of 50 Montecito Road, an acoustical consultant.

Fitzroy, with school architect John Lyon Reid of San Francisco, has received a Ford Foundation grant for an acoustical and architectural investigation.

They will visit schools across the country—specifically those that have "departed from the norm" in their physical plants —to learn several things.

The researchers will attempt to find out what is the minimum possible in partitions or walls — acoustical separation — between classrooms, and the maximum amount of noise interference under which a class can be conducted without interfering with learning.

They also will check on what is the ideal environment for such facilities as band practice rooms and gymnasiums.

In other words, explains Fitzroy, "we will try to learn how much racket the pupils can stand and still learn."

He believes the research will prove that practically no separation is necessary between classrooms, that pupils will be able to learn under such conditions because of the ability to "focus on something desired and exclude what is undesired."

The results of the research will influence the design of schools adapting to such new developments as team teaching and teaching machines, Fitzroy says.

He explains that over the years certain criteria have been followed, requiring that there should be a sound reduction of 40-45 decibels through the partition separating classrooms. A decibel is a measure of sound intensity.

With architect Reid, Fitzroy began experimenting with reducing that intensity. They found there was adequate interception of sound at 20-25 decibels. This, says Fitzroy, made a school more flexible and reduced construction costs.

Visiting schools in Texas, Fitzroy found a new one with no partitions between classrooms, and no corridor walls. He took tape recordings on which all classes can be heard at once.

In all this bedlam, the fifth grade, for example, could hear what was going on in the first grade. He asked the teachers if they didn't go crazy with all that noise. "We like it," they told him. "It's marvelous."

Reid and Fitzroy already have started checking to see how many schools can be included in their survey. Probably 50 to 60 will be visited. The project is expected to take most of a year.

The research project is being done for the educational facilities laboratory, educational division of the Ford Foundation, which encourages research into improved teaching facilities and methods.

Fitzroy has been acoustical consultant on between 500 and 600 school buildings of many types, for band rooms, multipurpose rooms, auditoriums and classrooms. He recently spoke before the Florida State Board of Education on adaptation of schools for team teaching.

In recent years Fitzroy has become particularly well known in his field for a new formula which makes possible more precise prediction of the sound quality of rooms and puts the finger on what contributes to poor quality of a bad room.

Fitzroy believes he was the first independent acoustical consultant in the world. He has worked on many well-known buildings, including the Masonic Temple in San Francisco, and the auditorium of San Francisco State College. He will be the consultant on the new terminal building at San Francisco Airport and on the Rodef Sholom temple in Santa Venetia.

In addition to his work on buildings, he also does industrial noise control to block sound and to try and protect workers from damaging noise.

Sometimes he is called in to patch up acoustical problems in buildings already completed, or he may testify in court in cases involving acoustical problems.

The versatile Fitzroy also is a former long-time member of the Ross Valley Players and a one-time professional magician who has written several books on magic. His stage name was Dariel Fitzkee.

Prison Chapel Bids Submitted

DeNarde Construction Co. of Oakland submitted the low bid of $175,187 for construction of the new Protestant chapel at San Quentin Prison, the State Division of Architecture announced.

The new structure will replace the old chapel in an ancient building to be torn down. It will hold about 400 persons.

The prison's new Catholic chapel already has been built and is in use. The Protestant chapel, to be joined to the Catholic chapel by a walkway, will be the second phase of a building program

"We hope it will be ready in about a year. It's a very much needed replacement," said associate warden Walter D. Achuff.

Different Views On Tam Bonds To Be Given On KPIX Tonight

Giving their conflicting views concerning next Tuesday's Tamalpais Union High School District bond election over KPIX tonight at 7:30 will be William Lewis, chairman of the Tam trustees and proponents of the bonds, and P. J. Rowland, president of the Marin County Tax payers Assn. and an opponent of the bonds.

It is part of a general half hour look at Bay Area school bond controversies scheduled by Channel 5.

The Lewis-Rowland statements were taped in advance. And apparently, from the standpoint of KPIX management at least, the former's arguments carried the greater punch. Anyway, Channel 5 has announced that one of its on-the-air editorials, to be delivered by general manager Louis S. Simon, will deal with the Tam bond election. It will be heard tomorrow at 11:15 p.m. and again on Sunday at 1:25 p.m. And the title—"Give Marin Schools A Hand"—serves as a tip-off as to the KPIX stand.

ALSO OF special Marin interest tonight is the KQED "Profile: Bay Area" show at 9:30. The proposed Point Reyes national park will be debated with David Brower, Sierra Club executive secretary, and Sigurd F. Olson, former National Parks Assn. president, favoring the park proposal, and George A. Craig, Western Lumber Manufacturers Inc. secretary-manager, and Norman Livermore Jr., Pacific Lumber Co. treasurer, opposing it.

IN SHARP contrast to the tiresome "sameness" of most of the half-hour programs, KQED's "Robert Herridge Theater" continues to come up with something fresh and different each week.

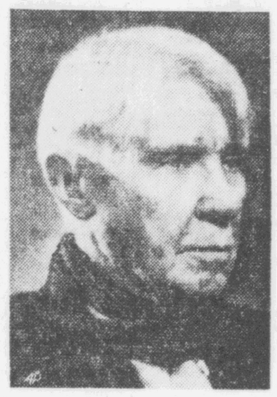
Tonight (at 8:30 p.m.) it will be Canadian actor Michael Kane in a one-man performance of the Edgar Allen Poe thriller, "The Tell-Tale Heart." It features original music composed and conducted by Tom Scott.

Also tonight: Pulitzer Prize-winning historian and poet Carl Sandburg and CBS news chief Howard K. Smith, visit the Gettysburg battlefield to recount the events of that historic battle which turned the tide in the Civil War. The 83-year-old Sandburg will also recreate Abraham Lincoln's immortal Gettysburg Address on the special "CBS Reports" show to be seen at 10 o'clock on KPIX.

SOME HAVE expressed irritation with television's current preoccupation with the Adolf Eichmann case. Better, they seem to say, that we forget Nazi brutality and its millions of victims.

They are often, we feel, the very ones who should be served frequent and regular reminders of the ugly, paranoic thing that racism can become if unchallenged and unchecked by thinking people. Too bad that more of them won't be watching a couple of special TV shows tomorrow night.

One, to be seen from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. on KQED, is the Polish film classic, "The Last Stop," first place winner in the 1948 International Film Festival. The New York Times lauded it as one of a very few films demonstrating "a mature and profound comprehension of the great human tragedy of the last war."



CARL SANDBURG
A visit to Gettysburg

The setting is the infamous Auschwitz horror camp in southern Poland.

Also special tomorrow, at 10:30 p.m. on KGO, will be another show in the splendid "Bell & Howell Close-Up" series, this one entitled "I Remember." In it a former inmate of eight Nazi concentration camps, now a U.S. resident, revisits Europe, reliving his wartime ordeals. And wonders "Can it happen again?"

Highway Traffic Pattern Change Through Ignacio

New traffic arrangements expected to improve safety on Highway 101 throught Ignacio were in effect today as result of a fast operation by state workmen yesterday, Capt. T. F. Parnow of the California Highway Patrol announced.

No more left turns by northbound traffic or cross-traffic will be permitted henceforth at the point where the Nave Lanes are east of the highway and the entrance to Loma Verde and Marin Golf and Country Club Estates is to the west.

Instead, northbound traffic may keep on to the intersection by Galli's restaurant, where a new safer left turn "storage lane" has been installed.

Parnow said it is hoped this arrangement will stop a recent run of mishaps at the former Nave turn westward.

Feed Grain Program Redemptions Due

Farmers who take part in the 1961 feed grain program will be paid in negotiable certificates that may be redeemed in grain or in the cash equivalent, A. J. Bianchi, chairman of the Marin County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said today.

Producers may receive half of his estimated total payment for his farm at the time he signs up for the program. Farmers who take part must divert at least 20 per cent of the 1959-60 base acreage of corn and grain sorghums to soil conserving uses, Bianchi said.

Center Offers 'One-Stop' Shopping

Marin County bargain seekers will find many values at the Corte Madera Shopping Center during the Dollar Days Celebration tomorrow and Saturday.

"The bargain event is a must for the large number of Marin shoppers who like the 'one-stop' shopping offered at the Center," stated Robert A. Batty, president of the Corte Madera Merchants Council.

Quality merchandise is offered at prices designed to accommodate even the tightest family budget, Batty said.

"The merchants are promising the biggest Dollar Day in Marin County. All of the center's stores are participating, reducing prices on much of the merchandise they have in stock," stated Louis Malvino, council secretary.

For the convenience of late shoppers, all the stores will be open until 9 o'clock tomorrow, Batty stated.

"Montgomery Ward's in Corte Madera is holding the first of its two Ward Weeks at the same time as the Dollar Days sale in the Shopping Center," said Burton Rowe, Wards merchandise manager.

"Marin County can look for a big week-end at this center with these two big sales events occuring at the same time," Rowe stated.

All of the 28 stores and services at the Corte Madera multimillion dollar shopping center will participate in the event. These are:

Good Morning To You

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Mrs. Dorothy M. Cole often exchanged greetings and conversed with an elderly woman during early morning strolls, when she was stationed at Oxford, England, during the war as an Army nurse. It was some time later that she learned her acquaintance was Queen Mary, grandmother of Queen Elizabest II.

Expert Help

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Sheriff's deputies had expert help readily available to open a rusty 300-pound safe pulled from the Miami Club.

They simply asked a 20-year-old prisoner in the county jail to apply his talents on the safe. He cracked it.

TELLS OF TERROR

Man Who Struck Stalin Still Alive

GENEVA (UPI) — The man who punched Stalin in the face and lived to tell the tale is rounding out his long life denouncing the brutal terror of the Communist system, whose founders he once plotted with.

At 75, white-haired Khariton Chavichvily is a man who has known conspiracy, revolution and terror.

In a Geneva cafe, just a stone's throw from his present dingy, second-floor lodging, he plotted during 1908 with Lenin for the overthrow of Russia's Romanov dynasty and the end of the reign of Nicholas II, czar of all Russia.

In the uncertain years before World War I, Geneva harbored scores of Russian revolutionaries. Such brilliant intriguers as Nikolai Lenin, who master-minded the revolution of 1917; Leon Trotsky, who later forged the Red Army, and Georgi Plekhanov, who was Russia's foremost Marxist theoretician, gathered at the Cafe Landolt.

Their names are carved on the massive oaken tables around which even today young hotheads and left-wing intellectuals sip their coffee, smoke their pipes and discuss the ills of the world.

"In those days Khrushchev was nothing," said Chavichvily, sitting at one of the tables where he sat with Lenin more than 50 years ago.

Chavichvily, who considers himself the last of the Mensheviks, still is denouncing and protesting. But this time it is not the reaction of the Romanov regime he is against, but the terror of Communism which long ago he, too, wanted to build.

"I am writing my major work: 'The Soviet Union, Georgia, and Human Rights,'" he said.

His conflict with terror goes back to the time he slapped Stalin in the face and got away with it.

Chavichvily, who comes from Georgia, as did Stalin, agitated for communism in his youth and took part in the 1905 revolt which gave imperial Russia the ominous forecast of the bloody revolution that came 12 years later.

In 1905 he argued for three nights running with Stalin, a Bolshevik, and Ramishvilli, a Menshevik, at Tciatouri in Georgia. (The Bolsheviks and the Mensheviks split at the London Communist Congress in 1903 because the Bolsheviks advocated force and the Mensheviks advised peaceful means for installing communism.)

"Stalin, who was then called Koba, roughed up a good friend of mine, so I punched him in the face," Chavichvily said. "Stalin only smiled back at me."

In 1908 Chavichvily joined Lenin in Geneva. But when Lenin asked him to ride on the famous sealed train to Leningrad's Finland Station to spur on the revolution in 1917, he refused.

Between the wars he worked in the Swiss capital at Bern as a journalist. He established the Georgian Press Bureau, and through secret contacts was able to leak news of Politburo meetings in Moscow. In 1945 when he published articles on Stalin in Geneva's Journal de Geneve, Communist agents tried to molest him and cut off his funds.

In 1952, Communist agents raided his prized Russia documents — sought after by many Soviet researchers — and stole precious letters signed by Lenin.

But in 1961 Chavichvily, one of the oldest newspapermen accredited to the United Nations, is grinding out his final condemnation.

He sits in his dimly lit lodgings, wearing a cast-off button-down-collar shirt, writing his manuscript by a window overlooking the cafe where he conspired.

"There are a lot of things you have to live through before you will ever understand," he said.

Meaningful

SHINER, Tex. (UPI) — A new plating company that puts a bright coat of zinc plating on wire products, picked an appropriate location—Shiner, Tex.

Opening Slated In Fall For Clothing Store

Latest addition to the continually expanding Corte Madera Shopping Center is a 10,000-square-foot clothing store for men and boys to be operated by Smith's Clothiers of Oakland.

Ground was recently broken for the new building which will adjoin that of Montgomery Ward and Co., with entrances on the Mall and Corte Madera Boulevard. Opening is planned for this fall.

The store was designed by Leo Roselyn of San Francisco and will feature low, open displays for close inspection and easy handling of merchandise. It will have a main selling floor and a mezzanine. Large windows and daylight lighting fixtures will make it possible to select ties, suits and slacks with their true color values displayed under ideal conditions.

Air conditioning will assure comfortable shopping in any weather.

Smith's Oakland store is now in its 75th year of operation. There are other Smith's stores in Berkeley, Hayward, Richmond and Walnut Creek, and one newly opened in Redwood City. More are planned for Concord, Fremont, San Jose and Sacramento within the year.

The $175,000 building in Corte Madera is being built by Clovis Construction Co. of San Francisco.

Fattening

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (UPI) — If estimates prove correct, consumption of red and poultry meats during 1961 will exceed 200 pounds per person for the first time in history, Lloyd Bergsma of the Texas A&M College extension service reported.

Winfield, Scott City and Ft. Scott, Kan., were named for General Winfield Scott, famed figure in both the Mexican and Civil Wars.

Boundary Of Michigan, Ohio Caused 'Earlier Civil War'

DETROIT (UPI) — Pioneer settlers along the Michigan-Ohio boundary were old hands at "civil war" a good 25 years before the first guns were fired at Ft. Sumter.

The nation began its four-year centennial commemoration of the War Between the States in January.

The first "civil war," however, lasted only a matter of days, and more whisky was spilled than blood, according to historians.

The dispute arose between Michigan and Ohio in 1835 over the boundary line between the two states.

Michigan, referring to a 1787 ordinance, said the line should extend due east from the southern extremity of Lake Michigan, passing near the town of Perrysburg, (Ohio), south of Toledo.

Ohio said ordinance be damned, she wanted Toledo.

The issue came to a head when Ohio Gov. Robert Lucas decided to organize the northern portion of his state into Lucas County, with the seat at Toledo.

He set Sept. 7, 1835, for convening the first circuit court in the new county, an act which he thought would settle the matter once and for all.

Michigan's territorial governor, youthful Stevens T. Mason, was not to be intimidated.

He called up 1,000 state militiamen, marched some of them aboard a troopship at Detroit and dispatched the rest on foot toward the Ohio border.

Lucas heard the Michigan troops were on the way, and sent 600 of his own men to the south shore of the Maumee River to await Mason's forces.

On the evening of Sept. 6, Mason and his men moved into the city of Toledo, keyed for a pitched battle with the Ohio militia. But nothing happened.

Sometime during the night the Ohio circuit judges, escorted by a troop of soldiers, stole into the city, broke into a schoolhouse, declared the court in session, adjourned rapidly and high-tailed it back to the Ohio lines.

When Mason heard the next day that court had been held, he conceded defeat and proceeded to demobilize his force.

Before he could leave Toledo, however, he received word from President Andrew Jackson that he had been relieved of his command as territorial governor.

In 1836, the federal government suggested that it would consider Michigan for statehood if the state agreed to give up its claim to the Ohio property.

As a consolation prize, Michigan was offered the vast upper peninsula, then an unexplored arm of the territory of Wisconsin.

Michigan agreed, and when she was admitted to the union in 1837, her "war hero," Stevens T. Mason was returned as the state's first governor.

The state line question remained a touchy issue in Michigan and Ohio border towns for some time, historians report.

Hungary Hammers At Red Farm Plan

VIENNA (UPI) — Hungary is swinging into the last lap of its drive for all-out collectivization, official Hungarian sources in Vienna report.

The campaign has been in full force since a Communist Party resolution last November ordered the completion of agricultural collectivization by the end of the winter. Party Chief Janos Kadar went on record at the last parliament session in December with a statement that it "would definitely be accomplished" before this current year is out.

Under the force of these commitments, official pressure has increased on private landowners.

No violence has been reported, but officials are quick to use measures even more effective against the stubborn but helpless holdouts.

Hungarian hospitality demands that every visitor be offered coffee and cakes in the home. In a single day up to 25 regional officials descend on a peasant family, cleaning them out of coffee—which costs $9 a pound—offering in return tales of the wonders of socialized farming.

More hard-necked peasants have been called out in their pajamas in the middle of the night, locked out and told to knock on the door when ready to sign up for collectivization.

So far the drive has been successful. Between June and December last year, 223 new collective farms were organized. An official tally at the first of the year said that 82 per cent of the arable land already belonged to the so-called Socialist sector.

But the toll already is beginning to tell. For all their propaganda successes, the officials cannot force the peasants to work the collectivized land. Unharvested potatoes still are lying in the frozen ground, and at night families dig up only enough for their own needs. Illegal slaughter of cattle and swine is rampant, and Hungary, once the breadbasket of Central Europe, last year was forced to import pork for the first time in its history under an agreement with Austria which pledged Hungary to return payment in kind this year.

It is improbable that the agreement can be kept. The peasants are slaughtering suckling pigs as well, and the market outlook for 1961 does not indicate enough meat for local consumption needs, let alone for export.

Travelers from Hungary report that peasant resentment at the government has never been so high. Morale is at a new low, and the official party organ, Nepszabadsag, recently admitted that in several villages demoralized peasants are drinking day and night.

Ironically, some of the leaders of the collectivization campaign are said to have seen secret documents showing that the few remaining private farmers in Hungary are producing better and bigger crops than the most advanced collectivized farms in the "ideal state" — Russia.

But resulting food shortage or no, and peasant opposition notwithstanding, the Kadar government is committed to its course. Although Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's friendliness to the Hungarian boss during the November Moscow conference vastly strengthened Kadar's position at home, failure to attain the promised 100 per cent collectivization would mean failure of the regime's main plank.

Illegible Handwriting Slows Down Mail, Causes Losses In Business

NEW YORK (UPI)—If your income tax refund is late in arriving this year, you may have only your poor handwriting to blame.

If friends and relatives complain they never receive the letters you claim you write, there is a strong chance that the postal employes could not read your sanskrit and dumped your mail into the dead-letter files.

Illegible handwriting also has been known to delay the filling of department store orders and cause pharmacists to misread doctors' prescriptions.

Handwriting cripples are so numerous that the University of Wisconsin has been conducting an extensive survey under grants from the Parker Pen Co. to try to straighten out some of the kinks and snarls in the average person's script.

Until the early 20th Century, handwriting was an art that was cultivated carefully in schools and homes. The first blow to legibility was the widespread use of the typewriter. Then came the second, when penmanship instruction in public schools was dropped as a depression money-saver.

Added to these blows, according to University of Wisconsin researchers, were the introduction of several basic handwriting systems. Today, it is estimated, there are about 19 different handwriting systems, instead of the single Spencerian script of the 1900's and the "Palmer Method" of the next few decades.

So-called progressive education brought the widespread teaching of printing instead of longhand to children, on the theory it was easier to learn.

All these factors have added up to a most horrifying jumble of illegible words and numbers, the Wisconsin researchers discovered. They estimated that a million dollars a week is lost by business and industry in scrambled orders, lost deliveries, clerical mistakes and other forms of inefficiency traceable to unreadable writing.

The Illinois Bell Telephone Co. alone found it lost nearly $50,000 a year because operators had scribbled toll call charges in hieroglyphics.

Several department stores have introduced experimental classes in penmanship for employes. Other companies have issued orders to workers to write legibly, or else.

The root of the trouble is that people think much faster than they can write. Therefore, the swifter a person is, the worse his scrawl. College professors and top executives have been found to be the No. 1 offenders on the graphological scale.

The average individual thinks at the rate of about 250 words a minute. But he cannot write faster than 25 words a minute and still read what he has set down.

The Wisconsin handwriting experts claim that anyone can improve his handwriting, if he really tries. Here are some basic handwriting tips they passed along:

—Test yourself to see if your handwriting speed exceeds 25 words a minute. If it does, slow down.

—Practice writing the trickier letters slowly. A, E, R, and T are the most difficult to write. Also practice with letters such as A, G and D to make sure they are fully closed.

—Watch for "twin" numbers. The numerals 1 and 7 should not look anything alike. Also beware of 3, 5 and 8, which often look alike when written hurriedly.

—Sit properly when writing, with shoulders slightly forward and hips back on the seat. Face the desk squarely with both forearms on it. Keep both feet flat on the floor.

—The paper should be slanted slightly. The palm of the writing hand should be down and the wrist should be held as flat as possible. Hold pencil or pen an inch above the point.

—Never press down while writing. Hold the pen or pencil lightly or the writing will be cramped.

A few minutes a day of such practice may bring dramatic results. Even you, at long last, may be able to read your own writing!

Music Camp Turns Into Full School

NEW YORK (AP) — After 33 years, that small place in the Michigan lakeland with the strange, Swiss-sounding name —Interlochen—has grown from a summertime music camp into a year-round academy of arts.

When its president and founder, Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, was introduced at a recent New York news conference, the master of ceremonies used these words:

"He is the living refutation of the slander that has been circulating abroad, that America's is a purely materialistic society."

Interlochen, Mich., is Maddy's brainchild, now grown into manhood. The only secondary school of its kind in the United States, Interlochen's National Music Camp—which in September will become the Interlochen Arts Academy—has specialized over the past three decades in training and producing what Maddy calls "musical leadership at lower level."

By this, he explained, he means thoroughly trained musicians in all aspects who spread throughout the country to "give music" to the people either as members of well-established orchestras or as leaders and conductors of lower-level music organizations.

It is estimated that up to 15,000 high school-age children have left the National Music Camp since its founding in 1928 to find creative places in music and affiliated arts throughout the U. S.

The full Interlochen Arts Academy, opening Sept. 10, will enroll some 300 students and offer a complete college preparatory curriculum in addition to highly specialized training in music, art, drama and dance, recording techniques, radio and TV.

Music offerings will include a 100-piece youth symphony orchestra, Maddy said, as well as a symphonic band, choir and instruction in chamber music, composition, conducting all instruments and voice.

"Frequent concerts, broadcasts, television performances and recording sessions will provide training not available elsewhere in winter," according to Maddy.

Interlochen Arts Academy believes in a very strict regimen. Not only will it be difficult to enroll there — a child will have to have two confidential recommendations from his present school as to talent and qualifications—but once there he'll have to work hard.

Classes will meet six days a week, evenings will be devoted to special rehearsals, recitals, lectures, concerts by visiting artists, followed by a period of study before bedtime at 10 p.m.

There will be no weekend vacations. Instead, there will be special activities such as hobby projects, sports in season, arts programs, such as oratoria or operetta rehearsals and concerts, radio, television and recording sessions.

The accent will be on "concentration," Maddy said. "There is no other secondary boarding school in America which is dedicated to concentration training in the arts in addition to academic schooling leading to college entrance.

"Maddy's school," as some people in the world of music call it, is well-known already. But to make it known better, Maddy has made a color movie "The Three R's and the Arts," for showing on TV and in theaters. A radio series—"The Best from Interlochen" (NBC) —will start in March.

The National Music Camp has been operating its own FM radio station for some time. There also are Interlochen recordings, made by the students themselves.

Marin Gains Support For Fair Fund Plan

Not What Requested, But Considered Good

Assurance has been obtained from State Finance Director John F. Carr that he will support Marin County in a plan for accumulating yearly state contributions in order that construction of county fair plant on the Civic Center site may be handled in one stage for efficiency and economy. This, it was learned today, was the result of a Sacramento conference between Marin and state representatives yesterday in which the Marinites did not get what they first requested but ended up with what they consider a satisfactory plan.

After a report to the board of supervisors probably next Monday, it is expected that the county's desires will be written up in revised form to cover a five-year program, and be submitted to the state before a June 1 deadline.

CASTRO THERE

The meeting yesterday afternoon, in Carr's office, had been arranged by Marin's Sen. John F. McCarthy who played a major role in steering discussion headed on the state side by Carr and for Marin by Supervisor Walter R. Castro of San Rafael, who was backed by a considerable group. Assisting Carr was Robert Harkness of his office.

Three proposals were put forward in turn. Reception went about as inwardly anticipated by the Marinites who had decided they had better make initial play for the jackpot but who weren't astonished that they didn't hit.

The first idea was that the state meet its total five-year commitment for a total of just over half a million dollars at once. Carr was prompt in saying that this would be impossible because it would mean taking money already committed to 71 other counties, who split two and quarter million dollars a year as against requests aggregating up to 30 million dollars.

BUDGET SUGGESTION

Next the Marin group backed an idea put forward by Senator McCarthy, who suggested that the governor's budget be amended in the senate to appropriate the entire sum for Marin in this year's budget, making it up in part from the general fund instead of drawing wholly on pari-mutuel money but eventually repaying the fund from the race track take.

Carr similarly took a dim view of this hopeful thought.

Finally came the plan which

Bills Offered To Curb Gate Span Transfer

Solon Introduces Measures Backed By Bridge District

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—Golden Gate Bridge officials are launching a three-pronged legislative answer to the proposal to put the Gate bridge and all Bay bridges under Golden Gate Transportation Commission operation.

Assemblyman Frank P. Belotti (R, Eureka) introduced one bill yesterday, a second today and will introduce a third tomorrow "at the request of the bridge district" which would:

1.Divide surplus profits of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District among the six counties of the district — Marin, Sonoma, Mendocino, Napa, Del Norte and San Francisco—on the basis of assessed valuation.

NO TRANSFER

2. Prohibit transfer of any bridge or facility from a district to the state without a two-thirds vote of the people of the district, and prohibit the holding of such an election so long as there is outstanding indebtedness against the district.

3. Require cost of maintenance and insurance of all toll bridges to be paid from toll revenues unless specific legislation was involved at the time of the bond issue which financed the bridge.

OTHER APPROVAL

Belotti said that in addition to "handling them for the bridge district," the three bills also have the approval of supervisors in Mendocino and Del Norte Counties, both of which are in Belotti's district.

The first bill, which he introduced yesterday, would restore the bridge legislation substantially to what it was when the bridge district was created. About 10 years ago, when the reserve and surplus funds of the district began to build up, the bridge district pushed through legislation prohibiting return of surplus funds to the counties.

RESERVE FUNDS

At present, reserve funds are approximately $20,000,000. But reserves in the bond redemption fund, in the interest fund, a one year's total in the reserve interest fund and possibly other reserves would be exempted from distribution under the proposal.

The bill Belotti introduced today, which would prohibit transfer of a bridge or facility without vote of the district's residents, is in direct opposition to the proposed transportation commission bill (SB 853) proposed by Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy. The commission would take over Bay bridges, without a vote of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District, the only district involved. It would negotiate to take over other facilities such as airports and seaports in the Bay Area.

The second portion of the measure, which would prohibit

Storm Hits East Coast, Three Die

NEW YORK (UPI) — A vicious rain and snowstorm driven by gale force gusts spread death and destruction along the Atlantic Coast today.

A spring nor'easter with the icy lash of winter moved down from Nova Scotia to North Carolina, powered by winds of 35 to 50 miles an hour with gusts up to 75 miles an hour. It played havoc with shipping and flooded coastal communities with high tides. Air, train, bus, auto and ferry travel was disrupted.

"This is worse than Hurricane Donna," said a Greenwich, Conn., policeman after taking the residents of 25 low-lying homes to safety.

At least three persons were known dead and a number of others were missing in the storm that carried hail, sleet, snow and from six to eight inches of torrential rain.

Three teen-agers were found dead in a drifting boat off Long Island's storm buffeted south shore. At Dobbs Ferry, N.Y., a barge overturned in the choppy, white-capped Hudson River and three or four crewmen were missing.

North Korea Gets Invite To Debate

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — The General Assembly's main political committee tightened the tangle on procedure in its Korean debate and adjourned indefinitely without taking action today.

The 99-nation committee decided yesterday, over Soviet objections, to extend a conditional invitation to Communist North Korea to participate in the debate provided it acknowledged the "competence and authority" of the United Nations to deal with the Korean question.

Ambassador Charles W. Yost, deputy chief of the U.S. delegation, moved today to start the actual debate on the Korean question. Next Monday, whether or not North Korea had replied to the message sent by Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold last night, informing the Pyongyang authorities of the committee's decision.

Yost's move brought objections from Russia and Afro-Asian countries that it would set an arbitrary deadline.

Jets Collide In Air; Both Fliers Safe

HAFB Man Lands His Jet; Other Pilot Parachutes

Maj. Byron R. Kalin of Hamilton Air Force Base this morning landed his air force jet plane safely after a mid-air collision which sent another jet crashing to the ground near Sacramento.

The pilot of the other air force plane, Capt. Harold L. Harris of McClellan Air Force Base, parachuted to safety near McClellan where Kalin landed.

Both men were reported uninjured.

Captain Harris had taken off from McClellan only moments before to aid Kalin, who reported to the base control tower that cockpit instruments showed his landing gear was not down or not locked in place.

PILOTS ALONE

Both men were piloting two-place T-33 jet trainers, but were alone aboard each plane.

Air force officers at McClellan said it is "standard operating procedure" to send another plane up so its pilot may visually check the landing gear.

Harris made a few passes below Kalin's plane, but on the final pass, the tale sections of the two planes touched in a "very, very minor midair collision," air force officers at the base reported.

Harris' plane went out of control. Harris bailed out to land in a cleared area near Elkhorn Ferry, south of Woodland. His plane landed on a river levee north of Elkhorn Ferry, off the Garden Highway, the California Highway Patrol reported.

MINOR DAMAGE

Kalin landed his plane without incident at McClellan. It had minor damage to its metal "skin," officers said.

Kalin was placed in the base hospital for observation, but was reported apparently uninjured. Harris was still on his way back to the base late this morning.

Kalin had taken off from Hamilton at 7 a.m. on his way to McClellan. The collision occurred at 8:10 a.m.

Harris is stationed at McClellan as special assistant to the chief of the quality control division of the Sacramento air materiel command.

Kalin has been at Hamilton since September, 1960. He is office in charge of scheduling T-33 flights in the 78th operations squadron.

Space Man Describes Eerie Weightlessness

Ate, Drank, Worked Floating In Mid-Air

MOSCOW (AP)—Maj. Yuri A. Gagarin said today he worked on his notes, and even ate and drank while objects were floating around in the realm of weightlessness as he orbited the earth, the Soviet News agency Tass reported.

The Soviet astronaut, Tass said, described the eerie situation in the space ship when weightlessness took over. The entire flight, he asserted, was work all the way and particularly in that phase.

Even so, he said, he felt excellent during that period of his 108-minute flight.

As he waited in the Soviet interior for a hero's welcome in Moscow tomorrow, the 27-year-old astronaut told for the first time about his experiences as his five-ton space ship hurtled around the earth. Premier Khrushchev is expected to cut short his vacation at the Black Sea resort of Sochi to head the welcoming committee when Gagarin arrives in Moscow about noon.

When he became weightless, Gagarin said, it became easier to do everything.

"This is quite natural," he commented. "One's legs, arms weigh nothing, objects float in the cabin. Neither did I myself sit in the chair as I did before that, but hung in mid-air. While in the state of weightlessness, I ate and drank and everything occurred just as it does here on earth.

"I even worked in that condition, wrote, jotting down my observations. My handwriting did not change although the hand does not weigh anything. Only I had to hold the notebook, otherwise it would float away. I maintained communications over different channels and tapped the telegraph key."

Gagarin said he learned first hand that weightlessness does not deprive a man of an ability to work, Tass reported.

"The transition from weightlessness to gravitation," he said, "to the appearance of the force of gravity, is smooth. One's legs and arms feel as before, as during weightlessness, but again acquire weight. And I am no longer hovered over the chair but eased myself into it."

As to what he saw from space, Tass said Gagarin reported:

"I did not see the moon. The sun in outer space is tens of times brighter than here on earth. The stars are visible very well. They are bright and

U.S. Space Program Held Sound

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Space chief James E. Webb testified today that U.S. space plans are not designed to "match" the Russians but rather "to meet the needs of the United States." (See also space stories, page 2.)

Webb also told the house space committee that he "is greatly encouraged" by a speed-up in this country's program under President John F. Kennedy. He and other top space officials were questioned by committee members who were openly chagrined over Russia's feat of sending the first man into space.

SOLIDLY BASED

Webb, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, termed the current U.S. program sound and solidly based.

However, Webb told the house group:

"If you speak of catching up, I am unable to say what the Russians will do next in further development of their big booster (rocket). This program is not designed to match precisely what the Russians may do. It is designed to meet the needs of the United States. If we deliberately set out to compete with Russia on a point by point basis, this involves a different kind of decision."

WANT TO MOVE

Chairman Overton Brooks (D-N.Y.) said the American people want the United States to move from second place to first place in the exploration of space. He asked Webb if increased space spending proposed by Kennedy will assure development of a big booster rocket "at the earliest possible moment."

Webb replied, "No, not at the earliest possible moment."

KENNEDY WAGE BILL RUNS INTO TROUBLE

Senate Conservatives Move To Block Extension Of Minimum Pay Coverage

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy's minimum wage bill was called up for Senate action today, and immediately ran into opposition from conservative Democrats and Republicans.

The bill essentially was the same as the one which the House defeated by one vote before the Easter recess. It would boost the minimum wage to $1.25 an hour and extend coverage to 4.1 million more workers.

After Senate majority leader Mike Mansfield moved to call up the measure, Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) offered a sheaf of amendments to water down the program. He told the Senate that legislation expanding coverage and boosting wages would harm the unemployed, states' rights, the constitution and unskilled, Negro and youthful workers.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) leader of the Southern bloc, offered a substitute which would block extension of the federal wage minimum to approximately 4.1 million additional workers.

The Kennedy-backed proposals, sponsored by Sen. Pat McNamara, (D-Mich.) would provide gradual increases to $1.25 for 23.9 million workers already covered by the law and bring it the 4.1 million new workers, Russell wants to eliminate.

Kennedy forces suffered a sharp set-back when the bill was passed by the House recently in a drastically limited form.

U.N. Troops Told To Hold Against Riots

ELISABETHVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—United Nations troops here were told today to shoot if necessary should the Katangese stage new demonstrations to force the release of 32 white mercenaries captured in a Katanga- U. N. battle early this week.

Rumors grew that the demonstrations may come soon—possibly tonight. But U.N. officials believed any riots were more likely to take place over the weekend.

The Katanga government of Moise Tshombe continued to build pressure on the United Nations by announcing that "all anti-U.N. sanctions are now back in force."

The United Nations confirmed that the Albertville and Manono airports have been closed to U.N. traffic. But a spokesman said the world body plans to send in test supply planes, "possibly tomorrow."

Commons Hears Report On Macmillan's Visit

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan told the House of Commons today his talks with President John F. Kennedy gave a "good augury for the future."

He refused to go much beyond a joint communique issued with Kennedy at end of the talks in Washington. He said one of the prime objects of his visit was to learn the attitude of the new administration.

"I found a welcome readiness to discuss our problems in a very frank and imaginative way, which gives a good augury for the future," he said.

Macmillan, just returned from a trip to the British West Indies, the United States and Canada, reported to Commons in a short prepared statement.

He said his hurriedly scheduled meeting with Kennedy at Key West, Fla., dealt with "the specific question of our policy in Laos." The Washington talks, he said, "covered four days and many subjects were discussed."

"My chief purpose was to explain the point of view of her majesty's government on a number of subjects and to ascertain the attitude of the new administration," he said.

Macmillan reported he and Kennedy covered the broad fields of economic, financial, trade, defense and political problems and policies, including the nuclear test ban conference at Geneva, West Indian economic issues and Angelo-American shipping industry.

Continuation Of Race Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Undersecretary of State Chester Bowles said today severe competition between the United States and the Soviet Union is likely to continue for years to come.

Bowles, in a speech prepared for delivery before the conference on immigration policy of the National Council of Churches, also urged greater U.S. efforts to win the support of the new nations of the world.

"We cannot survive as a great and influential nation," he said, "unless we can help forge a working partnership of the non-Communist peoples of the world."

Joe Smiths Confused By Red Orbit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Joe Smith, average American, is both worried and confused about the Soviet announcement that they orbited a man around the earth.

This was the reaction reported in a nationwide poll by 11 newspapers to find out what the man in the street thinks of the Soviet space achievement.

In each city reporters called Joe Smiths, picked at random from the telephone directory.

The poll was conducted in Miami, Detroit, Akron, Charlotte, Denver, Dallas, Minneapolis, Los Angeles, Oklahoma City and Washington, D. C.

Two Joe Smiths said they thought the United States should step up its space program. Three doubted if the Soviets had really sent a man into space.

Two couldn't see what difference it made. Two expressed confidence that President John F. Kennedy would keep the Soviets from retaining any advantage over us and three hailed it as a great scientific achievement.

Joe Smith, 72, retired tool and die maker in Detroit, said, "They can put all the Russians into space as far as I'm concerned. We can still take care of ourselves, don't worry."

Joe J. Smith, 23, of Charlotte, N.C., said, "I just wish we had done it first. Maybe we're not spending enough money to perfect it right."

Miamian Joe W. Smith, 68, a retired World War I veteran, called it "a bunch of Russian lies." He said "I think it's propaganda to break us down, but they won't break down President Kennedy. Flying in space is against God's wishes."

"If it is true that Russia brought the man back and he's well, then it's a great achievement," said Joe C. Smith, 55, rubber plant worker in Akron, Ohio, "But it's hard to believe what the Russians say."

"I doubt that they did it," said Joe Smith, 61, draftsman for the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation in Denver.

"I think it's a pretty great feat myself," said Joe Smith, 47, Dallas electrician. "The flight shows a lot of skill on the part of the Russians and I believe it is the first step toward interplanetary transportation if we are going to have it."

Joe Smith, 85, an attorney in Pasadena, said "I think it's a lot of damned foolishness. I don't see that any good can come of it."

U.S. Mum On Soviet Space Shots Data

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedy administration is keeping a tight lip on information about Soviet space shots and Pentagon officials said today the aim is to avoid giving the Soviets an idea of the effectiveness of U. S. tracking facilities and intelligence.

Officials, who told this to a reporter, said another purpose was to deny the Soviets what was termed advertising on their space achievements.

NO DISCLOSURE

A Defense Department spokesman said that among other things, there would be no public disclosure when U. S. tracking stations pick up a Soviet rocket launching until after the Soviets announce it themselves.

The policy was developed in meetings among officials of the White House, the State and Defense departments, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the Central Intelligence Agency, officials said. They indicated it might possibly be changed at some future time.

There was considerable confusion yesterday when newsmen sought information from NASA on the Soviet manned space craft.

OBJECT TRACKED

Space agency officials said they had been tracking an object in the approximate path of the vehicle, but that it presumably was the burned out casing of the rocket that carried the craft into orbit. The first contact they reported came some hours after the Soviets said their cosmonaut had returned to earth in his capsule.

At the White House, Pierre Salinger, the press secretary said he had a report of a contact at a time just after the space craft had passed over the Asian land mass. Salinger said it was his understanding "It was the space ship that was tracked."

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Somalis Battle

MOGADISCIO, Somalia (UPI)—Ethiopian troops using machine guns and bombs have killed more than 100 Somalis in Ethiopia near the French Somali and independent Somalia borders, according to delayed reports reaching here today.

Other shooting incidents involving Ethiopian troops and Somalis were reported from other areas in a renewal of violence that first broke out along the ill-defined frontiers three months ago.

A group of 92 Somali refugees from the Ethiopian town of Dagahbur reached Hargeisa, in former British Somalia, and reported the massacre.

Delinquency Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate yesterday passed a bill authorizing $20 million in federal grants to combat juvenile delinquency.

The measure, passed by voice vote, now goes to the House. Last year the Senate passed a virtually identical bill but the House took no action on it.

It authorizes grants of $2.5 million a year for four years for pilot projects to improve methods for the prevention, control and treatment of juvenile delinquency. A like amount is authorized for training personnel.

Eisenhower Party

PALM SPRINGS (AP)—Calypso rhythms wafted on the desert air from the Eisenhower cottage last night as the former President and his wife threw a farewell party.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Mamie end their vacation here tomorrow. They leave for Eisenhower's farm at Gettysburg, Pa.

The party was in Caribbean motif with a native band from Trinidad playing for a dozen guests.

Guard Recruiting

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has authorized states to resume normal recruiting for the National Guard.

Restrictions on recruiting, established in February when Guard strength had risen to 410,000, were lifted yesterday.

The National Guard's program is based on a 12-month average strength of 400,000. At the end of last month, National Guard strength stood at 404,000.

Serving Reds

NEW YORK (AP)—Cuban children are being conscripted for service in Communist countries, says Adolf A. Berle Jr., chairman of President John F. Kennedy's task force on Latin America.

In a speech at the Pan American Day meeting of the New York Bar Assn., Berle compared the present Communist program for Latin America with "the attempted seizure of Greece in 1947."

Churchill Trapped

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sir Winston Churchill was trapped on Aristotle Onassis' palatial yacht today by a howling rainstorm which forced the cancellation of his plans to fly back to London.

Churchill's secretary said the 86-year-old former British Prime Minister would fly home tomorrow instead of today as planned, weather permitting.

Kennedy Hopeful Of U.S. Exploits

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy says the Soviet Union will remain ahead of the United States for some time in the space race—that "the news will be worse before it is better."

But he said he is hopeful that the United States will be first in other scientific achievements of much greater benefit to mankind than the spectacular Soviet feat of firing a man around the globe and bringing him safely back to earth.

And while Kennedy credits the Soviets with "a most impressive scientific accomplishment," he does not regard it as a sign of "weakening of the Free World" in the struggle against communism.

But in setting forth these views at a news conference yesterday, the president did sound a note of warning.

He said: "I do regard the total mobilization of men and things for the service of the Communist bloc over the last years as a source of great danger to us. And I would say we are going to have to live with that danger through most of the rest of this century."

This ninth Kennedy news conference as president drew 426 newsmen—eight more than the previous record set at his first on Jan. 25. His face was a study in solemn seriousness as he dealt at length with the space situation, saying "we are behind."

In reply to a question about the significance of the Soviet achievement, Kennedy said the United States has expected all along that the Soviets would win the spaceman race.

This was clearly indicated, the president added, because the Soviet Union has developed mightier booster rockets than the United States has. But he said the United States hopes "to make progress in this area this year."

A reporter told the president that a member of Congress had said he is tired of seeing the United States second to the Soviet Union in the space field.

"Well," Kennedy replied, "the Soviet Union gained an important advantage in securing these large rocket boosters, which were able to put up greater weights, and that advantage is going to be with them for some time.

Martyrs' Day Rites Stall Eichmann Trial

JERUSALEM (AP) — Adolf Eichmann, on trial in Jerusalem for complicity in the death of 6 million Jews, remained in his barred cell today while Israel honored the memory of the Nazis' Jewish victims with nationwide rites.

The day was set aside as "Martyrs' and Heroes' Memorial Day."

The observance brought a day's recess in the proceedings against Eichmann. When the trial resumes tomorrow, the opposing attorneys are to complete their arguments over the legality of the trial and Israel's right to bring Eichmann before an Israeli court.

Israel charges that Eichmann during World War II was the operational director of a Nazi plan known as "The Final Solution of the Jewish Problem" — total extermination of the 11 million Jews in Europe.

The legal argument developed soon after the trial opened Tuesday, with Eichmann's chief counsel, Dr. Robert Servatius of West Germany, contending that Israel has no right to try Eichmann, that the 1950 law under which he is charged cannot apply because it was promulgated after the alleged offenses and that Eichmann was only a tool of his Nazi masters.

Israeli Attorney General Gideon Hausner has spent more than three trial sessions in argument against Servatius' contentions. He told the court he would need another hour tomorrow to sum up.

West German Chief Happy With Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer was reported well pleased today by his foreign policy talks with President Kennedy. He apparently was reassured as to U. S. firmness under the new Kennedy administration in dealings with the Soviet Union.

The two men wind up their conference with two meetings today. Adenauer was scheduled to call on Kennedy for a 90-minute session this morning, followed by a final 30-minute meeting at the White House in late afternoon. Berlin was scheduled as a principal topic for this session.

On Sunday, the German leader, 85, will fly to Austin, Tex. He will be a guest over Sunday night at Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's ranch. He is scheduled to address the Texas Legislature at Austin Monday before departing on his return flight to Germany.

Adenauer obtained new assurances on U. S. policy with respect to West Berlin in the course of a meeting with Secretary Dean Rusk at the State Department.

Kennedy Seeks Enlarged Federal Power Commission

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy asked Congress today to enlarge the Federal Power Commission as a step to reducing its backlog of cases and clearing projects which would put more persons to work.

The President's request to increase the commission from five to seven members was in a special message on the federal regulatory agencies. He appealed, too, for the exemption of some small individual natural gas producers from rate regulations.

At the end of February, the President reported, the FPC had 193 applications proposing construction of 5,761 miles of natural gas pipeline at a cost of $850 million. This, he said, involved an immense potential for creating new jobs.

"It is not to be assumed that all these applications would be granted," Kennedy said, "but it can safely be assumed that more dollars for construction, giving substantial employment throughout the country and making firm-commitments out of orders for materials that are now merely contingent."

TRAVELER REPORTS

Misplaced Marin County Found In West Pakistan

A misplaced Marin County has been found in West Pakistan by a philosophical dervish from Mill Valley.

Samuel L. Lewis, member of a mystical Moslem fraternity and self-styled goodwill ambassador to various foreign parts, thus identifies the region of Abbottabad, Hazara, in a letter dated April 5:

"Abbottabad is like a misplaced Marin. I have visited Begum Selim Khan here, widow of the first consul-general from Pakistan to San Francisco. Her garden is much like those around Ross, and she has made it deliberately so.

"She has a multitude of iris and daffodils. The hills are a cross between Marin and San Bernardino Counties with the western Himalayas in the background."

Being a dervish paid off for Lewis, he reports: "This country is full of dervishes. They are coming to my aid.

"They are leaders in politics, education and community development despite all the misinformation we swallow."

Of pictures showing Lewis with the wali, or guardian saint, of the tomb of the mystic Shamsi-Tabriz, Lewis writes: "I was welcomed and am the first foreigner to have given them a talk on their own philosophy and teachings. Penalty: They all embraced me."

Lewis says U. S. Army engineers are doing a good job of sanitation and pest control in a place where "the fly, not starvation, space-conquest or communism has been the bane." He believes "there is a movement toward a real Asian type of democracy" and found Begum Khan instilling political consciousness in the women.

Lewis complained of European 'experts' on the Orient who cluster especially in California.

"It is a totally false, untenable policy to employ Europeans for our so-called information about Asia," he writes. "The Asians would like to speak for themselves, or else have Americans deal directly . . .

"By mingling with humanity and learning from them we support the best American propaganda."

Step Taken Toward Aged Care Program

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The legislature has taken the first step toward setting up a $79,500,000 a year program of medical care for low-income California old folks.

The Senate Social Welfare Committee unanimously approved the administration bill yesterday and sent it to the Senate Finance Committee for a screening of the costs.

The committee gave its approval, too, to another bill sponsored by Gov. Edmund G. Brown to approporiate $150,000 in matching funds to establish community centers for the aged.

The medical aid program would provide care for chronically ill persons over 65 who are ineligible for old age assistance. It would benefit an estimated 60,000 in California.

To get it started, the governor has asked for $7,705,000 in his 1961-62 budget to supplement money already available. The federal government would put up $15,208,000 for the first six months, and the counties $3,252,000.

Officials figured full year costs at $39,798,000 federal, $30,069,500 state and $9,728,500 counties.

Originally the bill fixed the counties' share as one-half of the non-federal payments. At the urging of the California County Supervisors Assn., the committee agreed to scale it down to one-third.

Count Against N.Y. Solon Is Dismissed

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal district court today dismissed, at the government's request, the third and last count of an indictment charging Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr., D-N.Y., with income tax fraud.

Two other counts had been dismissed during the Harlem Negro's trial on the three counts last April. A jury had deadlocked on the third count.

The government said it lacked sufficient evidence for a re-trial on the third count—that Powell wilfully filed a false income tax return in behalf of his then wife, Hazel Scott, a pianist, for 1951.

It involved income Miss Scott earned on a foreign tour.

The other two counts dismissed in April by Federal District Judge Frederick van Pelt Bryan charged that Powell evaded $3,063 in taxes on a 1951 return and on the Powells' joint 1952 return.

OLD CLOTHS FOR NEW NOT FAIR EXCHANGE

Is a suit of clothes on the back worth more than some old ones left behind? Or did the new suit look better in the sunlight?

Albert C. McNamara, manager of St. Vincent De Paul store at 816 B Street, San Rafael, didn't think so.

He phoned the police that some man had come into the store and tried on a grey suit of clothes. The man then ran out the front door leaving his old clothes behind.

After McNamara phoned police, he chased the customer down the street.

The man was spotted mooching money from two sailors at Fourth and Cijos Streets.

Police booked John Vartanian, 49, of Mojave and San Francisco on charges of disturbing the peace, petty theft and vagrancy.

County Government Bill Will Get Hearing Tonight

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill to give millions of Californians a bigger voice in running their county governments will start on its way through the Legislature today.

The proposal by Assemblyman Clark L. Bradley (R-San Jose) will be heard tonight by the Assembly Committee on Municipal and County Government.

Bradley's bill would require county supervisors to realign the boundaries of their districts every 10 years, after each federal census, in all but 10 counties.

Those 10 counties include San Francisco and San Mateo which elect their county legislators at large and eight counties with mandatory redistricting already in their charters.

Man Accused Of Shooting Freed On Bail

San Francisco metal dealer William H. Asher, 34, accused of firing five shots at his wife in Sleepy Hollow, got out of Marin County Jail on $2,625 posted by his mother yesterday afternoon.

He appeared in Marin Municipal Court yesterday with attorney Harold J. Truett and got a continuance of the case until Wednesday of next week. Asher is charged with attempting to murder his wife, Doris Helen, 40, with a 30.06 rifle Monday night.

Mrs. Asher told the sheriff's inspectors her estranged husband broke into her home at 100 Hidden Lane and fired at her while she lay reading in bed.

Through his attorney, Asher yesterday asked Judge Leonard A. Thomas that he be released on his own cognizance, or at least have bail reduced.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Charles L. Convis protested vigorously, pointing out that there is a possibility that the defendant may be suffering from schizophrenia. Convis declared the district attorney's office even thought of demanding higher bail, not lower.

The judge left the bail at the original $2,625. A few minutes later, Asher's mother posted the bail.

The lodgepole pine is found in all parts of the West except Arizona and New Mexico.

SCHOOL BOARDS SET MEETING ON MERGER

Novato, San Jose Trustees To Attempt To Iron Out Differences On April 22

Boards of the Novato Unified School District and San Jose district last night agreed to meet together April 22 in an attempt to iron out differences of opinion on unification vs. annexation.

The meeting agreement followed a two-hour session of the Marin County Committee on School District Organization at the Meadow Park School at which both proposals were discussed, also with short consideration of a boundary change.

"We've stuck out foot into it at various times . . ." Mrs. Clinton Ansley of the San Jose board said. It was Mrs. Ansley who at last week's meeting of the county committee put forth the tentative proposal for unification with a seven man board which would require election in trustee districts.

"I never stuck my foot into it so naively before" she continued. "I was under the impression that the two boards at the time were in favor of unification."

She said that board members from San Jose had given the proposal consideration before she moved for it and generally had felt that seven trustees from districts would give better representation to begin a new district than a five-man board elected at large.

Novato trustees at their regular Tuesday meeting generally said they wanted also to study annexation. A written statement presented to the county committee last night from the Novato board officially asked study of all three—unification, annexation and boundary change.

"The Novato Unified School District is already a functional unit, effectively meeting the needs of its people with proven, operational and administratively sound unified (kindergarten through high school) school system. To dissolve this working unit (as under unification of the two districts) may be a disservice to the children and parents of both districts," the statement read in part.

Annexation of the San Jose District would mean the Novato governing board would remain the same; San Jose would just be added to the present Novato district.

Unification would mean an entirely new district and a newly elected board would be formed.

Boundary change would mean only part of the San Jose District would join the Novato district, with the same Novato governing board.

A motion last night that annexation consideration be given equal treatment with the tentative unification proposal was withdrawn by Earl Marshall, a member of the county committee but also on the Novato school board.

Instead, both boards and the committee agreed that both propositions would be thoroughly studied, but the tentative unification proposal would remain.

"These meetings can go on for another two months until we reach a basis on which we can all agree," Marshall said. "I personally prefer annexation."

"Let's just stay where we are and go to work," Alan Swabacker of the San Jose board put in, bringing applause from a sparse audience.

The tentative proposal for unification can be changed at any of the study sessions, committee members noted. The committee may bring only one tentative proposal to a public meeting, to follow these study sessions. Their final recommendation is made following the public meeting, which then would go to a vote of residents.

Trustees of both districts set their joint discussion session, for April 22, tentatively in the morning, at Novato High School. The county committee set its next study session for May 10 at Pacheco School, instead of the previously scheduled April 19.

Points brought out in last night's meeting:

1. Unification would mean a gain of about a quarter of a million dollars over five years for the new district, a state "bonus" to encourage unification. There would be no great difference in bonding or tax rates between unification and annexation.

2. In either annexation or unification, administration contracts would be honored and the new or larger district. teachers would carry tenure to

3. Under annexation, the county committee could recommend two more board members for the Novato district, which under law would mean election in trustee areas.

Three Variance Pleas Denied In Sausalito

The Sausalito Planning Commission voted unanimously last night to deny three variances asked by the Douglas Lange Corp. of Berkeley which would permit them to construct a 49-room hotel on the 800 block of Bridgeway. Planning commissioners said the applicants did not show hardship.

Commissioners, voting against the proposal of the Spanish style hotel to be called Vina del Mar and to contain a bar and restaurant, said the proposal was "premature under present zoning."

Denied was a variance from the required 1,250 square foot minimum per unit. The builders proposed 450 square feet per unit. The commission also denied two variances from offstreet parking requirements—one from the required one and one-half spaces per unit (builders proposed 48 spaces) and another to give the builders relief from any offstreet parking required for a restaurant and a bar.

Heads YWCA Board

The new president of the San Francisco YWCA's board of directors, which governs the YWCA Center at 1010 B Street in San Rafael, is Mrs. Arthur D. Hemphill of San Francisco. She replaces Mrs. Harvey K. Breckenridge, who is moving to New York.

Gasoline Prices Take New Dip In Some Areas

Gasoline prices took another dip, to a low of 22.9 cents per gallon in some parts of Marin.

In most of Southern Marin up to and including San Rafael, "regular" sells for 23.9 cents, but Mill Valley was still holding out at 25.9 cents.

"It looks like a pretty competitive year," commented Bob Harper whose Shell station at Third and Irwin Streets, San Rafael, dropped to 23.9 with premium at 26.9 as of 4 p.m. yesterday. Usually a leader in such drops, Harper said that this time several others were ahead.

Even these prices were as usual cut by a few smaller stations including Wilshire and Regal, but whereas these formerly kept two cents under, they are now making it only a cent—22.9 for regular, 25.9 for high test.

Sausalito was in on the latest move but North and West Marin were not. Quotations were 25.9 and 28.9 in Novato, Bolinas, Stinson Beach and Point Reyes Station.

San Rafael dealers said this move to an exceptionally low price level makes them competitive with San Francisco prices.

COAL COLORED, BUT SOOT'S STILL BLACK

LONDON (AP)—The British housewife soon will be able to buy colored coal to match her living room curtains.

Coal comes into most British living rooms to be burned in those cheerful fireplaces, and black becomes so monotonous.

National Coal Board technicians have perfected a process to dye artistically shaped lumps of coal gold, silver, red, purple and green.

Window and container glass account for nearly 75 per cent of the 8 million tons of glass produced annually in the United States.

Bolinas, Stinson Seek U.S. In Lieu Payments

Trustees of the Bolinas Beach and Stinson Beach school districts, meeting jointly last night, adopted a resolution to ask the federal government for in lieu payments for possible tax loss on land should the Point Reyes National Seashore become a reality.

Arthur E. Carpenter, clerk of the Bolinas board said, the districts may lose approximately $2,000 in next year's tax rolls of the land goes into federal jurisdiction.

Discussing the tax rate increase election to be held Tuesday to set the tax rate at $1.20 per $100 assessed valuation, board members said they wished to make it clear that the increase has nothing to do with the proposed acquisition of new school sites.

Six elementary school sites plus a high school were proposed by the county planning staff March 8 in connection with the master plan being prepared by the county.

Richard A. Miller, principal of Bolinas School, reported that several persons had spoken to him with concern, asking if the tax increase was for school site acquisition.

The budget for 1961-62 was discussed but no action taken.

Brown Asked To Spare Life Of Killer

SAN QUENTIN (AP) — Alexander Robillard's attorney, Carl Shapiro plans to plead with Gov. Edmund G. Brown today to spare his client's life.

Robillard, 20, of Redding, is scheduled to die in San Quentin's gas chamber April 26 for the 1959 killing of Hillsborough policeman, Gene Doran. Doran was shot six times after he stopped Robillard for question.

He said: "I don't want to die any more than you do. But I'm prepared to go. The state would be much more justified in killing me than those other guys up there on Death Row because I had a better chance in life.

"A few days ago I wrote the governor a short note. I just told him I was very sorry and I asked him to commute my sentence. I never expected any mercy, so if I get it I'll be grateful."

Boasting about your home, Higgins? Well, that's understandable. Most men who have worked hard through the years to buy good homes for their families are proud of them.

Nice as your home is, its location in a progressive community, with all the public facilities needed for modern living, adds greatly to its attractiveness.

Someday—perhaps years from now—you may sell your home. When you do, the good schools, well-equipped fire department, modern hospitals, ample supply of pure water and other community assets can make a difference of several thousand dollars cash in your pocket.

Of course, you share the cost of these community assets. But the cost is spread over a long period of time to keep taxes at a reasonable rate. This is done by sale of municipal bonds on a competitive bid basis.

The Bank of America and its associated investment dealers bid on virtually all municipal bonds issued in the State. That's because we have confidence in the future of California and communities like yours.

Being right there on the scene, you know the business, industry and people in your community as well as anybody does. You've watched it grow and improve as the years went by. You've helped by voting for needed bond issues.

But have you ever thought of buying the municipal bonds issued in your area? They're available in denomination of $1,000. Municipal bonds pay you a good return and the income you get is tax free. The manager of your local branch of the Bank of America will be glad to give you full information—or you may write to

Three students from Santa Rosa Junior College, caught with beer in their possession in San Rafael, were released from jail yesterday, two on $21 bail each and the third without charge.

Paul Edward Carneggie, 18, of Pepperwood (Humboldt County) was charged with beer possession and resisting arrest. Sheriff's deputies said he tried to bolt from the booking desk after his arrest Tuesday night.

James Florian Franke Jr., 18, of Arcata was charged with beer possession and drunkenness. The third youth, Mardell Remus Oman, 18, of Fortuna, was dismissed without charge.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas gave the youths a stern lecture. He set $21 bail each for Carneggie and Franke and advised them they could forfeit the bail if they behave themselves.

'Outer Space Traveler' Charged With Theft

Reinhold O. Schmidt, Nebraska grain buyer who amazed and amused a San Rafael audience a year ago with his account of trips in a Saturnian space trip, was arrested in Bakersfield yesterday on charges he mined $5,000 from an Oakland woman for a couple of phony holes in the ground.

Inspector Lester King of Oakland police said Schmidt told the woman $3,000 was for a gold mine in Alaska to which he had been taken by his flying visitors from Venus. The other $2,000, King said, was purportedly for a mine bearing "pre-energizing crystal" for health purposes. He was charged with two counts of grand theft.

The Alaskan gold mine figured slightly in the talk Schmidt gave at the San Rafael Improvement Club on March 10, 1960, as the first speaker sponsored by Understanding Unit 31.

The visitors from Saturn took him there in their space ship, he said, on the same trip on which they showed him Russian under-ice submarine bases in the Arctic. On a subsequent trip, he saw the sub bases had been blasted by the U.S. Navy, he said.

On his San Rafael visit, Schmidt made no financial touches beyond selling some paper-bound books describing his adventures with his interplanetary buddies.

Subsequently, it was disclosed today by Mrs. Mary L. McAlpine of Fairfax, president of Understanding Unit 31, he fell out of favor with Understanding — which is "for the better understanding of people of this earth and not of this earth."

Inquiries disclosed that some of his "witnesses" disclaimed the testimonials Schmidt credited to them, she said. Schmidt is now "out" with the outer space people.

Would-Be Thief Frightened Away

A teen-age girl, dressed in a man's white shirt and slacks, was almost caught in the act of breaking into a home in Bayside Acres outside of San Rafael Tuesday noon.

Mrs. Evelyn C. Poiesz, of 90 Bayview Avenue told sheriff's deputies she was asleep in the rear bedroom when she heard the dog bark. She went to the front room and saw an arm reaching through the draperty which hung over the front window.

"Who is it?" yelled Mrs. Poiesz.

The arm quickly vanished.

Mrs. Poiesz ran out in time to see the person, believed to be a girl, disappear down the hill.

TRANQUIL REFLECTION — This scene in one of France's many riverbank towns reflects the tranquil beauty that still exists there today. It is from "Provincial France," color motion picture to be shown and narrated by Ed Lark at the Fairfax Theater Monday night to benefit the Junior Museum of Marin.

'World Film' To Show Life Of Frenchmen

"Provincial France," the last showing of this season's "The World Around Us" film series sponsored by the Junior Museum of Marin, will be shown at 8 p.m. Monday at the Fairfax Theater

Personally narrated by Ed Lark, a young film lecturer and world traveller, the color film covers in detail the picturesque and colorful French provinces and touches briefly on Paris and the Riviera.

Particular attention is paid by Lark to such points of tourist interest as the French Alps, the unusual cathedrals, palaces and chateaux, and the world-renowned French festivals and sporting events.

Lark, a graduate of University of California in engineering, whose interest in people, places, and photography led him into a full-time career as a film lecturer, has received nationwide praise for his work.

Tickets to "Provincial France" may be purchased at the Junior Museum of Marin, 76 Albert Park Lane, San Rafael, or at the Fairfax Theater on the night of the showing. Proceeds from the film will benefit the Junior Museum.

Aide Breaks With Castro

HAVANA (UPI) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro's top executive assistant and private secretary, Juan Orta, has broken with the Cuban leader and taken asylum in a Latin American embassy, reliable sources said today.

Orta was personally responsible for the imprisonment of many persons suspected of "dubious" loyalty to Castro. He was the head of the prime minister's office on the 18th floor of the agrarian reform building.

Informants said the reason for Orta's break was his opposition to placing Cuba in the Soviet bloc. Other sources said that he had always supported Castro's foreign policies fully up to now.

President Rules Out Intervention In Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy has ruled out any direct intervention in Cuba by U.S. forces.

Kennedy outlined the U.S. stand at his news conference yesterday in a statement which was as interesting for what he did not say as for what he did.

Kennedy said "There will not under any conditions, be an intervention in Cuba by the U.S. armed forces."

The American government, he added, will do everything it can to make sure no Americans get involved "in any action inside Cuba."

"The basic issue in Cuba is not one between the United States and Cuba," the President said. "It is between the Cubans themselves. I intend to see that we adhere to that principle."

Kennedy added that it was his understanding that the administration's attitudes was understood and shared by anti-Castro exiles from Cuba now in the United States.

The State Department has been mum on a variety of reports that Cubans were being trained in southern U.S. states and in Guatemala, with U.S. aid, for fighting in Cuba against the pro-Communist regime of Fidel Castro.

Kennedy also said the United States is against Cubans who wish to overthrow Castro only to reestablish a dictatorship like that of Castro's predecessor, Fulgencio Batista.

Asked about any effort to recover the approximately $1 billion dollars worth of American property seized in Cuba, Kennedy said Washington would only act through "formal and normal negotiations" with a free and independent Havana government after it comes to power.

The President side-stepped a direct answer as to whether he thinks Castro is a Communist. But he pictured the bearded prime minister as acting like a Red if he is not actually carrying a party card.

Two In Marin Get U. S. Scholarships

Two Marin County men have been awarded federal fellowships to aid them in their graduate study, Rep. Clement W. Miller (D—Corte Madera) announced today.

John F. Wilkinson of 93 Cazneau Avenue, Sausalito, a graduate of California Institute of Technology, will receive a National Science Foundation fellowship for graduate work in mathematics at the institute.

Michael J. McCaskey of 118 Palm Avenue, San Rafael, will receive a National Defense Education Act foreign language graduate fellowship. He will study Chinese at Stanford University.

Laos Fetes New Year With Water Fights

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI)—Laotian soldiers took time out from war today to celebrate the Laotian new year by dousing pretty girls with water.

Some royal army troops put aside their rifles and took up water-pistols to join civilians in the happy-go-lucky celebrants which will last through Sunday.

No one appeared concerned about the struggle between the pro-Western government troops and the Communist-led rebel forces which might decide the fate of this tiny southeast Asian kingdom.

(Communist North Viet Nam's national assembly yesterday opened a one-week meeting in Hanoi. Western observers said it might pave the way for increased intervention in both Laos and South Viet Nam. Viet Minh troops have been reported operating with the pro-Communist rebels in Laos. Communist Viet Cong guerrillas recently stepped up activities in South Viet Nam.)

No one seemed to know—or care—that Soviet Russia had put the first man into space.

The streets of Vientiane were jammed with joyous citizens and soldiers, happily dousing each other with water. All work has been forbidden by the government and most of the officials had gone to Luang Probang to join King Savang Vathana for the celebrations.

A guard at the army hospital exchanged his rifle for a water-filled squirt-gun. Soldiers set up a fire extinguisher gantlet along the road to the airport. An army truck loaded with 50-gallon drums cruised through the streets while soldiers hurled buckets of water at the crowds milling on the sidewalks.

The friendly drenching were accompanied by the Laotian holiday greeting: "Live wet, eat and drink cool."

The celebrations began yesterday which was "children's" day—a postwar Laotian Christmas-type holiday in which youngsters receive gifts. Today marked the beginning of the three-day traditional "water festival" marking the end of the old year, a "neutral" day and the beginning of the new year. Sunday was tacked on because it usually is a holiday anyway.

JFK To Fly To Carrier

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy will go aboard the aircraft carrier Independence for naval maneuvers April 22-23 off the east coast of Florida, the White House announced today.

The president plans to fly from Washington to the big carrier's berth at Mayport, Fla., the morning of April 22. He will spend the night aboard the Independence and return to Mayport the next day.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said the President may travel from the carrier back to Mayport by helicopter.

U.S. Looking Forward To Cease-Fire

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is looking forward to an agreement this week from the Soviet Union to a cease-fire in Laos.

President John F. Kennedy set the expected time for the Soviet reply at his news conference yesterday. He expressed hope the reply would enable both East-West leaders to halt their supply of arms to the opposing forces in Laos.

Kennedy did not say what would happen if there were no response from Moscow. But he left a clear implication that American supplies would be continued to the royal government.

The State Department already has warned that any further delay in Soviet agreement to a cease-fire would be cause for very serious concern in Washington.

The United States has insisted that the shooting be stopped before it sends any delegation to a 14-nation conference to settle the Laotian crisis.

Kennedy avoided any threats or bluster.

Montezuma, Kan., is named for the next to the last chief of the Aztecs of Mexico.

U.S. Admiral Ordered To Tone Down Speech

WASHINGTON (AP) — Remarks that questioned the usefulness of negotiations with the Soviet Union have been cut from a U.S. admiral's speech.

Rear Adm. Samuel B. Frankel, deputy director of naval intelligence, said the chances in his address had been ordered by the Defense Department. There was evidence the White House had a hand in it, too.

Frankel was to deliver the speech today before the Houston, Tex., Navy League.

Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense for public affairs, confirmed he had read an advance copy of Frankel's speech and found parts of it "unacceptable."

He read it, he said, at the request of Rear Adm. Daniel Smith Jr., Navy chief of information and a representative of the Navy's security and review branch.

Sylvester said he had been asked to review the address in light of recent directives that military officials refrain from discussing publicly foreign policy matters.

What he found objectionable, Sylvester said, were portions of the speech suggesting that "anyone who thought he could negotiate with the Russians was deluded, was obviously mistaken, was being taken in."

BLESSED WITH BROTHERS

Not too many little girls can claim 13 big brothers —but that's the life of Barbara Anne Harrison of Junction City, Tenn. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Harrison, had 13 children — all boys — before Barbara Anne was born. Here the little girl is surrounded by 10 of her brothers. (AP Wirephoto)

Daughter Tells How Cooley Stomped Wife

BAKERSFIELD (AP) — Melody Cooley, 14, told a coroner's jury today of a night of terror in her ranch home when she watched her father, Spade Cooley, stomp her mother's unconscious form and then burn her with a cigarette.

The soft-voiced, trembling school girl could hardly be heard in the inquest room where a jury of nine men was convened to determine the cause of death of Ella Mae Cooley, 37, last April 3.

While his red-haired daughter testified, Cooley, 50, former western band leader, sat in a wheelchair at the counsel table.

He kept his eyes closed during most of her testimony but at some of the most terrifying parts he grimaced.

Cooley appeared at the inquest although he had been suffering with a recurrent heart ailment.

He is charged with murder.

Melody said she was called to her home from a neighbor's about 6 o'clock on the fatal night and upon arriving was met by her father.

"He opened the shower door and told my mother, 'Melody's here, get up,'" the girl said.

"She wouldn't get out of the shower," Melody continued, "so he dragged her out by the hair. She didn't have any clothes on.

"He dragged her out on the floor and banged her head against the floor twice.

"She wouldn't get up. He gave me three minutes to get her off the floor—he said he was going to kill her."

Space Test

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)— Two Air Force jet pilots walked out of a eight-by-12-foot simulated space cabin today after spending a month living in conditions a man in space would encounter.

Capt. Ramon A. Horinek, 28, of Atwood, Kan., and First Lt. Gene Carlson, 27, of Fargo, N. D., became the second pair of Air Force pilots to stay in the steel chamber a month.

Their wives met them and they were shown pictures of the world's first real spaceman, Yuri Gagarin of the Soviet Union.

Solons Vote Yountville Home Probe

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly today unanimously authorized its Rules Committee to investigate the proposed conversion of the California Veterans Home at Yountville into a rehabilitation facility.

After the 70-0 vote, Chairman Augustus Hawkins (D-Los Angeles) said the committee will begin the probe this weekend.

Assemblyman Robert M. Leggett (D-Vallejo) who proposed the investigation, charged there were plans to destroy the Napa Valley institution.

He cited a State Finance Department report recommending the home be turned over to the U.S. Veterans Administration.

The investigating committee, he said should look into this and also hold hearings on the conversion of the home from a quasi-military operation into a rehabilitative center.

The Great Seal of the State of California was adopted by the Constitutional Convention on Sept. 29, 1849 and, after many slight variations, was was standardized in 1937.

Russ Hurl Charge At Geneva Talks

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet Union accused the United States today of seeking to perfect methods of violating the proposed nuclear test ban treaty.

Soviet Delegate Seymon K. Tsarapkin raised the charge at today's 289th session of the dead-locked three-power nuclear test ban conference.

He told Arthur H. Dean of the United States, and Britain's Sir Michael Wright, the Soviet Union will never agree to "muffled" underground research explosions proposed by the West in a joint research program for better detection of underground blasts.

Tsarapkin had expressed "agreement in principle" on the Western proposal last week.

Today, Tsarapkin told the Western delegates the Soviet government agreed to the proposed research program only because of American insistence and to "save the conference."

"Now we find the United States does not want this program to improve detection methods, but to improve ways of avoiding detection, and perfecting methods of violating a treaty," he said.

"To this the Soviet Union can not agree."

MACY'S SAN RAFAEL, FOURTH AND COURT

FIRST SCOOP—San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis officially set in motion the construction of the new toll building and equipment center for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in groundbreaking ceremonies at Shaver Street near Fourth Street, San Rafael, this morning. The building will cost approximately $2,600,000 including equipment and is expected to be completed early next year. (Independent-Journal photo)

Ground Broken For Telephone Building

Construction started today on a new two and a half million dollar telephone exchange building in San Rafael.

The new structure will rise on property adjoining E Street School grounds. It will face Shaver Street, opposite the East end of Latham, between Fourth and Second Streets.

The building will house long distance dialing equipment enabling more areas of Marin County to dial distant cities throughout the U.S.A. and Canada. It will also provide increased direct dialing lines from Marin to many frequently-dialed cities, said Douglas R. Horton of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis and Chairman William D. Fusselman of the county board of supervisors were among two dozen Marin civic leaders who participated in ground breaking ceremonies this morning.

Total cost of new building and property will come to 2.4 million dollars, according to Joseph E. Madrigali, P.T. & T. manager for San Rafael.

Cost of equipment both in the new building and elsewhere in Marin to complete the project will run the combined costs of the project to three million dollars or more, Horton explained.

The actual groundbreaking ceremonies at the site were preceded by a breakfast for participants, held at Woodlands restaurant at Kentfield.

The building will be completed early next year, and the new equipment is expected to be in operation by the end of the year.

Restricted Bill On Operations Goes In Hopper

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The California Legislature got a bill yesterday to legalize abortions under strictly regulated conditions.

Introduced by Assemblyman John T. Knox (D.-Richmond), the bill would permit therapeutic abortions performed by doctors in licensed hospitals when medically advisable or when the pregnancy resulted from rape or incest.

Knox said the bill would simply legalize existing practices by most reputable physicians and hospitals.

He said a Stanford University survey showed that 75 per cent of California's reputable hospitals freely admitted violating the abortion law.

Under terms of the bill, abortions could be performed only upon approval of a therapeutic abortion committee set up by a licensed hospital. The committee would include five physicians, two of whom are to be obstetricians, one an internist and on a psychiatrist.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed mixed today after recovering from an early decline.

Final dealings were heavy. The ticker tape was late.

Steels were ahead, Jones & Laughlin gaining a point or so, while other leaders in this group gained fractions.

Most groups were scrambled and there were some wide moves either way.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.5 million shares compared with 4.87 million Wednesday.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point prevailed among most key stocks.

Some of the speculative favorites or higher-priced issues advanced several points.

Another case of window breaking was reported to San Rafael police yesterday.

Angola Massacre

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Waves of Negroes with scarlet-painted faces attacked the Ucua district of northern Angola Tuesday, killing at least 13 of the 20 European inhabitants, the Portuguese Lusitania news agency reported today.

The attack was discovered by a low-flying military plane that sighted bodies and burned houses yesterday.

Marin Man's Fiancee Hurt In Car Crash

Martha Langdon of Sacramento, on her way to Marin to meet with her fiance to obtain a marriage license, was involved in an auto crash yesterday which sent her to the hospital with a broken arm.

Miss Langdon had planned to marry Independent-Journal reporter Ralph Chatoian Sunday in Sacramento, but her doctor said she would have to remain in the hospital in traction for about three or four weeks. He described the fracture to her right arm as "very severe."

The pair have canceled all wedding plans and have not set a new date yet.

The accident occured when a Sacramento youth apparently drove his car through a stop-sign on one of Sacramento's main streets and collided with the vehicle driven by Miss Langdon. He was cited by Sacramento police for failure to stop at a stop-sign.

Mrs. W. M. Langdon, mother of the Sacramento girl and passenger in the auto, was treated in the Sacramento hospital for bruised ribs and sent home.

Mill Valley, State Officials To Iron Out Channel Problem

Mill Valley city officials will meet Monday in Berkeley with the State Small Craft Harbors Commission to present further details regarding the city's plan to dredge a 40-foot wide "pilot channel" in the Saucelito Canal for a small craft harbor.

The channel must be dredged prior to the city's qualifying for a $300,000 loan.

This was reported last night at a special meeting on the harbor held by the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce. An audience of 25 was told the city plans to put up $25,000 toward the dredging with $25,000 more to be furnished in an arrangement between property owner George Leo Zaro of Greenbrae and the Associated Dredging Co. of Sausalito. The latter company is to do the dredging.

City Manager A. E. Almcrants said the commission has informed Mill Valley that it will accept the city's proposal Monday but will review details later and take the matter up again at its meeting in May at Ventura.

City Engineer Stanley M. Bala is yet to finish working out details for the harbor regarding maintenance and marking of the channel. The data will be presented at the Berkeley meeting, which opens at 10 a.m. in the city hall council chambers.

William D. Fusselman, chairman of the county board of supervisors urged last night that "we get going on the channel right now—even at a 40-foot width, and pick up the pieces later."

Opposing the project was B. R. Wilkie, representing San Rafael Yacht Sales, who said the project is not feasible since "we will be faced with tax subsidies."

Fusselman told Wilkie that "no city or county can obligate future funds without a vote of the people. The present proposal is legal as the loan is to be repaid from yacht harbor revenues. If something did go wrong, Sacramento might have to carry the loan a little longer."

She Kicks Out Glass Door, Then Scraps With Deputies

What started out with a woman kicking out a door glass early this morning at Sabella's Restaurant at 633 Redwood Highway, near Mill Valley, ended up with her attacking two Marin County deputy sheriffs.

It started at 1:45 a.m. today when Angelo Sabella phoned the sheriff's office stating that a woman had just kicked out a pane of glass in the door.

Deputies Boyd Burnham and Dennis Shine responded to the call. Sabella told the deputies that he thought the woman should pay for the glass because she had done it on purpose.

Mrs. Patricia M. Jackson, 35, of 61 Linden Lane, Mill Valley, was questioned by the deputies about breaking the glass.

Suddenly she jumped up and started beating Deputy Burnham on the head with her fists, the sheriff's office reported. Deputy Shine pulled her off Burnham and she hit him on the side of the head, splitting his ear lobe.

Mrs. Jackson was booked into the county jail on charges of drunk, disturbing the peace, assault and battery, with bail set at $367.50.

Deputy Shine received four stitches to close the wound on his right ear lobe, at Marin General Hospital.

He is an architect with the San Francisco firm of Gardener A. Dailey, Faia and Associates, architects.

Gagarin said the sunlit side of the earth was quite plain and he could see easily the shores of continents, islands, great rivers, folds of the terrain, large bodies of water, Tass said.

Flying over the Soviet Union, he reported he could see the great squares of the collective farms and could even tell cultivated from meadow land.

The hero of the Soviet Union has been promised a tremendous reception by Khrushchev.

"We shall celebrate with you with all our people, this great feat in the conquest of outer space," the premier told Gagarin by telephone.

FAIR

from the start had seemed to have the best chance—that the state hold its annual allocation of around $100,000 for Marin, even though the money not be spent. Supervisor William Gnoss, supporting Castro in the meeting, has repeatedly warned that the state has a habit of snatching back any money unspent.

But the Marin group stressed that it doesn't pay to construct a little of such an elaborate undertaking each year over a five-year period, and Carr agreed. He wound up by giving strong assurance that the accumulation plan will be allowed.

It is believed that the actual wait need be only a matter of two or at most three years before construction can be started, for some sort of local funding may be arranged. In any case, it will take a while, but Marin wants to do it all in one job however that may be arranged.

Administrator Alan Bruce is expected to write up results of the meeting and its compromise outcome for presentation to the board with other communications after 2 p.m. Monday.

Others who made the trip included assistant auditor-controller Michael Mitchell, public works director Marvin W. Brigham, planning director Mary summers, civic center architect Aaron Green and Marcelle McCoy, who manages the fair at its present location in the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross.

School Board Hopefuls Talk At Larkspur

Nine candidates for four posts on the Larkspur-Corte Madera School District board spoke before a packed audience of about 140 persons last night at Larkspur School.

The program was sponsored by Larkspur Parent-Teachers Assn., with president Ruth Stephenson presiding.

The incumbents are Bob Cunningham, Jack Mengle, Mrs. Poly Secor, and John Boyd. Seeking to oust them are Curtis Camai, Charles Pendleton, Don DeVoto, Donald Fox, and Herbert Baum. The election is April 18.

The only carryover member of the board who is not up for re-election is Chairman Tavey Taylor.

an election so long as there is standing indebtedness, would prohibit an election so long as there is outstanding indebtedness would block such an election in the Golden Gate Bridge district at least until 1971, when the bonds will be paid off. Possibly it would be longer because of an additional $5,000,000 which the bridge borrowed from the state to help pay the cost of widening the Waldo Grade.

The bill Belotti said he would introduce tomorrow does not affect the Golden Gate Bridge directly. All other bridges in the Bay Area are in the state highway system; the Golden Gate Bridge is not. Thus the other bridges are maintained and insured from gas tax funds as are other portions of the state highways. The San Rafael-Richmond Bridge, which was put under state maintenance only a few years ago, and the only bridge in direct competition with the Golden Gate Bridge, would be adversely affected by the proposed law.

Matt A. Graham of San Rafael, president of the bridge district, said he personally supports all three of Belotti's bills. He said he did not know if the bridge's legislative committee had given their approval. Legislative chairman Charles W. Reinking of Santa Rosa, was not available for comment.

Mississippi Lawyer Asks For Understanding Of The South

James G. Barnett, a Mississippi lawyer with an accent to match, told College of Marin students yesterday that segregation in his home state is not a government problem.

"It is a social, voluntary problem of shared relationships," he explained.

Barnett, 36, city attorney of Clinton, Miss., spoke to the students at the noon assembly in Olney Hall on "Toward a Better Understanding of the South." He is also a member of the Clinton school board and advisor to his cousin, Mississippi's Governor Ross Barnett.

The lean attorney, who said his firm represents "only individuals, not corporations," said the state he loves is "on its way back" from the depths to which it sunk during the reconstruction period following the Civil War.

"It's true we have been dragging our feet," he said. "But the shoes we have been dragging had holes in them." Northern industry, he noted, is now moving to take advantage of the state's natural resources.

Segregation, he admitted, is in force in "social areas," including schools, restaurants, theaters, hotels, motels, swimming pools, waiting rooms, rest rooms and street cars, to name a few.

"But there is no segregation in business," he said. "We all shop side by side."

Conceding that the South is a broad subject to cover in a brief talk, Barnett reviewed Mississippi's history from 1817 when it became a state, through the early years when cotton was king, the shock of the Civil War and the tragedy of the reconstruction.

"It did not end without deep and painful wounds which were a long time healing, the scars of which can still be seen," he said.

"But I hope you notice that we speak of these things without bitterness," he said.

"I am not here to recruit southerns. We only want you to understand our local governments needs," he said. "It is not true that we consider states' rights another name for segregation."

Mississippi now has a 100 million dollar school building program under way, he said, 70 per cent of which is going into Negro schools. "We are proud of the interest our Negroes are taking in education."

As examples of his own relationship with Negroes, Barnett said it was common practice for him to "talk about law and current events" with Negro attorneys in the corridors of the Clinton courthouse. "And I practice in the same courtroom with them," he stated.

He also recalled an old family friend—a A Negro schoolteacher named Lizzie—who embraces him and calls him "her boy" each time they meet.

His state is worthy of the "love and allegiance" he gives her, he said, citing the fact that Mississippi has given the nation countless patriots, top flight football teams and two Miss Americas.

"And we believe in God," he declared, noting that Mississippi boasts a church for every 287 people "with more building."

Opening his speech with the promise that he would "try and use as much of the English language as possible," Barnett closed with traditional hospitality by offering a blanket invitation to the entire assembly: "You all come to Mississippi and see for yourselves."

"You don't need a passport to get in," he promised.

Tulane Adopts Policy Of No Racial Barriers

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Tulane University yesterday voted to "admit qualified students regardless of race or color if it were legally permissible."

The decision was made by the university's educational find which makes policy for the 127-year-old institution.

Fund president Joseph M. Jones said the move was "taken in the knowledge that Tulane must move ahead and assume its rightful place of leadership among America's outstanding universities."

Founded as a medical school in 1834, the school received lucrative real estate holdings —and its name—from Paul Tulane in 1882. A term of the endowment was that the income be used for education among young white persons."

The state legislature two years later directed the administrators to develop the university under the terms of the Paul Tulane donations. Tulane has since come under absolute private control.

In 1886, substantial financing was contributed by Mrs. Josephine Newcomb for an exclusive school now called Newcomb College, an adjunct of Tulane, "for the higher education of white girls and women."

Tulane for years has accepted non-Caucasian students. Gift conditions also singled out "Christian" as a registration qualification, but Tulane readily accepted non-Christians.

Tulane's broad statement is the first of its kind in Louisiana by any previously all-white college. Other predominantly white colleges in the state have some Negro students, however.

Louisiana State University admits qualified Negroes at the graduate level in Baton Rouge and its branch here. Loyola, a Catholic university here, had admitted a few Negro students for several years, mostly to its law school.

Electronic Experts Hurt In Road Crash

Two electronics experts were hurt yesterday when their federal government station wagon hit a hole and overturned on a private road up Mount Tamalpais.

Loel Forrest Leabo of San Francisco, technician for the Federal Aviation Agency, had been on an inspection trip with James Michael McNerney of 2102 Fourth Street, San Rafael. They entered dirt-surfaced Crown Road on Marin Municipal Water District property.

Leago said there was a hole four feet deep and three feet across in the road center and that he failed to see it until nearly at its edge, as it was unmarked. The car's right rear wheel caught in the hole, throwing the vehicle against the left bank after which it capsized.

San Rafael General Hospital treated Leabo for a head cut and McNerney for a bruised right thigh.

State Mental Hygiene Aide To Give Talk

Dr. Eli M. Bower, deputy director of the California Department of Mental Hygiene, will give a free public talk on "Problem Children — the Challenge to Parents and Community" at 8 p.m. next Thursday in the auditorium of San Rafael Military Academy, Fifth and Cottage Avenues, San Rafael.

The meeting is sponsored as a public service by Sunny Hills, which provides residential care for disturbed children. E. T. Hermann, chairman of the board, said it was motivated by desire to improve parental and community understanding of and help for children.

Dr. Bower has just completed a three-year research study on emotionally disturbed children in public schools. Results will soon be published. He is author of several books and articles on primary prevention of emotional disorders.

His background includes years of work with children, first as teacher and counselor, then as consulting psychologist, consultant in mental hygiene and research coordinator for emotionally disturbed children.

Last year he was technical consultant to the White House Conference on Children and Youth. He was instrumental in writing Senate Bill 616, now in the legislature, calling for local school districts to provide special classes for emotionally disturbed youngsters.

Motor License Fund: $705,000

Marin County and its incorporated cities were $705,124 richer today with the apportionment of motor vehicle license fees.

State Controller Alan Cranston said approximately half of the money distributed statewide was given the counties and half to the cities. It is an advance distribution of 75 per cent of the estimated total of motor vehicle license fees which the state will collect during the six-month period ending May 31.

Marin County received $384,988.

Belvedere received $7,827; Corte Madera, $21,726; Fairfax, $21,183; Larkspur, $20,808; Mill Valley, $37,938; Novato, $65,160; Ross, $9,296; San Anselmo, $42,213; San Rafael, $74,558, and Sausalito, $19,427.

Burner Co. Property Bid Rejected

A top bid of $362,500 yesterday for real estate holdings of H. C. Little Burner Co., at 76 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, was rejected by the owners within one-half hour from the time it was made.

Th property, comprising five acres of land, nine buildings covering approximately 65,000 square feet and spur track facilities, was put up for bid by auctioneers Max Rouse and Sons of Beverly Hills at 1 p.m., during the course of auctioning off the stock and equipment.

First bid of $200,000 for the property was jumped in successive raises of $25,000 each to $300,000, where the bidding slowed down to $12,500 increases and came to a halt at $362,500. The entire time of the bidding occupied no more than 10 or 12 minutes.

William J. Watt of Adams and Watt Realtors, agents for the property, said the offer was immediately turned down. He declined to state the name of the bidder and said the property would continue to be listed on the market.

The property heretofore has been listed at $550,000. A real estate appraisal for the land and buildings at their best usage had been set at $604,000.

Teachers Re-Hired

Acting chairman David D. Ring today announced that all 34 of the teachers considered for re-employment at Tuesday night's executive session of Reed Union School District trustees have been re-employed.

Eleven of the teachers have tenure, he said.

Principal Appointed For Timoteo School

Mrs. Wilma Ingwersen of Terra Linda was appointed last night by unanimous vote of the Dixie School District trustees to be principal of the new Don Timoteo School expected to open next fall on Trellis Drive in Terra Linda. Her starting salary will be $7,838 annually.

Bids for construction of the school will be opened April 26.

Mrs. Ingwersen is a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles who received her master's degree and administration credential at San Francisco State College.

She came to the district in January of 1955, initially teaching a combination of grades in the Community Building in Terra Linda. For the past three years she has served as teaching vice principal of the Bernard Hoffman School.

The board also authorized Supt. Dennie B. Willis to contract with 11 teachers, who are:

Antoinette Blair of San Francisco, for third grade at Santa Margarita School; Mrs. Martha Neil Smith of Orick, Humboldt County, for Vallecito or Don Timoteo School; Betty Jo Charlton of Oakland, for Vallecito School; Mrs. Josephine Hoffmire of Novato, kindergarten at Lucas Valley School; Mary Lash of St. Paul, Minn., fifth grade in Silveira or Don Timoteo School; Sarah Laverty of La Canada, Los Angeles County, probably second grade at Lucas Valley School; Marilyn Ryan of Grass Valley, Nevada County, probably sixth grade at Hoffman School; Gay Ann Renger of Santa Clara County, kindergarten of Mary E. Silveira School; Mrs. Elizabeth Meszaros of North Sacramento, first grade Hoffman School; Vickie Della Santa of Fairfield, Solano County, second grade Hoffman or Don Timoteo School; Mrs. Nina Bloom of Terra Linda, first grade Don Timoteo School.

Resignations were accepted from the following teachers: Mrs. Billie Lou Blytmann, Mrs. Betty Johnson, Mrs. Constance Kelly, Irene Da San Martino, and Leslie Oswald.

Willis was directed to explore possibilities and costs of participation in the University of California internship program relating to administration.

Payment of $300 to landscape architect Henry Cole was authorized for site development of the Don Timoteo School.

The board reviewed with Edward Anderson of the Marinwood Boys Club a proposal for the club to change the playground of the Silveira School for Little League use and authorized the superintendent to prepare an agreement for these changes.

Willis reported that registration of new kindergarten pupils last fall did not come up to estimates with only 310 registrations by April 1. If this remains unchanged by June, he will recommend staff reduction by one, he said.

Announcement was made of a Vallecito School dedication program at 2 p.m. April 23 and of a talk at 8 p.m. tonight by James Dent, district superintendent of Mount Diablo Unified School District, under auspices of the Dixie Teachers Assn. at the Bernard Hoffman multi-use room.

Summer school registration is now 789, it was reported by director Raymond Riley, who said it will not be possible to house all Terra Linda pupils in the Hoffman School so two or more self-contained primary classes may have to be established at Santa Margarita.

The banana originated somewhere in southeast Asia.

One Bid Given For Post Office

Purity Stores of Burlingame was the lone bidder to submit a price for the construction of a post office in Terra Linda, Warren Williams, San Rafael postmaster, announced today.

The bid included the facilities, space and service for money orders, certified, registry, parcel post and the sale of postal supplies. The exact location of the non-delivery post office branch has not been announced.

Williams said the amount of the bid cannot be announced until it has been judged by the U.S. Post Office regional office in San Francisco.

Mill Valley Woman, 83, Still An Active Person

By JANE ARNOLD

Mrs. Anna B. Martino of Mill Valley is 83 years old and teaches an all-day class in tailoring at College of Marin on Mondays and a half-day class on Thursdays.

When Mrs. Martino was asked for an interview about her active career at age 83, she felt that a story now was premature and should be postponed another two years!

Mrs. Martino's independent spirit and vitality manifested itself in 1904 when she came west by train from the Black Hills to join her sister in California. She wanted to bring her mare, but didn't wish to leave her care to others, so she finally persuaded the railroad officials to allow her to sleep in a hammock in the boxcar with the horse during the journey.

The same spirit and vitality are just as apparent today. When Mrs. Martino broke her hip a year ago in February (three pins were put in it), she stayed in the hospital only 13 days. She recalls her hospital stay as a great thrill because she was "drowned with attention" by her students.

Last summer Mrs. Martino asked her students three at a time to come to her house to finish the clothes which they had begun before she broke her hip. In the fall she started teaching again although she was still on crutches. Now, just a little over a year since her hip was broken, she drives her car to and from the college and does her own cooking and washes her own dishes at home from a wheelchair.

By her own admission she is a first class cabinet maker and made all the cabinets in her house.

Mrs. Martino is among those who plan to attend the Marin conference on "Aging With a Future" Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary at Strawberry. She is particularly interested in the program, because an old friend, Mrs. Vera Schultz, will discuss the highlights of the recent White House Conference on Aging.

Mrs. Martino was an alteration specialist at Ransohoff's for 16 years and left their employ in 1951. At that time she remarked to Mrs. Schultz that she wished she could transfer the knowledge of tailoring that she had picked up to Marin County housewives and make herself more independent.

Mrs. Schultz suggested that Mrs. Martino might be able to start a class in tailoring at College of Marin and soon after introduced her to President Ward H. Austin and Dr. Samuel N. Le Count, adult education director.

So, at age 74, Mrs. Martino began a new career of teaching.

Le Count says: "Mrs. Martino has a tremendous teaching personality. Her students are totally involved with the class when they're in it."

By having each student use a dress form (which she personally adjusts to the student's measurements) Mrs. Martino can instruct up to 36 students on Mondays and Thursdays. Some women make suits, coats and tailored dresses from the beginning. Others do remodeling jobs.

Although her students are grateful for Mrs. Martino's help and personal interest, Mrs. Martino says, "The shoe is on the other foot. I'd be bored to death without working."

Seminary Alumnus Named To College

Rev. Richard E. Hanna, an alumnus of San Francisco Theological Seminary of San Anselmo, has been appointed president of the College of Emporia in Kansas after serving as director of personnel since last July.

Born in Emporia, Hanna had a varied career including service with the Air Force, and business experience before receiving a bachelor of divinity degree from the seminary in 1958.

The first two are dramas and are directed by Adler of the Homestead group. The third play is a comedy.

FRONTS AREN'T IMMORAL

Students Boo Welch, Adults Applaud Him

SANTA BARBARA (UPI) — Robert Welch, founder of the John Birch Society, ran into heckling from university students last night when he said Chief Justice Earl Warren should be ousted.

Welch, 61, a retired Belmont, Mass., candymaker, spoke before a capacity crowd of 1000 at San Marcos High School. About 200 of the listeners were students from the University of California at Santa Barbara.

The students expressed their displeasure with boos, hisses, and snickers when Welch praised such figures as the late senators Joseph R. McCarthy and Robert A. Taft.

While students booed, another and larger segment made of older people, applauded vigorously each time Welch mentioned these names.

Welch engaged in a heated exchange with Charles Porter, 21-year-old political science major, on the question of "front organizations."

Porter asked Welch whether the Birch Society used fronts to achieve its ends.

Welch said, "of course we advocate front organizations. There is nothing immoral about fronts. What may be immoral is the purpose of the fronts."

Welch said the Birch Society has used fronts in some cases but added "some Communist fronts have different purposes from what they are set up for."

Fireworks Light Up Fort Sumter, Just Like War Of Century Ago

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — Fireworks last night made Fort Sumter resemble the beleaguered Union fortress in Charleston Harbor at the start of the Civil War a century ago.

The 20-minute display of $5,500 worth of pyrotechnics represented the 34-hour battle that was the first of the war.

Thousands of tourists and Civil War buffs joined South Carolinians in reliving the battle. They watched from The Battery that is the tip of the Charleston Peninsula, from the balconies of the carefully preserved old Charleston homes, from Sullivan's Island and other land vantage points surrounding the pentagonal brick fortress near the mouth of the harbor.

Members of the South Carolina Legislature stood on the long balcony of the Ft. Sumter Hotel overlooking the scene.

A stormy controversy over racial customs had quieted when the re-enactment began.

At White Point Gardens on The Battery, a cast of 150 assembled. Clad as soldiers, they acted out the negotiations between the Confederate forces of Gen. P. G. T. Beauregard and the Union forces of Maj. Robert Anderson, commander of the 68 soldiers and 8 bandsmen on Ft. Sumter.

As the outdoor drama closed, the negotiations unsuccessful, the sound of explosions drifted across the harbor from Ft. Johnson, a Confederate stronghold on the south side of the harbor.

These were the first shots of the Civil War and electrically discharged flares, lighting up the sky above Ft. Sumter, represented "misses" by that first barrage. "Hits" were scored by geysers of flame shooting upward from the Fort.

Episcopal Church Forming Men's Club

The Episcopal Church of the Nativity in Marinwood is forming a Men's Club and will hold its first meeting with an 8 a.m. breakfast at the church Saturday, announced organizing chairman Burrell Webb.

Webb, who is also a member of the church Bishop's Committee, said "Marin men of all faith or no faith are invited to join."

Foundation Spent $8,517 In 1960 On Polio In Marin

The Marin County Chapter of the National Foundation spent a total of $8,517.53 last year on polio cases stricken prior to 1960, according to a report of the chapter treasurer accompanying a general officers' report just issued.

Other disbursements totaled $1,241.35, but the chapter found itself last Dec. 31 with a cash balance of $13,642.31 as compared with a cash balance a year before of only $522.39.

This was subject of comment in the main report signed by Mrs. Melvin Hammond as chairman, Mrs. Walter Johnson as vice chairman and Mrs. Doris Lowe as secretary.

"During the past year," said the report, "our case load of polio patients has lessened to a point where we can at last see the light and feel for the first time in our chapter's existence we may be out of debt. We wish to assure everyone, though, that we are not out of the polio business.

"We are spending more on patient aid then all other health agencies combined."

'New' Loes Firing Like A Champ Again

Who would have bet a plugged nickel last winter that Billy Loes would still be on the San Francisco Giants' roster this spring? And who would have figured him a starting pitcher?

Yet there he was yesterday, warming up to start his first game since 1958 and against the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates.

And there he was at the end of the eighth striking out pitcher Vern Law with two men on base to protect a 2-1 lead that wound up the final score as the Giants evened the series at a game apiece. The winning run came in the eighth when Law hit Orlando Cepeda with the bases jammed.

Today the Pirates nominated lefty Harvey Haddix to oppose right-hander Jack Sanford in the series finale.

Manager Alvin Dark, who gambled with Broadway Billy off a fine spring record, took the big 31-year-old out after the eighth because his throwing arm was tightening after the lengthy work in the chilly Candlestick Park winds.

"He has been pitching so well this spring, I just wouldn't take a chance," Dark explained.

Pittsburgh third baseman Don Hoak, who played with Loes at Brooklyn in 1954 and 1955, declared, "He was throwing out there like he used to throw."

Billy didn't completely agree, saying, "I think I used to throw a little better. And that wind out there helped me today because the curves were doing things the batters didn't expect."

Yet Loes depended largely on his fast ball in stopping the Pirates because, "I wasn't sure of getting the other pitches over the plate. You know, I did not think I'd be a starter this year."

Right-handed Billy proved a disappointment in 1960 after a trade brought him to the Giants from Baltimore. He posted a 3-2 record as a reliever but with a 4.89 earned-run-average.

This spring the guy many consider a pop-off eccentric worked hard and Dark declared, "Everything he's done, he's accomplished himself He's been a major league pitcher since 1952. I had a lot of respect for him when I played against him."

Rookie catcher Tom Haller, whose seventh inning homer tied the game at 1-1, commented, "Loes was throwing sneaky fast balls and he was around that plate all the time."

Loes gave up nine singles with the only Pirate run coming in the sixth as Roberto Clemente singled, advanced to third on Hoak's single and scored on an infield out.

The homer by Haller, former University of Illinois football quarterback, was his first major league hit. He almost didn't get it. Clemente in right field was charged with an error when he dropped the catcher's foul fly just before the homer.

In the Giants' eighth, Harvey Kuenn and Willie Mays singled and the bases were jammed when Willie McCovey drew an intentional walk. Then Law hit Cepeda on the shoulder.

The Pirate pitcher thought Orlando could have ducked the pitch that came about a foot inside.

"I didn't have a chance to get out of the way," answered Orlando.

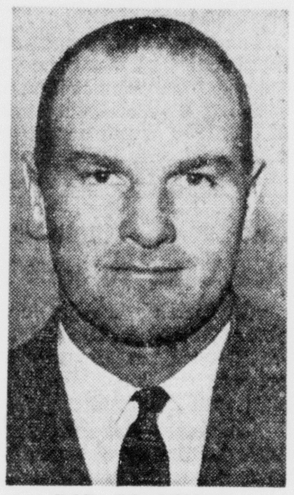
Bob Troppmann Nixes College Job; Wilt, 49ers To Draw Big In Marin

Rumors that Redwood High's Bob Troppmann would apply for the vacant head football coaching post at College of Marin were flatly denied today by Tropp himself.

"I have no intention of leaving Redwood," said the successful prep mentor, "and I definitely have not applied for the Marin Job." The humors popped up last Friday when Harry Pieper stepped out of the Marin college gridiron post to devote full time to the increasingly pressing duties of director of athletics and chairman of the health and physical education department at Kentfield.



BOB TROPPMAN

Troppman cited as "personal reasons" his decision to stay put. One of the main reasons probably is salary, for he would have to take a cut in pay to move from Redwood to Marin.

The Redwood coach has guided the Giants to two consecutive Marin League championships. Next year, with his son Jim moving into a varsity role, Troppmann hopes to make it three in a row.

THE CHANCE to see Wilt "The Stilt" Chamberlain, other basketball heroes and, of course, the stalwarts of the San Francisco 49ers all at one time has stirred plenty of enthusiasm in Marin.

Wilt and his touring all-stars are booked for an exhibition against the 49ers' basketball club tomorrow night at Redwood High School's 1,800-seat gymnasium and the advance ticket sales are going fast.

Taveggia-Brusati Sports Shop in San Rafael, the ticket agency, reports a steady stream of customers gobbling up the ducats. T-B's Jack Streckfus says, "They shouldn't have any trouble packing the place."

Included on Chamberlain's team are ex-USF great Hal Perry, Jet Stream Smith and Charlie Hardy, former college cage stars more recently with the Oakland Raiders, and the Gardere brothers, Joe Harold and Lulu.

The 49er team will feature R. C. Owens, John Thomas, Clyde Conner, Bob St. Clair, Ed Henke, Y. A. Tittle, John Brodie and Matt Hazeltine.

The exhibition game will use professional rules, which means the 24-second rule and four 12-minute quarters will be in force.

The big attraction, of course, is The Stilt.

HERE ARE some interesting facts and figures on him:

If he hadn't chosen basketball, Chamberlain undoubtedly could have become one of the finest decathlon competitors the track world has ever known. He has official marks of 48.7 in the 440, 21.6 in the 220, 50 feet in the shotput and 6 ft., 9 in. in the high jump . . .

Chamberlain, who once scored 90 points in a high school game, is the only player in National Basketball Assn. history to tally over 50 points on more than six occasions . . .

The 7 foot, 2 inch Chamberlain undoubtedly was sought after by more college basketball scouts than any prep player in history. He wound up at Kansas University, where he led the Jayhawks to the NCAA finals, only to lose to North Carolina after three overtimes . . .

CHAMBERLAIN is the only player in NBA history to be drafted before graduating from high school. The Philadelphia Warriors exercised their territorial draft rights on Chamberlin before the super-star received his diploma from that city's Overbrook High. The Warriors feared they'd lose their rights to him if they waited, so Chamberlain thus became the first prep in history to be drafted in the first round by an NBA team . . .

According to Dan Barksdale, promoter of the series, Chamberlain is such a marvelous athlete he could be a star in the NBA if he were only a 6-footer instead of 7-2. Chamberlain also is an outstanding singer and dancer, according to Barksdale, who reports that Chamberlain already has made two recordings . . .

AN EXAMPLE of Wilt's great physical strength is revealed by Bill Nieder, world record holder and Olympic champion in the shotput. Nieder, rated among the strongest men in the world, reports that Chamberlain is the only man he's ever met whom he couldn't beat in an Indian wrestling match. Nieder and Chamberlain were track teammates at Kansas . . .

The unenviable assignment of guarding Chamberlain in the 49er series goes to St. Clair, who was a regular on the USF freshman team while on the Hilltopper campus. St. Clair is 6-9 tall and 275 pounds, while Chaberlain is 7-2 and weighs 250.

San Rafael Edges Novato 4-3 In Non-League Clash

Dennis Hall's two-hit pitching and Tom Williams' booming bat paced Coach Jack Sims' San Rafael Bulldogs to a nip and tuck 4-3 victory over the hard-luck Novato Hornets in a practice game at San Rafael's Albert Field yesterday.

It was Novato's second straight one-run setback, having lost to Petaluma 5-4 in eight innings the previous day

Hall struck out six and walked five and his two-hitter showed signs the Bulldog mound staff is getting stronger each day. On Tuesday San Rafael's Ken Becker pitched a one-hitter in a 9-0 win over George Washington High.

Williams personally collected half of San Rafael's six hits with a triple and two singles.

Ron Grayson was the losing pitcher, and a tough one it was. He struck out nine and walked only three, but was betrayed by both physical and mental errors, Coach Marlin Olsen said.

Moon Shines For Dodgers In 3-2 Win

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Wally Moon, the solid man in the Los Angeles Dodgers' outfield now that Duke Snider has been reduced to a part-time player, is off and winging to what may be his best season in the major leagues.

The 31-year-old veteran of seven big league campaigns ripped his second homer in as many games this season last night to lead the Dodgers to a 3-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Earlier this spring Moon, who came to the Dodgers from the Cardinals after the 1958 season, said he had a "feeling" this was going to be his best year. With the Dodgers loaded down with young outfielders he did not play as often as he would have liked to in the exhibition games, but when he did, he got his share of hits.

In Tuesday's opener, he hit a homer in the second inning to give the Dodgers an early lead, and yesterday, with the Phils in front 1-0 in the seventh, the left-handed swinging Moon sliced a homer over the left field screen with Tommy Davis aboard.

PODRES WINS

Johnny Podres, who got the victory although he needed relief help from Larry Sherry in the ninth, batted in what proved to be the winning run when his infield single scored Norm Larker from third, also in that seventh inning rally.

Big Frank Sullivan, making his first start for the Phillies since being traded by the Boston Red Sox, pitched brilliantly for the first six innings, retiring 14 batters in a row at one point, before the Dodgers finally cracked through in the seventh.

Moon's best season in the majors was in 1957 with the Cardinals when he hit 24 homers, batted in 73 runs and hit .295. In his first season with the Dodgers in 1959 he hit 19 homers, had 74 RBI's and a .302 batting average.

Mike's Fatal Pitch Tied Record; New Rule Subdues Players' Temper

HANLEY

Mike McCormick will get a chance to redeem himself tomorrow for undoing with one pitch all of the good work his teammates did for eight innings against the Pirates in the 1961 Candlestick Park opener.

But Mike should not feel despondent about Bill Virdon's two-out three-run homer that made the 8-7 Pirate win, the first of 1961 for the world champs.

They did the same thing repeatedly to all of their 1960 opposition, 23 times to be specific. Even the Yankees in the World Series were not immune to such heroics.

Nevertheless, it is disconcerting, even to such an ERA king as Mike is, to draw a first defeat of a new season on a first pitch. That probably set a record or, at the very least, tied one.

As the scheduled starter tomorrow against the Phillies, whose opposition is not quite as sturdy as the Pirate brand, Mike is in no danger of losing another game on one pitch. In fact, the odds are in Mike's favor of balancing his record since he has beaten the Phils regularly the past two seasons—and so have most other pitchers in the league.

AGAINST THE Phils, Mike seldom throws the wrong pitch. Even when he dropped a 1-0 decision to them after beating them five straight in 1959, it was not his fault the Giants did not win the game. Robin Roberts, whose toughest opposition in the N.L. is furnished by his own team, was responsible for that 1-0 Giant defeat.

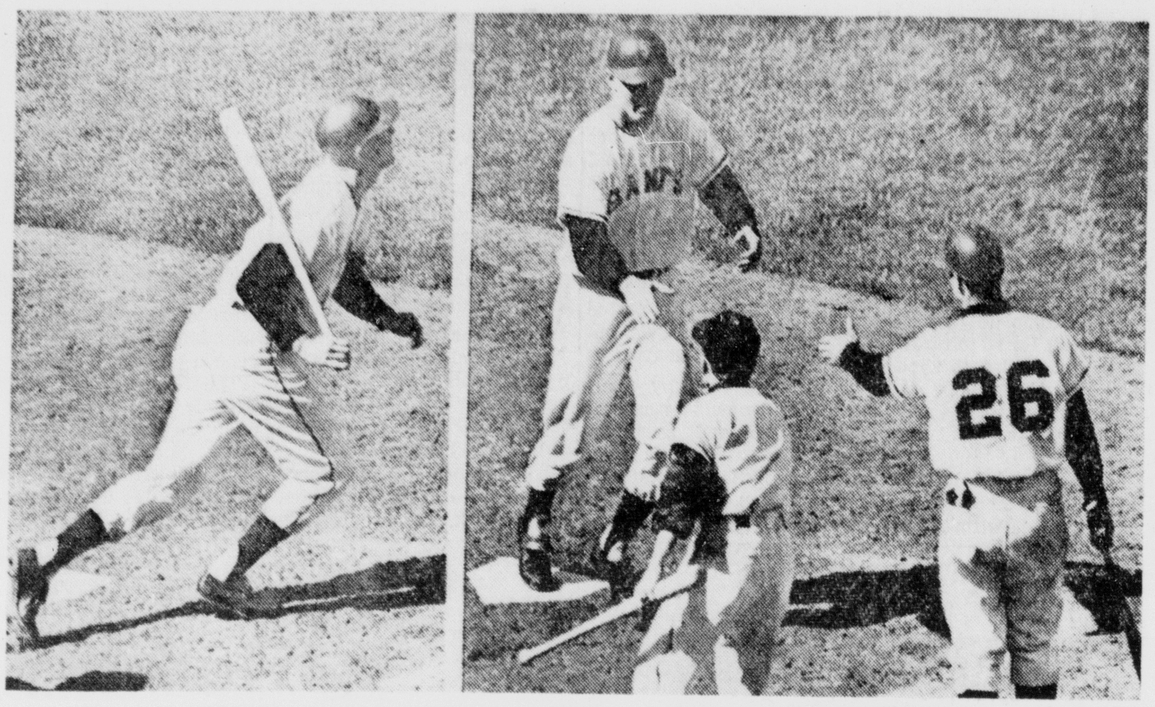
That McCormick's pitch to Virdon was a wrong one none of the opening day crowd of 41,423 will dispute. But as for precisely what kind of pitch it was—a high fast ball or a high curve that hung—will always be disputed as such pitches always are.

IT IS not prudent to inquire of a pitcher who has just lost a game in such fashion what kind of pitch he threw. However, there were some brave dressing room reporters, faithful to their duty, who put the question to Mike.

He mumbled something about it not being anywhere near the plate and let it go at that. Virdon felt it was a high hanging curve.

Mike's rather subdued reaction to the question that must have felt like a twisting knife could be attributed to Alvin Dark's new clubhouse rule—no reporters allowed during a 10 minute cooling off period after each game.

THE NEW rookie manager of the Giants does not intend to have any recurrence of the Johnny Antonelli wind incident, the one which caused Johnny all kinds of trouble and ultimately led to his being traded into the American League.



THRILL IN THE LIFE OF A ROOKIE

O's Boost Pennant Hopes With Trade

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles, hoping to make 1961 the year they capture the American League pennant, have traded one of their young pitchers for what is hoped to be an offensive punch. The Birds last night sent pitcher Jerry Walker, 22, to the Kansas City Athletics for utility outfielder Dick Williams, 31.

Others included in the straight four-player deal were the Orioles' Chuck Essegian, 29, an outfielder and Kansas City's Dick Hall, 30, a pitcher.

"It is a luxury to be able to be concerned strictly with the future," said Lee MacPhail, Oriole president-general manager. "If we are going to be a pennant contender this year, we must be concerned with the immediate present.

IMPROVE OFFENSE

"What we are trying to do is improve our offense. It is hard to get hitters. You cannot get them without giving up something of value. We feel very badly about giving up Jerry Walker, a fine young man who could be a fine pitcher for a number of years."

MacPhail said, "I think the trade has helped our club for 1961. With the pennant as our goal, the primary goal is this year."

This will be the third time that Williams, who hit .288, slugged 12 homers and drove in 65 runs for the A's last year, has been in Baltimore.

Hall, who was 8-13 last year for Kansas City, is expected to see relief duty for Baltimore. Essegian, a pinch-hitting hero of the 1959 World Series for the Los Angeles Dodgers, was purchased by the Birds Feb. 1.

Ingo, Liston Bout Depends On Tax Issue

GOTEBORG, Sweden (AP)—If he wins his tax tussle with the government, former heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson expects to fight top-ranked Sonny Liston in the United States in September.

"The question is whether the U.S. tax authorities will recognize me as Swiss or not," the Swedish heavyweight said yesterday. "If they do, I can go on fighting in the states. Otherwise, I will have to fight in Europe, where the taxes are lower."

Johansson, who has spent much of his time in Geneva, Switzerland, since his first fight with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, faces a tax claim of about $1 million which the U.S. government contends he owes from his fight with Patterson.

Big College Field Day Set Next Week At Kentfield

College of Marin will host more than 300 students from six junior colleges during a co-educational field day to be held 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. next Thursday at the Kentfield campus.

Sponsored by the Golden Valley Conference Intercollegiate Athletic Assn., the annual field day which is now in its eighth year includes non-varsity competition in tennis, volleyball, archery, swimming, table tennis, badminton, golf, bowling, and hole-in-one golf.

Because Marin does not have on-campus facilities for all of the events, swimming competition will be at Bob's Edgewater Inn, Corte Madera; golf at Peacock Gap, near McNear's Beach, and bowling at the Greenbrae Lanes, Greenbrae.

Participating schools include Napa, Sierra, Shasta, American River, and Yuba colleges.

Each of the six colleges will send some 50 men and women students to compete in the sports and games.

'ENJOY YOURSELF'

According to Harry Pieper, College of Marin director of athletics and this year's field day chairman, "The day is planned to give the students an opportunity to meet others and enjoy themselves."

With the exception of archery, volleyball and table tennis, all events are scheduled for morning. Bowling, however, will be included in both the morning and afternoon programs.

From noon to 1 p.m., the students will present a six-day talent show.

Each college is responsible for providing score keepers, judges, and faculty supervision for one or more events.

As host, College of Marin will furnish game supplies and overall co-ordination of the program.

Brunswick Quint Near Lead In ABC

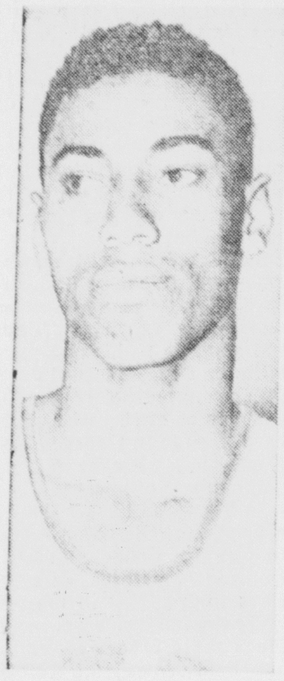
DETROIT (AP)—With the best start of any team to date, Brunswick of Miami, Fla., bids for first place in the classic division of the American Bowling Congress tonight.

The Miamians rolled 3,036 last night and will have to shoot 2,943 or better tonight to go ahead of Stroh's Beer of Detroit, leading with 5,978.

The previous high series of 3,034 was shot by the St. Louis Budweisers March 16. Brunswick put together games of 957, 1,042 and 1,037.

Len Springmeyer, 1947 ABC doubles champion with teammate Eddie Doerr, Jr., led the team with 631. Doerr fired 611, George Nenezian 623, Lou Mandragona 617 and Stan Gurwitz 554.

Schmidt Beer of St. Paul took second place last night on a 3,000 score for a total of 5,948.



THE STILT — Wilt "The Stilt" Chamberlain will lead a team of all-star basketballers against the San Francisco 49ers' hoopsters tomorrow night in an exhibition game at Redwood High School gymnasium. Tickets for the feature are going fast. See "Along Marin's Sports Trail" on page 13 for details.

Hockey Loop Ponders Move To S.F., L.A.

SEATTLE (UPI)—Directors of the Western Hockey League met here today to grapple with the issue of expanding the league to San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Bill Nicholas, general manager of the Los Angeles Coliseum and Sports Arena, was on hand and willing to talk terms with franchise bidders.

Al Leader, president of the league, said he had written assurance that the management of the San Francisco Cow Palace was ready to listen to propositions.

Mel Smith, majority stockholder of the Spokane Comets, is on record as seeking to move operations to San Francisco. Jack Perrin, Winnipeg owner, also has his eye on the Bay Area for some time. There is talk he and Smith may join forces for the San Francisco bid.

Jim Piggott, owner of the Victoria Cougars, has been assured first consideration for a franchise in Los Angeles. However, Jack Dempsey, not the fighter, who last operated a team in Los Angeles in 1951, is also interested.

Eight votes will be cast on all issues with six votes needed to decide any action.

Electronic Brain Flunks On Naming Big League Lineups

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—In this flabby electronic age it is exhilarating today to report that, in baseball at least, man still is out-thinking the machine.

The crisis evolved early this week when Univac, the famed electronic brain which occasionally turns its geared gray matter on sports, picked the starting lineups for all 18 major league teams' opening game. As a man who long has wished for a typewriter that could spell, I waited breathlessly.

Univac fell flat on its much-paneled face.

SKULLDUGGERY AFOOT

There is a suspicion here that skullduggery may have been afoot. Imagine if Univac had been right. Nine losers would have been fired and the dugouts would have been a mess of live wires instead of dead ones.

The machine age consequences could have gone much further. Bob Carpenter, who is related to the Du Pont dynamite clan, probably has thought often of using some family products on his lowly Phillies. And then there's the Wrigley chewing gum folks, who might have been tempted to put up fingernails in cellophane packages for their frustrated Cub fans.

But the mental meanderings of the managers saved the day.

Much was made, in an article in Parade Magazine, on how Univac with "scientific planning" had selected the lineups. Picking the batting orders, the iron Einstein "studied speed, ability and hitting records."

As it turned out, it missed 46 of the 162 starters; had 22 others playing the wrong position and had 95 of the 162 players batting out of order.

MISSING INFORMATION

Univac in naming the starting pitchers considered each man's 1960 record and his life-time mark against the opposing team. Somebody apparently forgot to supply the information as to how the hurlers were to feel on opening day.

Because the managers threw a curve ball at the brain in 11 of the 18 cases by starting somebody else.

Joe Gordon of the Kansas City A's really outsmarted the machine by making a total of 19 changes from what was predicted. He used five unexpected starters, changed the whole Univac order from stem to stern, moved four expected starters into different positions and started a different pitcher than predicted. If the machine wants to know watts up, the A's won over Boston by a score of 5 to 2. And when the A's beat anybody it's more of a marvel than a talking dynamo.

Among those making the fewest changes from what was expected by the brain, Ralph Houk came up with only six. So he dropped the first Yankee opener in seven years to the Minnesota Twins. Cookie Lavagetto, the Minnesota mental marvel, switched in eight categories and took the contest, 6 to 0.

Solly Hemus of the Cards made nine switches and bested Chuck Dressen of Milwaukee, who changed only seven times. Daryl Spencer, bating out of Univac order but strictly in Hemus' rotation, pulled it off with a 10th inning homer.

Meanwhile Walt Alston of the Dodgers, made 11 changes in the Univac plan and won from the Phillies, with whom Gene Mauch only switched the brain's computations nine times. Which again brings us back to dynamite.

However, in all fairness to the machine, it probably must be admitted that half of the managers wish they had used the Univac lineup. They, of course, are the ones who lost.

MANTLE AILING; HAY FEVER SHOT BLAMED

NEW YORK (AP)—This was one spring when everything was right with Mickey Mantle—no strains, no pains, no ailments at all when he and the New York Yankees opened the American League season. So he took a shot in the arm to help him stay that way, and the trouble started.

"He has a knot the size of a baseball on his left arm," said Manager Ralph Houk, "but I think he'll be able to play today. It's from a hay fever shot he took yesterday morning. Damnedest thing you ever saw."

Mantle, who was 0-for-4 and struck out twice when Pedro Ramos pitched a three-hitter that gave the Minnesota Twins a 6-0 opening day victory Tuesday, had a tough time in the batting cage during yesterday's off day workout.

"There's no pain," said Mick, "but I felt dizzy and nauseated."

Bears Defeat Dons

BERKELEY (UPI)—The University of California baseball team defeated University of San Francisco, 8-4, in a practice game yesterday, as sophomore pitchers Mike Jauregui and Mike Kritscher limited the Dons to only two earned runs.

Braves' Outfielder Lee Maye Shelved By Bad Shoulder

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Lee Maye, who shelved his music to concentrate on winning a starting position in the outfield of the Milwaukee Braves baseball team, was in deep distress today.

Maye, on the basis of his fine work during the exhibition series this spring, earned the starting spot in left field for Milwaukee's opening game. He got in fine shape by playing winter baseball in Puerto Rico instead of writing music as he had done previously in the off season.

The 26-year-old outfielder performed well in the opening game that the Braves lost to the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1 in 10 innings but he came up with strained right shoulder muscle. The injury may keep him out of action a day—or possibly a week or more.

"I finally got a shot and this had to happen," Maye said yesterday: "I only hope I can get back in there tomorrow. But my arm is pretty stiff right now."

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS,

Gloomy Angling Picture Turns Bright With Many Good Reports

STEVENS

Fish are where you find them. That sure is a hackneyed phrase, isn't it? But trite or otherwise it sure applies to the fishing events of certain sectors of the local waters over the past three days. From what appeared to be a rather gloomy outlook, the vista cleared up and as of Tuesday there was a rosy hue to the piscatorial atmosphere.

On Monday, Carl Bennett of the Rodeo Marina called me to report some fast action on the part of a goodly number of his patrons. My namesake, J. Stevens, came in with a 23-pound bass plus five mediums to make two limits for his rowboat. Fish were taken from near the Hercules Wharf. Then T. S. Low and Etta Louie limited from near the Union Oil Wharf. The party boat, Sunfish, with Skipper Pat Patton at the helm, netted an average of two fish per angler on Saturday and on Sunday unloaded a 90-pound sturgeon caught by Lynn Vinson. Tom Fruiteger led the van with a lunker bass weighing over 40 pounds from near the Radar Screen. Bennett also reported lots of flounders and—strange as it may seem—several halibut were caught. (First time I ever heard of that happening.)

WHILE THE weekend results were reported as only fair out of Crockett, the skiffs that played the north end above the Pump House on the Marin side of the bay had a field day. I can always trust Joe Nerviani of Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia, so was highly pleased when I was told that fishing has been all to the good at his place.

ON MONDAY, for example, Joe reported on nine boats; all but one came in with limits—26 nice stripers in all. On Tuesday 15 boats went out in the morning and at noon three of them were back in. Two had limits for each angler and the third boat was only one short of two limits. On Sunday, one little lady, Phyllis Lindholm, hung and landed two bass, one weighing 15 pounds and the other 19 pounds. The Lauchenuers, Eleanor and Mickey, as usual, had their limits—six fish that were almost identical in weight—12 pounds each. Arthur Silva landed a 36-pound, 55-inch sturgeon.

SOME FAST and very satisfactory action was had by the Salazars, Jo-Anne, and Raymond with 13-year-old nephew Ronnie Torres. Jo-Anne called to rave over the good luck they had at Blind Point in the Antioch sector. The fish weighed in at seven to 13 pounds.

HERE'S A notice from Ed Markham, corresponding secretary of the Associated Sportsmen, District Council No. 3. Ed calls attention to the meeting (tonight) at the Walnut Creek Sportsmen's Clubhouse, Walnut Creek. "It's election night. All clubs should have their ballots in by the start of the meeting. The rifle and pistol range committee should make a report of their findings," Ed writes and adds the following very interesting note: "Host club is Deep Angels Skin Divers. They have said they will serve abalone as refreshments. Sounds good to me!"

Seems like the pestiferous jellyfish have moved in to cause lamentations and curses among the salmon trollers. They have our sympathy. And with that fond expression, I sign off for today. More information tomorrow.

Kentfield Pony League Expands

More than 70 boys will try out for berths on Kentfield-Greenbrae's four Pony League teams Saturday at 8:30 a.m. on College of Marin's baseball field in Kentfield.

It marks the biggest turnout in the four-year history of the comparatively new boys league and, because of the large registration, it was decided by league officials to expand to four teams.

Work Party To Groom Pony League Diamond

A work party of Mill Valley Pony League players and their fathers will be organized Saturday to groom the Edna Maguire School field for the coming season, it was announced today.

All players and their fathers are urged to bring shovels to the diamond starting at 10 a.m.

End Of Era Saddens Celt Celebration

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Celtics, champions of the National Basketball Assn. for the third straight season, held a breakup party last night. It was a rather gay affair with champagne and congratulations and lots of speeches about "the greatest team ever."

But lurking under the cover of the laughter and good wishes was just an undertone, just a hint of sadness: A sense the gaiety may have been forced a bit.

Because the breakup party may have signalled the end of an era.

Two factors: Increasing age and a team that doesn't yet exist, almost assure that the same personnel won't all be together next season.

Each team in the league will be able to protect seven of its players, with the other going into a pool from which the Chicago team that will enter the league next season will choose its players.

Some of the Celtics have to go. Just who they will be, no one knows. Owner Walter Brown insists the decision has not yet been made.

"But one thing is sure," he said. "Regardless who it is, it will be the wrong one."

Those attending the party, along with Coach Red Auerbach, included Bill Sharman, Bob Cousy and Bill Russell.

Drake Pool Open Saturday, Sunday

Dragsters Race At Cotati Sunday

Top Bay Area dragsters are expected out in full force at Cotati Raceway Sunday and, due to several disappointing rainouts and events scheduled elsewhere, this will be the first event in more than six weeks.

Sunday's events will feature well-known dragsters from throughout the Bay Area . . . all in heated competition after a too-long lapse. Among them will be the Schrank Brothers' world-record-holding Class C dragster, as well as a full schedule of stock and super stock entries.

Activities begin at 8:30 a.m. Tickets will be available at the gate and children under 12 are admitted free.

Snead Seeks Eighth Title At Greensboro

GREENSBORO, N. C. (UPI)—Sam Snead, one of the leading golfers of all time, sought his eighth Greater Greensboro Open championship when the 24th annual GGO got underway today at Sedgefield Country Club.

Conspicuously absent when the 72-hole $22,500 GGO began was new Masters champion Gary Player. The South African said he was too tired from the tension of the Masters to compete this week.

Player had competed here for the last four years and in 1960 finished with fifth-place money of $1,000. Former Masters titleholder Art Wall also notified touranment officials he could not participate because of a back injury.

TOP ENTRIES

Top entries besides Snead this year included former British Open champion Peter Thomson; Mike Souchak of Durham; Jim Feree of Winston-Salem, winner of the recent Jamaica Open; Julius Boros of Mid Pines, and Charlie Smith of Gastonia, Carolinas "golfer of the year" in 1960.

The field also included Charlie Sifford, five-time Negro national golf champion and the first member of his race ever to compete in an official Professional Golfers' Assn. tournament in the south.

A spokesman for the swank Sedgefield club said: "We do not anticipate any trouble or incidents—just a little grumbling from some of the strict segregationists."

Then the league schedule starts with all five games slated at Kentfield. Drake meets Redwood, the defending champion, Oct. 14, Marin Catholic Oct. 21, Novato Oct. 28, San Rafael Nov. 3 and Tamalpais Nov. 11.

All nine Drake games will start at 8 p.m.

There are so-called "bargain" tires, "cheapie" tires, "discount" tires and other tires you've never even heard of.

Most of them do a lot of shouting about price. But there's a big difference in what goes into them, as compared to a Goodyear tire.

1. Goodyear gives you a stronger tire body. It's the tire body that takes the beating. And it all depends on cords and plies. So we tested our 3-T Nylon All-Weather—priced at $12.88*—against nine other nylon cord tires in the $10-$12 price class or better. Goodyear's tire rated 23.2% stronger than the average rating of all the others.

2. Goodyear gives you a tougher tread. You need toughness where the tire meets the road. So, Goodyear gives you all-new tread rubber in every tire. And it pays off good: Goodyear's tread was greater than the average of the rest.

3. Goodyear gives you greater over-all strength! Comparing the results of body tests and tread tests, Goodyear comes out way ahead. Actually, Goodyear not only proved out best on both counts but topped them all in over-all quality rating, too!

Before you part with $10, $11 or $12 for any tire, get the inside story. Remember that for about the same price, you can get a lot more tire—a Turnpike-Proved Goodyear tire. It's called the 3-T Nylon All-Weather. And it costs you as little as $12.88*

*6.70 x 15 black tube-type, plus tax and the old tire off your car.

NO MONEY DOWN with your old tire. Pay as little as $1.25 a week.

Remember, wherever you and your family drive, any Goodyear tire dealer (in all 50 states, there are over 60,000 of them) will repair your damaged tire without charge, or make you an allowance toward the purchase of a new tire, based on the original tread depth remaining and the current "Goodyear Price."

Civil Defense Tests Planned

Preparations for Marin County participation in approaching state and nationwide civil defense exercises April 28-29 will be made at a meeting at 9 a.m. Monday in the office of County Administrator Alan Bruce.

Bruce, who is also county civil defense director, has invited William Harrington as Marin radiological defense adviser, Mansfield Lewis, who heads the county communications department, and Ward H. Austin, president of the College of Marin who has recently received civil defense briefing at two meetings in Alameda.

Bruce said today he expected the exercises to center mainly on communications and radiological detection, although fuller details on the projected "Operation Alert 1961" exercise are due soon. Public participation will be limited to a half-hour "Conelrad" radio test April 28 from 1 to 1:30 p.m.

Signals will be put out on two channels, 640 and 1240 kilocycles, and Marin hearers are asked to report whether battery-operated sets can pick up transmission from Santa Rosa. All television and FM broadcast stations will be off the air for the half-hour period. Pres. John F. Kennedy is expected to address the nation from a secret location.

More than 700 sites and buildings have been designated as Historical Landmarks in California.

Officiating for the 3 o'clock double ring ceremony was Rev. Jerald Traeger.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Palmer of San Rafael. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Janet Young of Mill Valley.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length white satin gown with a scoop neckline and bustle of white roses. Her heirloom lace veil belonging to the bridegroom's mother, held a pearl coronet. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations on a prayer book.

Mrs. Charlie Ward of San Rafael as matron of honor, was gowned in a white sheath with yellow organza overskirt and accessories. She carried a nosegay of white and yellow carnations.

Honor attendants, Jewell Birch of Tiburon, Marilyn Kinsel of San Rafael and Judy Grant of Mill Valley, wore white sheaths with apricot organza overskirts and carried apricot and white carnation nosegays.

Beckford Young of Mill Valley was best man for his brother. Ushers were Don Palmer of San Rafael, the bride's brother; John Eahler, Sausalito, and Robin Jackson of Mill Valley.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Palmer wore an aqua silk sheath with bone accessories and orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom chose a pink floral print with matching accessories. Her flowers were orchids.

Yellow and white carnations were carried out in arrangements at the San Rafael Improvement Club for the reception which followed the ceremony.

For traveling, the bride wore a black and white check cotton suit with patent accessories and white carnation corsage.

The bride was graduated from San Rafael High School and is now in her sophomore year at College of Marin. She is a member of the International Relations Club. Mr. Arthur Palmer of San Rafael and the late Mrs. Myrtle Palmer are her grandparents.

The bridegroom was graduated from Tamalpais High School and attended College of Marin. He is employed by the Aetna Life Insurance Co. in San Francisco. Mrs. Janet Low Todd of St. Petersburg, Fla., is his grandmother.

The young couple will reside in Mill Valley.

Dr. Idabelle Main Entertains Sister

Six members of the woman's society of the church attended the annual house party at Hobergs in Lake County last week. They were Mesdames H. C. Yeats, J. W. Morrison, F. W. Mitchell, Mary Cooper, Eva Frazier and J. C. Canfield.

Informally Yours To Greet Madera Guild Of Sunny Hills

To raise funds for their booth at the Grape Festival, the Madera Guild of Sunny Hills will sponsor an Informally Yours luncheon - fashion show at Bob's of Marin on Wednesday, April 19, at 12:30 o'clock, with proceeds from the luncheon to go to their booth-for-sale items of hand-made, new, and used jewelry.

Mrs. Walter Long is president of the Madera Guild and of the April 19 luncheon themed to "Sun 'n' Shade Silhouettes" with special seasonal styles co-ordinated by Sara Campbell from a San Rafael shop.

Cute, clever extra "fund-raisers" will be the table decor, fashioned by the imaginative Guild group — gold gilt wire mesh mannikins with each "model" in an original colorful creation designed and executed by Madera Guild members.

Mannequin League of Marin volunteer models will show the styles at the benefit, and in the fashion promenade modeling "for fun and for charity" will be Mesdames Richard Evans, William Morrisey, George Coburn, William Donohoe, John Hackney Jr., and Les Vogel Jr.

A special added attraction for the hundred guests at the Madera Guild's fashion - luncheon benefit will be a complimentary "wine - tasting" from the Almaden winery prior to the luncheon, courtesy of Bob's of Marin.

Reservations for the Wednesday, April 19, style show luncheon to benefit the Madera Guild of Sunny Hills may be made with Bob's of Marin.

Farwell will bring trusses of flowers to discuss and provide some as prizes.

According to club President George Coleman the plant table will also feature fuchsias since the club is a recent outgrowth of the Redwood Fuchsia Society.

Guests are welcome at all meetings.

'Melody In Fashion' Redwood Theme

Spring-like weather has accelerated the planning for "Melody in Fashion," according to Mrs. Henry E. Skinner of Ross.

This is because "Melody in Fashion" is the annual spring party to be given by the Redwood High School P-TA on May 13 at 1 p.m., and also because spring fashions will be shown, said Mrs. Skinner, who is general chairman.

This year, all the models, 20 in number, will be Redwood girls. They will be selected by two members of the Mannequin League of Marin at tryouts scheduled for 3:15 p.m., Wednesday, April 26, in the Redwood gym. On hand will be the fashion coordinator, Mrs. Harding McPhun of Kentfield, and the models chairman, Mrs. Leroy Page of Ross.

Most of the members of Mrs. Skinner's large committee met at her home on a recent morning to discuss plans for the dessert-fashion show. Since then each chairman has been busily completing her phase of the preparations.

Working on plans for the serving of dessert before the parade of fashions are Mrs. Malvern S. Dorinson of Ross, food; Mrs. Robert Cole of Ross and Mrs. Lester J. Wade of Kentfield, tables; and Mrs. Martin Bramante of Belvedere, table covers.

A committee of four is planning festive decorations on the "Melody in Fashion" theme. Members are Mrs. Terres A. Ronnenberg and Mrs. Allen Zeiss of Ross, Mrs. Richard Von Borstel and Mrs. John Southmayd of Kentfield.

Chairman of entertainment is Mrs. Don R. Hickman of Corte Madera, with Mrs. Gino Morena of Kentfield as chairman of music for the fashion show.

Mrs. Mert Hipsley of Ross is chairman of the props committee, and Mrs. Richard Basco of Larkspur and Mrs. Robert Troppmann of Corte Madera head the house committee.

Handling publicity are Mrs. Gail Adams Jr. of Larkspur, Mrs. David Teather of Tiburon, and Miss Lynn Eddy of Ross. Mrs. John Baglietto of Larkspur is poster chairman.

Chairmen of the reservations committee are Mrs. Edward W. Detrick of Kentfield and Mrs. John McGee, Ross. Area representatives handling tickets include Mrs. C. V. Shawler of Kentfield, chairman; Mrs. Merrill Roth, Greenbrae; Mrs. Allan Kreuzberger, Kentfield; Mrs. C. R. Trost, Ross; Mrs. Robert Connell, Corte Madera; Mrs. David Nelson, Larkspur, and Mrs. P. E. Allsman, Belvedere and the Tiburon Peninsula.

School ticket representatives are Miss Alice Durrie, seniors; Miss Dodie Baruh, juniors; Miss Jane Novacic, sophomores, and Miss Donna Hartman, freshmen.

Reason For Poor TV Programs Told Motion Picture Council

"We have let our children take over the monster", declared Al Tomilson, regional director of TV Guide, in his address at the annual spring luncheon of Marin Motion Picture Council on Tuesday at Bob's of Marin. Explaining that he had no interest or connection with TV except as a viewer, Tomilson said: "I object to the extreme mediocrity and boring outpouring" of the programs.

In response to the complaint about violence, the speaker said, "Violence is not restricted to TV" and referred to magazines, movies, and newspapers. He said that after Hollywood decided to give up fighting TV and took it over it ceased to be an art form. "Most shows come out of Hollywood" he explained and pointed out that the Hollywood producers' idea of success is measured in terms of numbers, the number of viewers and the quantity of merchandise sold by the advertisers. "The money is rolling in" Tomilson declared.

The sponsor wants "something different and safe" and adds "Don't make anybody angry". The result, said Tomilson, is that a flood of "situation comedies" are in the making. "TV has lost its elite audience," he quoted from Time Magazine.

The speaker said that he considers "Play of the Week" one of the finest things on TV but it has only a rating of 5 whereas re-runs of "Amos and Andy" have a rating of 10.

The only ways to get better programs Tomilson stated were not to watch programs which are inferior and to write the producers telling the programs preferred.

Mrs. Paul A. Hammer, president, conducted the meeting. She introduced her officers: Mesdames Elizabeth Eastman, vice president; Albert Cunningham, recording secretary; William Carr, corresponding secretary; Hazel Lamb, treasurer; Joseph Diadoti, financial secretary; Cristina Farlatti, historian. Cecil Ormond, a past president, parliamentarian; Laurel Campbell, contact chairman; Miss Florence Hughes, publicity chairman; Mesdames Earl Nelson, telephone chairman; Ormond, motion picture chairman; Laurel Keppel, television chairman and John Lewis, A. J. Morgan and Walter Tait, advisors.

Also introduced was Ed Gates, manager of Tamalpais Theater in San Anselmo where the council members had a preview of "The Imposter" before the luncheon. He and Blumenfeld Theaters were thanked by Mrs. Hammer for their cooperation and courtesy. Also introduced were Mrs. George Viera of Orinda, president of the Northern California Motion Picture and TV Coordinating Council, presidents of bay area motion picture councils and Florence Donnelly, society editor of the Independent Journal.

Awards were presented to winners in the Marin council's essay contest. First prize went to Joan Hamstra of San Rafael High School; Cathleen Thiebold and Nancy Ryan of Marin Catholic High School, second and third respectively; Pamela Stout and Todd Moorhead of Sir Francis Drake High School, fourth and fifth awards, respectively. Honorable mention was given Suzanne Cassetti of San Rafael High and to Sally Robertson of Sir Francis Drake High School.

Nurses Complete Parents Courses

Ready to assume duties as instructors for Red Cross expectant parents courses are Mesdames Lydia Angelini, Margueritte Ford, Tracy Talmage, Faith Eckhoff and Pat Ravicz.

All registered nurses, they have recently completed instructors' training courses and received their pins at a ceremony conducted at the chapter in San Rafael by newly appointed co-chairmen for Red Cross Nursing Service Mesdames J. Lyman Hurlbut and Harry Hensler.

Expectant parents classes are held monthly at the chapter Mondays and Wednesdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. An additional class is being held during the month of April at the same times at Novato Hospital on a trial basis to determine whether the population expansion in this area is sufficient to warrant regular scheduling of the added class.

The Red Cross Nursing Service also provides twice a week demonstrations by Mrs. Talmage and Mrs. John Dismukes in mother and baby care at the "Heirport" in Marin General Hospital for those mothers who have not been able to take advantage of the regularly scheduled course.

Open Door Club To Hear Quartet

The Open Door Club of Novato will be entertained by the Petaluma Roostaires Quartet with an evening of barbershop singing tomorrow at Trevitt Hall in Novato.

Potluck dinner will be served at 7 p.m. and the program will begin at 8 p.m. Lawrence Schmidt of Novato will introduce the Roostaires.

Square Dance Jamboree Set For Saturday

Saturday novice square dancers of Marin County will dance to the calls of Bill Owen of the Buzzin' Boots Square Dance Club.

This jamboree will be held at Isabel Cook School in San Anselmo, starting at 8:30 p.m. Many clubs have trained beginners recently, and others received their instruction at classes held by the Marin County Square Dance Assn. All new dancers are invited to attend.

The Marin County Square Dance Assn. is the general sponsor of beginners' jamborees, to provide a stepping stone for the new dancers from their training period to full participation in more advanced square dance events. One such upcoming affair will be the two-day Golden State Roundup, May 20 and 21 in the Oakland Auditorium. This giant event is for all dancers in the Bay Area.

The committee for this Saturday's dance will have B. G. Pool and Lee Ziegler on the door, Mary Parisi, Boots Pool and Stimmie Bianco on the kitchen committee, and Fred Hicks and George McLaughlin for cleanup.

Yachting Magazine To Cover Fashions With A View Show

"Sea," the distinctive sailing and yachting magazine, cruises into the Ondine on Thursday to cover the delightful "Fashions With a View" for a forthcoming issue.

Boats, bells, buoys—and the familiar red, white and blue flag of the United States Power Squadrons will form the nautical backdrop as Fashions With a View says "Sea You Around This Summer."

For land lubbers, "rag haulers" (affectionate name that yachtsmen call skippers of sailing craft) and "stink pots" (affectionate name that sailors call yachtsmen), it will be a gay day. For everyone who plans to be aboard, around, beside or beneath any boat this summer, the unique Sausalito shop of Nancy and Al Loeffler will prove that women who are Seaing must be worth seeing!

Piped aboard as the special "guests with a viewpoint" will be the commanders of the Marin and San Francisco Power Squadrons and their wives, who will appropriately arrive at the Ondine pier by boat.

Establishing a high standard of skill in the handling and navigation of small boats is the main objective of the United States Power Squadrons whose flag flies high on Thursday. (Flying from boats on America's waterways it indicates the skipper has taken and passed the unique Piloting Course offered as a public service by the USPS and has been invited to join the Power Squadron.)

Establishing a high standard of fashionability aboard such craft is the objective of the attractive Thursday models as they get ready for boating, beaching, bathing, cruising or cocktailing around the bay (for staying at home when the occasion demands!)

Sea You Around This Summer? Thursday at 12:30 (1 bell) to be exact. Reservations may be made by calling the Ondine in Sausalito.

A Clear Statement On Freedom Of The Press

The press of our nation is rightly concerned about the great privilege of freedom of speech and press which we enjoy in this country. Too often the press is accused of demanding something special for itself. Actually, it is demanding a right for all people.

It is pleasing, then, to hear a public official take a clear, unequivocal stand on this matter.

Thomas C. Nelson, city attorney of Mill Valley, did just that this week. At issue was not the freedom of newspapers, so we had no direct interest. At issue was the right to print magazines or other publications, sell them and then take full responsibility for what has been written and sold.

Specifically, Nelson was answering a request by a Mill Valley city councilman as to whether "junk" books and magazines sold in a city-owned building needed stronger regulation.

"It is difficult to see," declared the city attorney, "in what way a city might improve upon the state law and impose more stringent requirements without getting into the realm of unconstitutionality."

Then he went on to quote the U.S. Supreme Court:

"The fundamental freedoms of speech and press have contributed greatly to the development and well-being of our free society and are indispensable to its continued growth.

"Ceaseless vigilance is the watchword to prevent their erosion by Congress or the states. The door barring federal and state intrusion into this area can not be left ajar; it must be kept tightly closed and opened only the slightest crack necessary to prevent encroachment on more important interests."

Our thanks to City Attorney Nelson for his clear-cut defense of the freedom of the press and for quoting the pertinent supreme court decision. We agree.

The "ceaseless vigilance" goes on. Attempts are being made right now in Sacramento to both limit press freedom and to expand the people's right to know. We—and, we hope, you will be paying close attention.

Escape To The Garden

With taxes what they are and the dark clouds of Berlin, the Congo and Laos lingering on the horizon, it is small wonder that many Marinites seek their escape in the harmony of their gardens.

Here they can perceive the unpredictable, but orderly, processes of Nature's promise of verdant fertility for which Marin is famous.

Here they can struggle with the problems posed by rust, mildew, coddling moth, snails and slugs. In this small cosmos, they can forget the pressing problems of the day and worry happily about the sow bugs on the pansy roots and rust on the roses.

Perhaps this is why our gardeners are probably the most contented worriers of them all.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

LIGHT A CANDLE, NOT CURSE DARKNESS

In the "Merchant of Venice" Portia uttered a sublime thought in these few words:

"How far that little candle throws its beams. So shines a good deed in a naughty world."

Much quoted as these lines of Shakespeare are, they have a special and hopeful application in our troubled times, when too many persons feel that what they think, say or do is futile.

However insignificant it may seem to you, every "little candle" that you light for love, truth, justice and decency has a priceless value. It adds a tiny bit of light and removes a portion of the darkness. It is at least one small constructive step in the right direction.

You many never know until you stand before God how many persons have been heartened or even had their lives changed because a "good deed" of yours shone courageously and hopefully in "a naughty world" as proof that the smallest fight is greater than all the darkness.

"So let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven."
(Matthew 5:16)

Help me, O Light of the world, to light a candle rather than curse darkness.

How Not To Make Hit With Wife—Make Some Remarks

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that housewives get tired of hearing:

"What in the world do wives do with all their spare time?"

"Hey, Mom, where is my blue sweater? I know I left it right here on this chair only two days ago."

"Gee, Mom, I'm already late, and if you don't drive me to school, I'll be marked tardy and—"

"This is Mrs. Chumley of the P-TA. I wonder if you could help us address and mail a few letters? It will only take four or five hours."

"What do you need a new dress for? Didn't you buy one last year?"

"I'll bet as soon as I head out that door for work you'll hop right back in bed for a two-hour nap. All wives do that."

"Why should I help you do the dishes? That's woman's work."

"Hello. Hello. Marge? I missed the 5:56 train home. Bumped into Joe Burch and we stopped off for a couple. I'll catch the 6:48 or maybe the 7:14, or the 8:12 at the very latest."

"I know I promised to take you out tonight, Marge, but I had another one of those tough days at the office. Can't we make it another night?"

"Yes, I think my daughter can baby sit for you tonight, Marge. But I guess I'd better warn you—her rate has gone up to $1.25 an hour."

"Sure it's a nice looking hat, Mom. But don't you think it's a bit, uh, youthful, for you?"

"I know I should have given you more warning, honey, but these guys are just a couple of lonely old bachelors at the office, and they'll eat anything. So don't bother to fix anything special."

"Marriage is for women and children."

"WHY, MOM! Guess what? You've got three more gray hairs. Isn't that funny?"

"I'll tell you what makes modern wives so nervous. Life is too easy for them. They don't have enough to do to keep them busy."

"YEAH, I KNOW I promised you yesterday I'd do it today, Marge. But I'm tired. I'll do it tomorrow for sure."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Voters Should Go To Polls

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

As a campaign worker for the Tamalpais Union High School District bond issue, one of my jobs is to remind voters that they can do their part by getting to the polls on April 18.

It has been demonstrated in past elections that it is not the "no" voters who defeat school issues, but rather the "yes" voters who fail to vote!

We believe that the majority of people in this district, which includes Tamalpais, Drake and Redwood, do want good schools. We think if they will remember to vote April 18, the good schools will be assured.

Since your letter columns are so widely read, I'd like to take this opportunity to stress the importance of voting in the high school bond election.

Learning The Reason Why

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

This is my personal observation. After 30 years of business and now teaching for the past six years, I have found this situation to exist:

Many teachers will be changing schools and are now making applications for positions in another school. While this is hard on the students, many administrators for reasons of their own, desire it this way. Some administrators do not change teachers if they know their subject matter.

Some administrators like an autocratic classroom; some like a friendly classroom; some like a classroom that is quiet; some like a classroom with a lot of discussion of a problem (this is bound to be noisy because of enthusiasm). Hand raising is sometimes ignored.

This last classroom with a lot of discussion seems to be the best (the students learn the reason why). Will the administrator that walks past your classroom agree with you? Will the administrator that walks past a classroom and the students are doing problems in the text on Page 85, and doing it mechanically, say to himself, "This is a good teacher, he has his class well in hand"?

If you have an administrator of such a type and you are a teacher that is anxious to ask questions to stimulate interest, then you will be looking around for a position in another school.

Imitation is not teaching, whether it be arithmetic or shorthand. Why the fraction is reversed in the division of fractions must be explained thoroughly; that you need to secure one part first before you can secure the whole part. In shorthand, the reason the symbol is constructed the way it is must be learned.

You as a teacher must analyze your new administrator in the same way he is analyzing you. Remember, you are the one that is on the firing line.

Apartmentitis Invades Marin

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Apartmentitis invades Marin!

Having just moved from an apartment in Sausalito to a home nestled against the Alto Hills only to find that a developer is trying to cover these lovely hills with what we moved from, is making me just a little hot under the collar.

It would be a shame if the modern Marin children were to forget what a house looks like and at the rate the apartments are going up all over the county this could be a reality.

I presume a developer makes more money building apartments than houses, but maybe for a few years he could find a sideline and let Marin salvage her natural beauty!

Let's Slow Down A Little

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

After reading Emma J. Molyneux's letter in the I-J of April 5, I feel she has touched on all my pet peeves.

I too would like to donate to a "feeling of security" fund.

The pace we are making now is rapidly producing a race of neurotics. Let's slow down a little.

Is Marin A Depressed Area?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Admirable as it may be to consider the federal government guardian of our aged and infirm, our poor, our unemployed, our schools, health, etc., please let us not drift into total dependence on big government which because of its vastness must necessarily be impersonal, terribly expensive, dictatorial to be efficient, and most important, discouraging to individual and local enterprise.

Our supervisors' bid for federal housing for our aged makes me ashamed of our local unwillingness to assume local responsibility.

Mr. (William) Fusselman says this measure would not increase local taxes, but just wait until every area takes ready advantage of Uncle Sam for every need. There will hardly be any personal choice involved with the spending of anybody's pay check.

Marin is not a disaster or depressed area, is it? Are we too late?

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

"I've finally developed a sure-fire way for waking my husband up when I want him to take me out," a contented wife confided to her pals at a bridge party. "I just tiptoe up to him and whisper, 'Darling, how do you like my new mink coat?' "

Proud father was wheeling his new-born son down Park Avenue when an acquaintance stopped and asked, "That's your own baby, I presume?"

"Not at all," said the proud father with elaborate sarcasm. "I borrowed it from the janitor."

"Hmphh," mused the acquaintance, taking a closer look. "Ugly little monster, isn't he?"

George Gobel has persuaded his wife not to use perfumed French soap for the family washing. It seems that his shirts kept coming off the ironing board with their arms tightly wrapped around each other.

Newest Arrival At Jr. Museum Is Baby Seal Too Young To Be Seen

Newest arrival at the Junior Museum of Marin—a wide-eyed baby harbor seal—probably will be named Easter.

He was found on a Sausalito beach and took up residence at the museum not long after Easter Sunday.

The little fellow is doing just fine, but museum officials have cautioned that if you see a baby seal on the beach, leave it alone. It's quite common for a mother seal to leave a baby for as long as a week and still come back for it.

Other animal babies should be left where you find them too, because they are usually not abandoned.

THE MUSEUM is caring for the seal with the expert advice of Dr. Earl Herald of the Steinhardt Aquarium in San Francisco, and the manager of the Wharf Aquarium in Santa Cruz. He has successfully reared a half dozen abandoned baby seals.

There's one problem, however. The baby seal is on a solid diet of fish, and is now up to three and one-half pounds a day. "We need a supply of fish, and at reasonable cost," says Mrs. Diane Williams, acting museum director.

The seal is not on display yet, on advice of the Humane Society. He's kept in a large cage, since he is still too young to remain in the water all the time. When he grows big enough, the museum hopes to build a tank for him.

THE MUSEUM, incidentally, is still accepting applications for the position of director. The job pays $5,000-$6,000 to start, and candidates should have both practical experience and training in the natural sciences.

Annual attendance of adults and children at the museum is hitting the 50,000 mark, we hear.

SOMEONE PARKED a truck in lumber yard property on Francisco Boulevard last week. On both sides of the truck were signs urging a vote for one of the candidates for San Rafael City Council.

Several hours later the truck was still there. And so were two piles of lumber, neatly stacked on either side of the truck, effectively blocking the signs from the sight of any passing motorists.

A SALESGIRL at Kaufman's Department Store in San Anselmo had a hectic morning recently. It was raining, and somehow she caught her finger in her umbrella as she was rushing to work. She dashed into the store to get a bandage, and as she looked down, saw the setting of her diamond ring was missing.

Her co-workers rushed out on the street to look for it, with no results. She decided to return home and look around, and sure enough, on a step of her house, there was the setting.

She was back at her post at the notions counter, a bit breathless, in time for the opening of the store.

Stevenson Emerging As Power In Kennedy's New Frontier

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. —Viewed from both Washington and the U. N., Ambassador Adlai Stevenson is emerging as a powerful figure in the Kennedy administration.

This does not mean that the President is not making the final decisions on policy. This does not mean that Secretary of State Dean Rusk is being detoured as Kennedy's principal adviser on foreign affairs.

It does mean that, on the basis of his experience, initiative, and political prestige at home and abroad, Stevenson is exerting unusually wide influence in the State Department and the White House.

WHATEVER COOLNESS there may have been in the past, Stevenson and Kennedy are now establishing a good working relationship. As a consequence the President's U. N. ambassador is today at the center of policy formulation.

Every delegate here is under instructions from his government. Stevenson is, too. But to a notable extent his recommendations shape his instructions. And beyond that his views on the widest range of foreign policy carry great weight in the top councils of the administration.

WHEN BRITISH Prime Minister Harold Macmillan was in Washington last week to meet with President Kennedy, Stevenson took part as well as Secretary Rusk.

Kennedy needs Stevenson in his administration. The President is aware of his close election, wants to keep the support of Adlai's followers. In addition, Stevenson, through his wide travels, has gotten to know personally more world leaders than anyone in the administration, including the President.

Everything hasn't always gone well. Kennedy was annoyed no little when Ambassador Stevenson publicly "guessed" that the President would be "glad" to see Premier Khrushchev if he decided to come to the U. N.—this when the President did not want to give Khrushchev any encouragement to come.

I am also told that Mr. Stevenson delivered two speeches, not before the U. N., which had not been cleared by the State Department.

But these things were in the early period of the administration's take-over — and have not recurred. Rusk and Stevenson have worked together smoothly thus far.

IN HIS JOB at the U. N., Stevenson is at many points doing things differently than did Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge. He is initiating breakfast, luncheon, and dinner sessions with the heads of all the 99 delegations, sometimes including wives. For the first time Stevenson, as U. S. representative, let it be known that he would be available to meet with the caucus of the Afro-Asian nations on a common matter. They invited him at once.

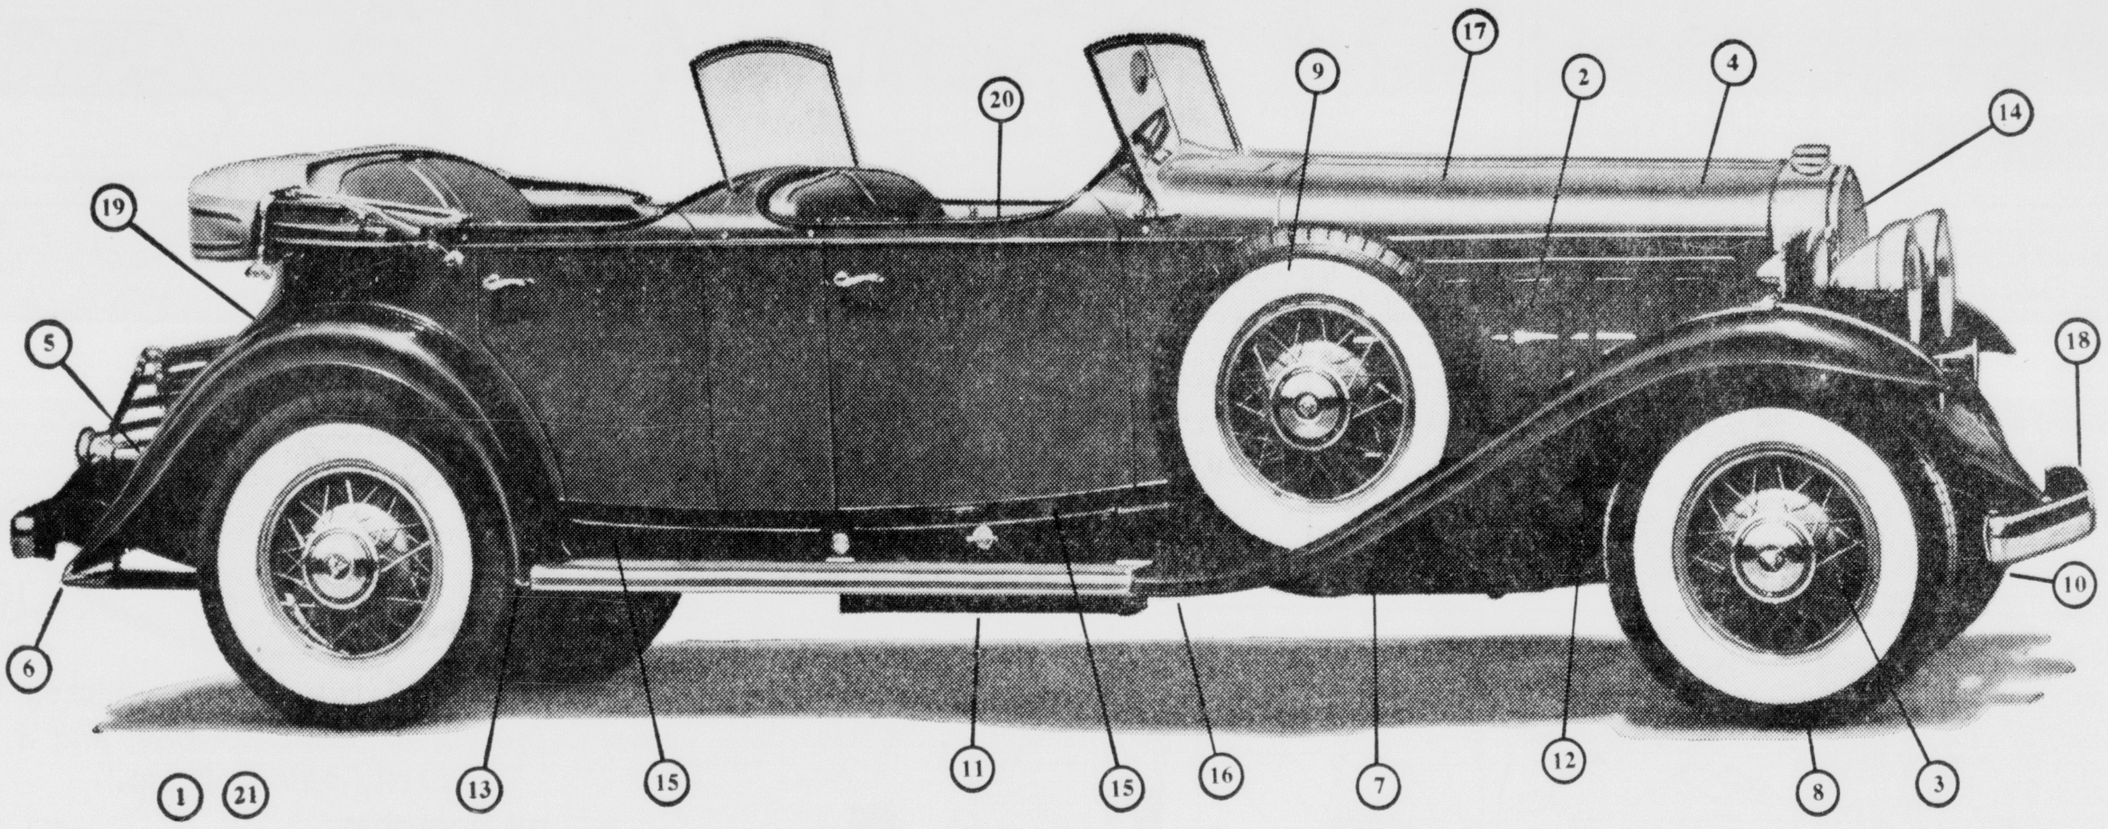
It is premature to guess what Stevenson's record will look like when it takes fuller shape. But at this point he is proving a powerful advocate of U. S. policy within the U. N. and an influential spokesman for his own views within the Kennedy administration.

20 YEARS AGO

Howard Moody, San Rafael convict, asked Gov. Culbert Olson to help him market a "motor vehicle speed regulator" of undisclosed nature which if installed on highways at school zones, rail crossings and sharp curves would make drivers slow down.

The Country Parson

"The most successful reformers are those who make it look like such fun to be good that others want to imitate them."



Shell's automotive experts have developed many ways to make their own cars run better and last longer. The numbers on this classic 1930 V-16 indicate some of the areas deserving attention, as described below.

Shell recommends 21 ways to make your car last longer

Shell scientists dedicate their working lives to the care and feeding of automobiles.

They can offer dozens of tips on prolonging the life of your second biggest investment. Here are some useful samples:

AMERICANS spend more than 2 billion dollars a year on automotive replacement parts. This expense is enough to give every man, woman, and child in the U. S. a $12 birthday present.

With a little care you can avoid much of this expense and keep your car youthful. Here are a few tips from Shell's experts.

1. Break in a new car properly. A long break-in period at low speed is no longer necessary. But manufacturers recommend:

A. Don't accelerate at full throttle or change gears abruptly. Sudden shocks to gears in the rear axle and transmission can cause lasting damage.

B. Vary your speeds—and especially avoid sustained high speed.

C. Try not to stop too suddenly—it can harm brake surfaces.

2. Warm up slowly. Racing an engine to warm it up ages it fast. A short warm-up at moderate speed is good for your car even in summer, and even more necessary during colder months when the oil tends to move sluggishly at first. Never race your cold engine to warm up, though. It may damage critical working parts before lubrication can be fully established.

There's no need for long idling; but drive slowly for the first few minutes.

3. Use your engine to save your brake linings. Anticipate your slowdowns. Use the brake as little as possible.

When you see you'll have to slow down, take your foot off the accelerator early and let the engine's compression do some of the job.

Always keep the master brake cylinder full of heavy-duty brake fluid. Shell's Super Heavy Duty brake fluid is designed to help your car's brakes deliver top performance.

4. Have your engine's spark timing set to proper specifications. The spark timing determines whether your plugs fire at exactly the right instant. With incorrect timing you lose power and cut mileage. Also your car may knock. Chronic knocking can eventually damage your engine.

5. Use a gasoline that controls knock. If your engine persists in knocking, you may need a gasoline with more anti-knock components, for a higher octane rating.

Today's Super Shell contains all of the anti-knock ingredients required to help your car deliver knock-free performance.

6. Learn to read tail pipe smoke signals. Blue smoke means too much oil is getting into the combustion chambers.

Excessive blue smoke is a warning that piston rings may be worn—and need replacing. Your mechanic calls this a "ring job."

Black smoke is an indication of too much gasoline in the air-fuel mixture. Your carburetor may need an adjustment.

White smoke is mostly water vapor. Don't worry about it. Your engine makes a gallon of water for every gallon of gasoline burned. On cold days some of this shows up as vapor.

7. Have your oil checked whenever you fill up with gasoline. An oil check is a simple safety check for your engine. It is also free, and takes less than a minute.

By the way, oil does not wear out. But it can be lost through leaks or burning. And it does get dirty. Worse yet, oil can become contaminated by combustion by-products—including acid.

To be really safe, use new Shell X-100® Premium Motor Oil. It only costs about $3.60 more per year than regular oils—no more than most premiums.

New Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil fights engine acid a brand-new way—with an amazing chemical shield that clings tightly to all metal surfaces.

For most cars Shell recommends an oil change once a month in winter, every 60 days in summer—never more than 2,000 miles between changes.

8. Avoid high speeds and save your tires. Every extra mile your tires last is money in your pocket. High speeds increase wear drastically—by as much as 80% over normal wear—so it pays to go easy.

9. Rotate tires every 5,000 miles. Your tires will last longer because they will all wear evenly, and at the same rate. Note: See your Shell dealer for a set of valve caps; they will prevent air from getting out and dirt from getting in around the tire valve.

10. Check wheel alignment and balance. The shock of hitting curbs or dropping into deep holes can cause misalignment.

This literally drags the wheel at an angle to the line of travel. Nothing wears tires out more quickly.

An out-of-line wheel can increase tire wear as much as 50 per cent. An unbalanced wheel pounds the tire against the pavement, wearing the tread unevenly.

Have an expert check wheel alignment and balance at least twice a year. Proper tire inflation at all times is also essential.

11. Save your battery with 11¢ worth of baking soda. Dirt and corrosion can actually cause current leaks—and can shorten your battery's life by many months. If corrosion is visible, wash the battery off with a solution of baking soda and water. Use a wire brush if necessary. Then rinse thoroughly with warm water. Ask your Shell dealer to check your battery terminals.

Caution: Never allow the soda-water solution to get into your battery; it could neutralize the acid which makes your battery work.

12. Change your oil filter element every other oil change. Abrasive specks as small as 1/1000th of an inch in diameter can shorten the life of your engine. The oil filter element in your car has the exacting task of keeping tiny, dangerous specks of metal and other abrasives out of the engine, while allowing oil to flow freely.

The filter catches and holds these foreign particles until it can hold no more. But when the oil filter is clogged up, it cannot work effectively.

Replacing the filter element every other oil change helps your engine to last longer.

13. Get a lubrication job regularly. Dirt and moisture can work into chassis joints and bushings, causing friction and wear. Grease can also eventually pound out, leaving the parts unprotected.

See your Shell dealer for a Shellubrication. He has the charts, equipment, Shell lubricants for your car, and the skill for a really thorough job.

14. Have your car's cooling system checked twice a year. In time, the inhibitors in your anti-freeze lose some of their ability to prevent rust, corrosion and sediment from forming in your cooling system.

Let your Shell dealer check the cooling system—including hoses and hose connections—no less than twice a year. When he drains and refills he will add a special Cooling System Protector.

15. Keep door and body panel drain holes clear to foil rust. You never see them, but there are little drain holes at the bottom of body panels and doors. They can get clogged so that the panels actually hold water. Rust forms more easily and can eat holes right through the metal.

You have probably noticed this ugly sight in other cars. Make sure drain holes are always kept clear.

16. Keep road salt washed off. Nothing can damage a car's appearance more than the chemicals used to clear icy, snowy roads. They can eat not only the finish, but the body structure itself. Make sure you get it all off—not only from the paint but from the bright metal parts, as well.

17. Use these tips to help your car stay new looking longer. A good coat of polish provides a film that protects your car's finish. But before you polish your car, always wash it—and always in the shade.

Some new car finishes need only a good washing to keep them bright, but others require waxing. It's a good idea to check your owner's manual. Older cars are almost certain to benefit from a good waxing.

18. Protect chrome against rust invasion. Chrome, itself, can't rust. But it actually has millions of tiny holes which can let the moisture right through to the metal beneath. Dirt invites this invasion, so clean the chrome thoroughly and frequently, and wax it for further protection.

19. "Bandage" minor scratches in your car's finish. Small scratches in the finish expose bare metal which can rust. Until you can have the scratches refinished, keep rust from forming with a coat of touch-up paint or even a strip of cellulose tape on the scratches. Use clear nail polish on scratches in the chrome.

20. Pamper carpets and upholstery. Ground-in dirt wears out carpets before their time. Give them a weekly whisking or vacuuming; shampoo once in a while.

21. Let your Shell dealer help your car last longer. Your car may have cost you thousands of dollars. After your home, this is probably your biggest single investment.

Treat it carefully. Feed it well. Let your Shell dealer help you on both counts. You will save money—and increase your driving pleasure, too.

Today is Thursday, April 13, the 103rd day of the year with 262 more in 1961.

The moon is new.

The morning stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening star is Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1743, third United States President Thomas Jefferson was born.

In 1846, the Pennsylvania Railroad got its charter.

In 1852, American merchant Frank Woolworth was born.

In 1958, American pianist Van Cliburn won a Soviet piano competition.

In 1960, the son of French auto magnet Jean Pierre Peugeot was kidnapped.

A thought for today: Thomas Jefferson said: "Enlighten the people generally, and tyranny and oppressions of body and mind will vanish like evil spirits at the dawn of day."

Private Investing Firm May Open New Bay Area Office In San Rafael

The Pacific Plan, a bay area firm specializing in hard money deeds of trust for private investors, with offices in San Francisco, the East Bay, down the Peninsula and as far south as Monterey, has just opened its 10th branch at Pleasant Hill in the East Bay.

Number 11, we understand, is slated for San Rafael. A company spokesman announced that it may locate here as early as June or July. The firm is looking over available sites for an investment manager, loan manager, appraiser and possibly one or two secretaries. Main offices are located in Menlo Park.

Records submitted to the U. S. Internal Revenue Service indicate that investors through Pacific Plan received an aggregate total in interest payments of more than $738,000 during 1960.

SOMETHING NEW in swimming pool purifiers is being offered by Puretronics Corp., Northern California distributors for an electronic device known as Aquatrol. Marin headquarters are at 3765 Redwood Highway north of San Rafael where Dolphin of Marin is located.

Aquatrol was developed by Edwin B. Block, inventor of the walkie-talkie. Its purpose is to eliminate all need for the usual swimming pool chemicals such as chlorine and acid. In operation, silver and copper ions are released into solution by an electronic cell. A measuring unit that automatically tells when ionization is needed acts as a governor.

The silver ions destroy bacteria and the copper ions eliminate algae—all according to the laws of nature.

Also eliminated, says sales manager Peter Henderlite, are irritants to the eyes and skin. The water is rendered so pure, he claims, you can drink it, and he suits action to the word by downing a glass with gusto.

The device is affixed to the pool filtering system and Puretronics Corp. affirms that it will pay for itself in two years. The whole thing fits into a container about the size of a suitcase, requires only minor electrical and plumbing work for installation.

OUTER SPACE or inner space—one or the other is needed for the increasing bulk of county records, but County Recorder Noel Giacomini concurs with the Marin County Grand Jury that for the time being, at any rate, his department should remain in the courthouse and not be transferred to the Civic Center when it becomes available.

All records are now being microfilmed and stored for protection and preservation, but the photostat system is more practical for everyday thumbing by title companies and informaton seekers, he told the Marin County Real Estate Board last Tuesday. Microfilmed records will last indefinitely when properly stored but get ragged around the edges with heavy use.

Older records receive the most wear and tear, because title companies have kept up their own complete records for reference during recent years.

The space problem may be solved later by making use of some of the County Assessor's quarters.

Just for the records, Giacomini said his department is self-supporting; fees taken in (fees are set by the state) amount to about $85,000 a year. The annual budget varies but generally results in a substantial rebate to the general fund.

OUT OF THE DOLDRUMS? Report from the Marin County Real Estate Board indicates that Recorder Giacomini may be in for a healthy rise in business.

Multiple listing sales for March, 1961, jumped up 53 per cent in numbers over the same period a year ago—better than 61 per cent in dollar volume.

Novato, Club Cited For Attempt To Beautify Streets

The city of Novato has received a certificate of merit in radio station KCBS community beautification competition and the Novato Garden Club has been cited for its efforts to beautify the main street, Grant Avenue.

The awards are presented to the cities making the "most significant visible landscaping improvement" during Plant A Tree Week, sponsored by the station in March.

Twenty-one liquidambar trees in redwood planter boxes have now been placed on Grant Avenue. The Novato Garden Club donated 20 trees and the Indian Valley Nursery donated one, the first to go out, for in front of City hall. Each box also has yellow and orange gazanias planted in it.

The club last weekend raised more than $400 at a garden bazaar for more trees and for general "city beautification."

Social Dancing Class Registrations Slated

Signups are being taken now for the Southern Marin Recreation Center social dancing class, starting April 26 at 8 p.m. for eight weeks, with David Belrose instructing.

The last series of judo lessons is now being held on Tuesdays at 7 p.m. with Wallie Jay instructing. Registration is still available for the judo class.

Big Tests Lie Ahead In Legislative Mill

By REP. CLEMENT W. MILLER

Congress reconvened this week after the brief recess and stock-taking that traditionally occurs at Easter.

And the big push on the big bills in President John F. Kennedy's legislative program is about to begin.

So far, Congress has enacted four of the 16 measures for which the president has asked priority consideration. Five other bills on that list have been passed by one house or the other.

But, with the exception of the historic Rules Committee fight early in the session, none of these could be called a resounding victory for Kennedy. Except for the House version of the minimum wage bill, the bills passed so far have been of secondary importance or are temporary measures for dealing with the immediate problems of the recession.

The big tests lie ahead.

On the only "big" issue dealt with so far — the minimum wage bill—the president suffered in the House two weeks ago what must be considered a major defeat. The Republican-Southern coalition defeated him by the melodramatic margin of one vote.

But the Senate began debate yesterday on this House version and administration leaders are optimistic about getting a much improved Senate version and then achieving an acceptable final result in House-Senate conference.

Next week the Kennedy federal aid to education bill is to move to the Senate floor, with the housing bill next and such other big ones as medical insurance for the aged, foreign aid, postal rates and the highway program waiting in the wings.

The young chiefs of the new administration and the administration's floor leaders here on Capitol Hill have learned much these last 11 weeks about the well-disciplined and seasoned coalition arrayed against them. The administration combat team should be tougher to beat now that it's blooded by losing the House minimum-wage battle.

The floor of the Touse, rather than the Senate, will continue to be the key battleground for the next four years.

And, I believe, the administration will continue to be in grave trouble in the House until many more members of Congress are convinced that it is very important for them to be on the floor during the long debates and numerous votes on watering-down amendments to the major bills.

For example, the key vote on minimum wage was on such an amendment and was by "teller" vote. This means that congressmen march up the center aisle and file past tellers to be counted for or against a measure. Numbers are counted but the votes are not recorded individually, as on a roll call.

On the key minimum-wage vote the tellers counted 186 for the watering-down amendment on coverage and 185 for the President. This total means that some 60 congressmen did not vote—for one reason or another. But there is no roll-call record so that the voters back home can know how their repepresentative voted, or even if he voted at all.

Hats Off To Our Housewives For Their Tireless Efficiency

Women, you're wonderful! Yau are efficient and you are tireless. You organize a hundred separate jobs into a workable sequence daily. Then you barrel through 'em.

How do you do it?

There's a reason for my admiration. I've been a housewife for two whole days. My lady has been at camp, with her club group.

"You won't mind keeping house for two days, will you dear?" she asked me. She put her arms around me then kissed me. "I'll leave Friday afternoon and get back early Monday morning. You don't object do you,"

I'm putty in my lady's hands. Come to think of it I'd be putty in most any lady's hands, treated that way

Now it is Sunday evening. The kids are studying. I stand in the kitchen, and what do I see, Chaos. Dirty dishes everywhere. The top of the stove shines with grease from the spattering of the morning bacon. The tile on the drainboard has new dark spots. The wastebasket in the corner is overflowing. Do you suppose I can clean this mess up before midnight?

The bedrooms are fine. I made the kids do that job. They squawked, of course. Who ever heard of spending Sunday afternoon making beds and vacuuming floors? I got strict, and gave orders. Now the young'ns look at me as if I had a loathsome disease or two heads.

The cooking is what floored me. Last night I tried to broil steaks, stew vegetables, bake potatoes, toss a green salad, heat a frozen pie, and whip some cream simultaneously. My wife does all this. Why can't I?

We ate sporadically, from 6 until 9 p.m. You should have heard the wisecracks.

Tomorrow I'll be a man again. Tomorrow I'll be back at the office. Hallelujah!

Marin Man To Study School Acoustics

By DOROTHY SIMPERS

A San Rafael man will undertake a nationwide acoustical research project which he says will probably influence the design of schools for the next 50 years.

He is Dariel Fitzroy of 50 Montecito Road, an acoustical consultant.

Fitzroy, with school architect John Lyon Reid of San Francisco, has received a Ford Foundation grant for an acoustical and architectural investigation.

They will visit schools across the country—specifically those that have "departed from the norm" in their physical plants—to learn several things.

The researchers will attempt to find out what is the minimum possible in partitions or walls — acoustical separation — between classrooms, and the maximum amount of noise interference under which a class can be conducted without interfering with learning.

They also will check on what is the ideal environment for such facilities as band practice rooms and gymnasiums.

In other words, explains Fitzroy, "we will try to learn how much racket the pupils can stand and still learn."

He believes the research will prove that practically no separation is necessary between classrooms, that pupils will be able to learn under such conditions because of the ability to "focus on something desired and exclude what is undesired."

The results of the research will influence the design of schools adapting to such new developments as team teaching and teaching machines, Fitzroy says.

He explains that over the years certain criteria have been followed, requiring that there should be a sound reduction of 40-45 decibels through the partition separating classrooms. A decibel is a measure of sound intensity.

With architect Reid, Fitzroy began experimenting with reducing that intensity. They found there was adequate interception of sound at 20-25 decibels. This, says Fitzroy, made a school more flexible and reduced construction costs.

Visiting schools in Texas, Fitzroy found a new one with no partitions between classrooms, and no corridor walls. He took tape recordings on which all classes can be heard at once.

In all this bedlam, the fifth grade, for example, could hear what was going on in the first grade. He asked the teachers if they didn't go crazy with all that noise. "We like it," they told him. "It's marvelous."

Reid and Fitzroy already have started checking to see how many schools can be included in their survey. Probably 50 to 60 will be visited. The project is expected to take most of a year.

The research project is being done for the educational facilities laboratory, educational division of the Ford Foundation, which encourages research into improved teaching facilities and methods.

Fitzroy has been acoustical consultant on between 500 and 600 school buildings of many types, for band rooms, multipurpose rooms, auditoriums and classrooms. He recently spoke before the Florida State Board of Education on adaptation of schools for team teaching.

In recent years Fitzroy has become particularly well known in his field for a new formula which makes possible more precise prediction of the sound quality of rooms and puts the finger on what contributes to poor quality of a bad room.

Fitzroy believes he was the first independent acoustical consultant in the world. He has worked on many well-known buildings, including the Masonic Temple in San Francisco, and the auditorium of San Francisco State College. He will be the consultant on the new terminal building at San Francisco Airport and on the Rodef Sholom temple in Santa Venetia.

In addition to his work on buildings, he also does industrial noise control to block sound and to try and protect workers from damaging noise.

Sometimes he is called in to patch up acoustical problems in buildings already completed, or he may testify in court in cases involving acoustical problems.

The versatile Fitzroy also is a former long-time member of the Ross Valley Players and a one-time professional magician who has written several books on magic. His stage name was Dariel Fitzkee.

Prison Chapel Bids Submitted

DeNarde Construction Co. of Oakland submitted the low bid of $175,187 for construction of the new Protestant chapel at San Quentin Prison, the State Division of Architecture announced.

The new structure will replace the old chapel in an ancient building to be torn down. It will hold about 400 persons.

The prison's new Catholic chapel already has been built and is in use. The Protestant chapel, to be joined to the Catholic chapel by a walkway, will be the second phase of a building program

"We hope it will be ready in about a year. It's a very much needed replacement," said associate warden Walter D. Achuff.

Creampuff '54 Olds Coupe $550
Here's a really nice car for the money. It's a Super 88 club coupe in all arctic white with spotless blue interior. It's equipped with power steering, power brakes, hydramatic trans, radio, heater and many other items. It's just had brand new white wall tires put on all the way around, plus a new generator, new brakes, and new battery. We can't find a thing left to do to put this in top shape. Unusually clean.

Different Views On Tam Bonds To Be Given On KPIX Tonight

Giving their conflicting views concerning next Tuesday's Tamalpais Union High School District bond election over KPIX tonight at 7:30 will be William Lewis, chairman of the Tam trustees and proponents of the bonds, and P. J. Rowland, president of the Marin County Tax payers Assn. and an opponent of the bonds.

It is part of a general half hour look at Bay Area school bond controversies scheduled by Channel 5.

The Lewis-Rowland statements were taped in advance. And apparently, from the standpoint of KPIX management at least, the former's arguments carried the greater punch. Anyway, Channel 5 has announced that one of its on-the-air editorials, to be delivered by general manager Louis S. Simon, will deal with the Tam bond election. It will be heard tomorrow at 11:15 p.m. and again on Sunday at 1:25 p.m. And the title—"Give Marin Schools A Hand"—serves as a tip-off as to the KPIX stand.

ALSO OF special Marin interest tonight is the KQED "Profile: Bay Area" show at 9:30. The proposed Point Reyes national park will be debated with David Brower, Sierra Club executive secretary, and Sigurd F. Olson, former National Parks Assn. president, favoring the park proposal, and George A. Craig, Western Lumber Manufacturers Inc. secretary-manager, and Norman Livermore Jr., Pacific Lumber Co. treasurer, opposing it.

IN SHARP contrast to the tiresome "sameness" of most of the half-hour programs, KQED's "Robert Herridge Theater" continues to come up with something fresh and different each week.

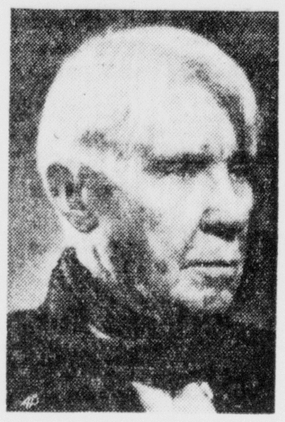
Tonight (at 8:30 p.m.) it will be Canadian actor Michael Kane in a one-man performance of the Edgar Allen Poe thriller, "The Tell-Tale Heart." It features original music composed and conducted by Tom Scott.

Also tonight: Pulitzer Prize-winning historian and poet Carl Sandburg and CBS news chief Howard K. Smith, visit the Gettysburg battlefield to recount the events of that historic battle which turned the tide in the Civil War. The 83-year-old Sandburg will also recreate Abraham Lincoln's immortal Gettysburg Address on the special "CBS Reports" show to be seen at 10 o'clock on KPIX.

SOME HAVE expressed irritation with television's current preoccupation with the Adolf Eichmann case. Better, they seem to say, that we forget Nazi brutality and its millions of victims.

They are often, we feel, the very ones who should be served frequent and regular reminders of the ugly, paranoic thing that racism can become if unchallenged and unchecked by thinking people. Too bad that more of them won't be watching a couple of special TV shows tomorrow night.

One, to be seen from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. on KQED, is the Polish film classic, "The Last Stop," first place winner in the 1948 International Film Festival. The New York Times lauded it as one of a very few films demonstrating "a mature and profound comprehension of the great human tragedy of the last war."



CARL SANDBURG
A visit to Gettysburg

The setting is the infamous Auschwitz horror camp in southern Poland.

Also special tomorrow, at 10:30 p.m. on KGO, will be another show in the splendid "Bell & Howell Close-Up" series, this one entitled "I Remember." In it a former inmate of eight Nazi concentration camps, now a U.S. resident, revisits Europe, reliving his wartime ordeals. And wonders "Can it happen again?"

Highway Traffic Pattern Change Through Ignacio

New traffic arrangements expected to improve safety on Highway 101 throught Ignacio were in effect today as result of a fast operation by state workmen yesterday, Capt. T. F. Parnow of the California Highway Patrol announced.

No more left turns by northbound traffic or cross-traffic will be permitted henceforth at the point where the Nave Lanes are east of the highway and the entrance to Loma Verde and Marin Golf and Country Club Estates is to the west.

Instead, northbound traffic may keep on to the intersection by Galli's restaurant, where a new safer left turn "storage lane" has been installed.

Parnow said it is hoped this arrangement will stop a recent run of mishaps at the former Nave turn westward.

Feed Grain Program Redemptions Due

Farmers who take part in the 1961 feed grain program will be paid in negotiable certificates that may be redeemed in grain or in the cash equivalent, A. J. Bianchi, chairman of the Marin County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said today.

Producers may receive half of his estimated total payment for his farm at the time he signs up for the program. Farmers who take part must divert at least 20 per cent of the 1959-60 base acreage of corn and grain sorghums to soil conserving uses, Bianchi said.

Center Offers 'One-Stop' Shopping

Marin County bargain seekers will find many values at the Corte Madera Shopping Center during the Dollar Days Celebration tomorrow and Saturday.

"The bargain event is a must for the large number of Marin shoppers who like the 'one-stop' shopping offered at the Center," stated Robert A. Batty, president of the Corte Madera Merchants Council.

Quality merchandise is offered at prices designed to accommodate even the tightest family budget, Batty said.

"The merchants are promising the biggest Dollar Day in Marin County. All of the center's stores are participating, reducing prices on much of the merchandise they have in stock," stated Louis Malvino, council secretary.

For the convenience of late shoppers, all the stores will be open until 9 o'clock tomorrow, Batty stated.

"Montgomery Ward's in Corte Madera is holding the first of its two Ward Weeks at the same time as the Dollar Days sale in the Shopping Center," said Burton Rowe, Wards merchandise manager.

"Marin County can look for a big week-end at this center with these two big sales events occuring at the same time," Rowe stated.

All of the 28 stores and services at the Corte Madera multi-million dollar shopping center will participate in the event. These are:

Montgomery Ward and Co., Littleman's Market, Louis George's Men's Apparel, W. T. Grant Co., Thrifty Drug Store, F. W. Woolworth Co., J. C. Penney Co., Kramar's Shoes, Anita Shop, Jay Vee Store, Kirby Shoe Store, Martin and Harris Appliances, Lady Baltimore Bakery, Gallen Kamp's Shoes.

Good Morning To You

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Mrs. Dorothy M. Cole often exchanged greetings and conversed with an elderly woman during early morning strolls, when she was stationed at Oxford, England, during the war as an Army nurse. It was some time later that she learned her acquaintance was Queen Mary, grandmother of Queen Elizabest II.

Expert Help

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Sheriff's deputies had expert help readily available to open a rusty 300-pound safe pulled from the Miami Club.

They simply asked a 20-year-old prisoner in the county jail to apply his talents on the safe. He cracked it.

TELLS OF TERROR

Man Who Struck Stalin Still Alive

GENEVA (UPI) — The man who punched Stalin in the face and lived to tell the tale is rounding out his long life denouncing the brutal terror of the Communist system, whose founders he once plotted with.

At 75, white-haired Khariton Chavichvily is a man who has known conspiracy, revolution and terror.

In a Geneva cafe, just a stone's throw from his present dingy, second-floor lodging, he plotted during 1908 with Lenin for the overthrow of Russia's Romanov dynasty and the end of the reign of Nicholas II, czar of all Russia.

In the uncertain years before World War I, Geneva harbored scores of Russian revolutionaries. Such brilliant intriguers as Nikolai Lenin, who master-minded the revolution of 1917; Leon Trotsky, who later forged the Red Army, and Georgi Plekhanov, who was Russia's foremost Marxist theoretician, gathered at the Cafe Landolt.

Their names are carved on the massive oaken tables around which even today young hotheads and left-wing intellectuals sip their coffee, smoke their pipes and discuss the ills of the world.

"In those days Khrushchev was nothing," said Chavichvily, sitting at one of the tables where he sat with Lenin more than 50 years ago.

Chavichvily, who considers himself the last of the Mensheviks, still is denouncing and protesting. But this time it is not the reaction of the Romanov regime he is against, but the terror of Communism which long ago he, too, wanted to build.

"I am writing my major work: 'The Soviet Union, Georgia, and Human Rights,'" he said.

His conflict with terror goes back to the time he slapped Stalin in the face and got away with it.

Chavichvily, who comes from Georgia, as did Stalin, agitated for communism in his youth and took part in the 1905 revolt which gave imperial Russia the ominous forecast of the bloody revolution that came 12 years later.

In 1905 he argued for three nights running with Stalin, a Bolshevik, and Ramishvilli, a Menshevik, at Tciatouri in Georgia. (The Bolsheviks and the Mensheviks split at the London Communist Congress in 1903 because the Bolsheviks advocated force and the Mensheviks advised peaceful means for installing communism.)

"Stalin, who was then called Koba, roughed up a good friend of mine, so I punched him in the face," Chavichvily said. "Stalin only smiled back at me."

In 1908 Chavichvily joined Lenin in Geneva. But when Lenin asked him to ride on the famous sealed train to Leningrad's Finland Station to spur on the revolution in 1917, he refused.

Between the wars he worked in the Swiss capital at Bern as a journalist. He established the Georgian Press Bureau, and through secret contacts was able to leak news of Politburo meetings in Moscow. In 1945 when he published articles on Stalin in Geneva's Journal de Geneve, Communist agents tried to molest him and cut off his funds.

In 1952, Communist agents raided his prized Russia documents — sought after by many Soviet researchers — and stole precious letters signed by Lenin.

But in 1961 Chavichvily, one of the oldest newspapermen accredited to the United Nations, is grinding out his final condemnation.

He sits in his dimly lit lodgings, wearing a cast-off button-down-collar shirt, writing his manuscript by a window overlooking the cafe where he conspired.

"There are a lot of things you have to live through before you will ever understand," he said.

Opening Slated In Fall For Clothing Store

Latest addition to the continually expanding Corte Madera Shopping Center is a 10,000-square-foot clothing store for men and boys to be operated by Smith's Clothiers of Oakland.

Ground was recently broken for the new building which will adjoin that of Montgomery Ward and Co., with entrances on the Mall and Corte Madera Boulevard. Opening is planned for this fall.

The store was designed by Leo Roselyn of San Francisco and will feature low, open displays for close inspection and easy handling of merchandise. It will have a main selling floor and a mezzanine. Large windows and daylight lighting fixtures will make it possible to select ties, suits and slacks with their true color values displayed under ideal conditions.

Air conditioning will assure comfortable shopping in any weather.

Smith's Oakland store is now in its 75th year of operation. There are other Smith's stores in Berkeley, Hayward, Richmond and Walnut Creek, and one newly opened in Redwood City. More are planned for Concord, Fremont, San Jose and Sacramento within the year.

The $175,000 building in Corte Madera is being built by Clovis Construction Co. of San Francisco.

Boundary Of Michigan, Ohio Caused 'Earlier Civil War'

DETROIT (UPI) — Pioneer settlers along the Michigan-Ohio boundary were old hands at "civil war" a good 25 years before the first guns were fired at Ft. Sumter.

The nation began its four-year centennial commemoration of the War Between the States in January.

The first "civil war," however, lasted only a matter of days, and more whisky was spilled than blood, according to historians.

The dispute arose between Michigan and Ohio in 1835 over the boundary line between the two states.

Michigan, referring to a 1787 ordinance, said the line should extend due east from the southern extremity of Lake Michigan, passing near the town of Perrysburg, (Ohio), south of Toledo.

Ohio said ordinance be damned, she wanted Toledo.

The issue came to a head when Ohio Gov. Robert Lucas decided to organize the northern portion of his state into Lucas County, with the seat at Toledo.

He set Sept. 7, 1835, for convening the first circuit court in the new county, an act which he thought would settle the matter once and for all.

Michigan's territorial governor, youthful Stevens T. Mason, was not to be intimidated.

He called up 1,000 state militiamen, marched some of them aboard a troopship at Detroit and dispatched the rest on foot toward the Ohio border.

Lucas heard the Michigan troops were on the way, and sent 600 of his own men to the south shore of the Maumee River to await Mason's forces.

On the evening of Sept. 6, Mason and his men moved into the city of Toledo, keyed for a pitched battle with the Ohio militia. But nothing happened.

Sometime during the night the Ohio circuit judges, escorted by a troop of soldiers, stole into the city, broke into a schoolhouse, declared the court in session, adjourned rapidly and high-tailed it back to the Ohio lines.

When Mason heard the next day that court had been held, he conceded defeat and proceeded to demobilize his force.

Before he could leave Toledo, however, he received word from President Andrew Jackson that he had been relieved of his command as territorial governor.

In 1836, the federal government suggested that it would consider Michigan for statehood if the state agreed to give up its claim to the Ohio property.

As a consolation prize, Michigan was offered the vast upper peninsula, then an unexplored arm of the territory of Wisconsin.

Michigan agreed, and when she was admitted to the union in 1837, her "war hero," Stevens T. Mason was returned as the state's first governor.

The state line question remained a touchy issue in Michigan and Ohio border towns for some time, historians report.

Hungary Hammers At Red Farm Plan

VIENNA (UPI) — Hungary is swinging into the last lap of its drive for all-out collectivization, official Hungarian sources in Vienna report.

The campaign has been in full force since a Communist Party resolution last November ordered the completion of agricultural collectivization by the end of the winter. Party Chief Janos Kadar went on record at the last parliament session in December with a statement that it "would definitely be accomplished" before this current year is out.

Under the force of these commitments, official pressure has increased on private landowners.

No violence has been reported, but officials are quick to use measures even more effective against the stubborn but helpless holdouts.

Hungarian hospitality demands that every visitor be offered coffee and cakes in the home. In a single day up to 25 regional officials descend on a peasant family, cleaning them out of coffee—which costs $9 a pound—offering in return tales of the wonders of socialized farming.

More hard-necked peasants have been called out in their pajamas in the middle of the night, locked out and told to knock on the door when ready to sign up for collectivization.

So far the drive has been successful. Between June and December last year, 223 new collective farms were organized. An official tally at the first of the year said that 82 per cent of the arable land already belonged to the so-called Socialist sector.

But the toll already is beginning to tell. For all their propaganda successes, the officials cannot force the peasants to work the collectivized land. Unharvested potatoes still are lying in the frozen ground, and at night families dig up only enough for their own needs. Illegal slaughter of cattle and swine is rampant, and Hungary, once the breadbasket of Central Europe, last year was forced to import pork for the first time in its history under an agreement with Austria which pledged Hungary to return payment in kind this year.

It is improbable that the agreement can be kept. The peasants are slaughtering suckling pigs as well, and the market outlook for 1961 does not indicate enough meat for local consumption needs, let alone for export.

Travelers from Hungary report that peasant resentment at the government has never been so high. Morale is at a new low, and the official party organ, Nepszabadsag, recently admitted that in several villages demoralized peasants are drinking day and night.

Ironically, some of the leaders of the collectivization campaign are said to have seen secret documents showing that the few remaining private farmers in Hungary are producing better and bigger crops than the most advanced collectivized farms in the "ideal state" — Russia.

But resulting food shortage or no, and peasant opposition notwithstanding, the Kadar government is committed to its course. Although Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's friendliness to the Hungarian boss during the November Moscow conference vastly strengthened Kadar's position at home, failure to attain the promised 100 per cent collectivization would mean failure of the regime's main plank.

Illegible Handwriting Slows Down Mail, Causes Losses In Business

NEW YORK (UPI)—If your income tax refund is late in arriving this year, you may have only your poor handwriting to blame.

If friends and relatives complain they never receive the letters you claim you write, there is a strong chance that the postal employes could not read your sanskrit and dumped your mail into the dead-letter files.

Illegible handwriting also has been known to delay the filling of department store orders and cause pharmacists to misread doctors' prescriptions.

Handwriting cripples are so numerous that the University of Wisconsin has been conducting an extensive survey under grants from the Parker Pen Co. to try to straighten out some of the kinks and snarls in the average person's script.

Until the early 20th Century, handwriting was an art that was cultivated carefully in schools and homes. The first blow to legibility was the widespread use of the typewriter. Then came the second, when penmanship instruction in public schools was dropped as a depression money-saver.

Added to these blows, according to University of Wisconsin researchers, were the introduction of several basic handwriting systems. Today, it is estimated, there are about 19 different handwriting systems, instead of the single Spencerian script of the 1900's and the "Palmer Method" of the next few decades.

So-called progressive education brought the widespread teaching of printing instead of longhand to children, on the theory it was easier to learn.

All these factors have added up to a most horrifying jumble of illegible words and numbers, the Wisconsin researchers discovered. They estimated that a million dollars a week is lost by business and industry in scrambled orders, lost deliveries, clerical mistakes and other forms of inefficiency traceable to unreadable writing.

The Illinois Bell Telephone Co. alone found it lost nearly $50,000 a year because operators had scribbled toll call charges in hieroglyphics.

Several department stores have introduced experimental classes in penmanship for employes. Other companies have issued orders to workers to write legibly, or else.

The root of the trouble is that people think much faster than they can write. Therefore, the swifter a person is, the worse his scrawl. College professors and top executives have been found to be the No. 1 offenders on the graphological scale.

The average individual thinks at the rate of about 250 words a minute. But he cannot write faster than 25 words a minute and still read what he has set down.

The Wisconsin handwriting experts claim that anyone can improve his handwriting, if he really tries. Here are some basic handwriting tips they passed along:

—Test yourself to see if your handwriting speed exceeds 25 words a minute. If it does, slow down.

—Practice writing the trickier letters slowly. A, E, R, and T are the most difficult to write. Also practice with letters such as A, G and D to make sure they are fully closed.

—Watch for "twin" numbers. The numerals 1 and 7 should not look anything alike. Also beware of 3, 5 and 8, which often look alike when written hurriedly.

—Sit properly when writing, with shoulders slightly forward and hips back on the seat. Face the desk squarely with both forearms on it. Keep both feet flat on the floor.

—The paper should be slanted slightly. The palm of the writing hand should be down and the wrist should be held as flat as possible. Hold pencil or pen an inch above the point.

—Never press down while writing. Hold the pen or pencil lightly or the writing will be cramped.

A few minutes a day of such practice may bring dramatic results. Even you, at long last, may be able to read your own writing!

Music Camp Turns Into Full School

NEW YORK (AP) — After 33 years, that small place in the Michigan lakeland with the strange, Swiss-sounding name —Interlochen—has grown from a summertime music camp into a year-round academy of arts.

When its president and founder, Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, was introduced at a recent New York news conference, the master of ceremonies used these words:

"He is the living refutation of the slander that has been circulating abroad, that America's is a purely materialistic society."

Interlochen, Mich., is Maddy's brainchild, now grown into manhood. The only secondary school of its kind in the United States, Interlochen's National Music Camp—which in September will become the Interlochen Arts Academy—has specialized over the past three decades in training and producing what Maddy calls "musical leadership at lower level."

By this, he explained, he means thoroughly trained musicians in all aspects who spread throughout the country to "give music" to the people either as members of well-established orchestras or as leaders and conductors of lower-level music organizations.

It is estimated that up to 15,000 high school-age children have left the National Music Camp since its founding in 1928 to find creative places in music and affiliated arts throughout the U. S.

The full Interlochen Arts Academy, opening Sept. 10, will enroll some 300 students and offer a complete college preparatory curriculum in addition to highly specialized training in music, art, drama and dance, recording techniques, radio and TV.

Music offerings will include a 100-piece youth symphony orchestra, Maddy said, as well as a symphonic band, choir and instruction in chamber music, composition, conducting all instruments and voice.

"Frequent concerts, broadcasts, television performances and recording sessions will provide training not available elsewhere in winter," according to Maddy.

Interlochen Arts Academy believes in a very strict regimen. Not only will it be difficult to enroll there — a child will have to have two confidential recommendations from his present school as to talent and qualifications—but once there he'll have to work hard.

Classes will meet six days a week, evenings will be devoted to special rehearsals, recitals, lectures, concerts by visiting artists, followed by a period of study before bedtime at 10 p.m.

There will be no weekend vacations. Instead, there will be special activities such as hobby projects, sports in season, arts programs, such as oratoria or operetta rehearsals and concerts, radio, television and recording sessions.

The accent will be on "concentration," Maddy said. "There is no other secondary boarding school in America which is dedicated to concentration training in the arts in addition to academic schooling leading to college entrance.

"Maddy's school," as some people in the world of music call it, is well-known already. But to make it known better, Maddy has made a color movie "The Three R's and the Arts," for showing on TV and in theaters. A radio series—"The Best from Interlochen" (NBC) —will start in March.

The National Music Camp has been operating its own FM radio station for some time. There also are Interlochen recordings, made by the students themselves.

Expensive Weeding

GRISWOLD, Conn. (AP)—Mrs. William Fogarty tried to burn poison ivy from around her house. The house was burned to the extent of several thousand dollars' worth of damage. But the poison ivy was killed. It was trampled by firemen.

Unexpected Question

ELMIRA, N. Y. (AP) — La Rue Seely, assistant to the city manager, was prepared to answer any question on city government when a group of Brownies toured City Hall.
